

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1893.

NO. 16

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Today is what may be termed a regular weather breeder.

Who struck Billy Patterson, is now the enquiry in political circles.

A few days of fair weather would help trade wonderfully just now.

Considerable increase in cotton receipts today, but no advance in prices.

And for Furrman will commence the issue of pension warrants about the 30th inst.

The stockholders of the R & A A L R. and the R & G road are in session here today.

How do you account for it? This is the all absorbing question on the streets today.

The first Monday in next month all the bonds of the county officers will have to be renewed.

The cotton receipts in Raleigh up to date from September 1st have been over 10,000 bales.

The work of preparing the index book for the Register of Deeds office is progressing satisfactory.

The remaining horses were disposed of at the great sale today. There were about fifty of them.

No more politics until next year when, if all reports be true, a regular exciting canvass may be expected.

Read the advertisement of Messrs Snelling & Hicks. They tell something of interest in the drug line.

At the present rate with which the Supreme court is disposing of cases and opinions the docket will soon be cleared.

People are already looking around for Christmas goods. Better advertise in the Visitor at once. No surer method.

The ladies took advantage of the clearing weather today for shopping expeditions and are out in considerable force.

Today has been principally Oconeechee Day at the horse sale. Some splendid animals were disposed of at good prices.

Charlotte is preparing for a regular jollification on Thanksgiving day. Races and other amusements will constitute the program.

A new union station has been completed at Sanford under the joint management of the S A L and the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad.

The regular business meeting of the Governors' Guard will take place tonight. Matters of importance will be taken up. Every member urged to be present.

At the request of the Grand Lodge of Masons, Gov Carr will, in a short time, appoint three trustees on the part of the State for the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

"The Burglar," under direction of A Q S Ammon, will be the attraction at the Academy of Music Thursday next. Watch the boards and press notices. Usual prices.

A special communication of Raleigh Commandery, K T., will be held tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in the Red Cross degree. Visiting fraters cordially invited to attend.

"The Burglar" will be the attraction at the Academy of Music next Thursday night. It is highly praised by the press of the different cities in which it has been presented.

Gov Carr has issued a proclamation designating Thursday, November 30th, as a day of general thanksgiving in accordance with the recommendation of resident Cleveland.

There is a steady increase in the number of students at Trinity college. A handsome picture representing Columbus at the court of Spain has been presented to the institution.

Married.

Last night at 9 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's mother on Saunders street, by Rev J N Cole. Mr Herman Upchurch to Miss Kate Riggan, all of this city.

100 F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No 64, I O O F tonight at 7:30 o'clock, sharp. Work in the degrees. Members of the lodge earnestly requested to attend. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

Railroad Changes.

Several important changes have been ordered in the management of the Seaboard Air Line. Mr H W B Glover will assume the duties of the freight department in Norfolk. Mr J T Anderson will continue in charge of the passenger department. Mr W L O Droyer, chief clerk to the traffic manager will assume the duties of Mr Glover.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Showers. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

On Friday: Fair weather; showers probably Friday night or Saturday.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 56; minimum temperature 48; rainfall .14.

Prowlers.

The people should be on the lookout for midnight prowlers. This morning about 1 o'clock Mrs J A Saunders residing on West Jones street heard a noise down stairs in her house. She went down and found a man trying to force an entrance. With great presence of mind she sent off at once for Mr Wharton Separk, who came immediately. The fellow was still there, but when he saw Mr Separk he ran. Mr Separk discharged a pistol at him, but with what effect is not known. The color of the man could not be ascertained. Be on your guard.
