NO. 17

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

See notice of sale of personal property by Messrs Yancey & Martin.

A regular course of lectures at the Agricultural and Mechanical college this winter would be both instructive and interesting.

Keep in view the advertisement of Messrs Barbee & Pope. Their candies and confectioneries are not surpassed in the city.

The Christian Sun has been enlarged to a 28 column paper and otherwise improved. We are glad to note this evidence of prosperity.

The very latest intelligence from Rev Dr Tupper just prior to our going to press, is to the effect that he is gradually sinking with no hopes of recovery.

We called in at Mr Dughl's today on our usual rounds. He says it is no use to advertise oysters so often in THE VISITOR because almost every body in town knows it as his orders show.

The evidence in the case of Haynes vs the Electric Light Co. was concluded to-day, and argument commenced. The case will probably be given the jury to-night or to-morrow morning.

The President of the Monumental Association received a letter from Col Carr, of Durham, subscribing his name to the amount of one hundred dollars to aid in creating a monument to our Confederate dead. Let other public spirited men come to the front now, and aid the ladies.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the R & G and R & A Air Line roads held yesterday, Mr R C Hoffman was chosen President of the former road and all the old directors, with the addition of Mr W C Stronach were elected. The Durham and Northern road stockholders also held a meeting and elected the old directors.

The season of weddings is now on had and Mr Ohas Bretsch, the noted confectioner and baker, is prepared to furnish wedding cakes of the most superior quality. In fact, he makes this a specialty in his business. Parties matrimonially inclined should give him a call. Read the advertisement and then drop in at 103 Fayetteville street.

Died.

Last night at 10 o'clock, at her residence on W Jones street, Mrs Martha Horton, wife of Mr Walter Horton. She leaves a devoted husband and three children to mourn their loss in which THE VISITOR sincerely joins.

Married.

At the First Baptist church in Danville, Va, last Wednesday night, Mr Thomas M Gorman, of Durham, led to the hymenial altar Miss Sallie Coleman, of the former place.

Mr Gorman is a Raleigh boy having spent most of his early life here. His many friends will most sincerely congratulate him on his matrimonial venture and wish for him the greatest bliss through life.

Personal Mention.

Mr W O Richardson has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be up.

Secretary Telfair has gone to his home in Washington, N C, for a few days' recreation.

Mr Joseph Ellis is critically ill at his home on the Hillsboro road near the Agricultural college.

Mr Enoch Pratt, of Baltimore, is in the city. We believe he is largely interested in the Raleigh street railway company.

Premature.

The many friends of Mrs. D. T. Ward, nee Miss Jean Gale will rejoice to know that rumors of her death were premature and that she is recovering from her recent illness.

The Steam road roller is here and works like a charm.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Generally fair, followed by light local showers Saturday afternoon or evening.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Light showers probable by Saturday evening.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a m today: Maximum temperature, 64; minimum temperature 44; rainfall, 00.

The Health Officer.

Referring to our suggestion of yesterday in relation to the abolition of the office of health officer, we find that it meets with the general concurrence of our people who think that the office could well be dispensed with and that the duties thereof could be performed by the chief of police and his associates at very little additional cost. This, we believe, had been the course prior to the appointment. At any rate, if the office is continued the duties should be more clearly defined by ordinances, which would tend to make it more effective; It is a matter we think for the earnest consideration of the board of aldermen. The condition of the city treasury is such as calls for as much retrenchment as possible.

The counsel for Mr. Josiah Turner in his suit against the estate of the late Gov. Holden have abandoned the case. Mr. Turner announced his purpose to have the case removed to Johnson county.

D T Johnson will have a lot of fine, ripe bananas here tomorrow.

The Size of It.

No shoe department in this city is as large as Swindell's shoe department, and no shoes can give more universal satisfaction. Our shoes are good. Endless variety of school shoes at Swindell's.

Cold Winter Winds.

When the cold winter winds begin to blow then it is every one should be prepared to keep out the cold and damp, and one of the first things to do is to buy a good pair of shoes, and in this line we can help you. We have now on our counters about 100 pair of men's fine shoes that cost from $3 to $6 per pair. They are a part of several lines that we are discontinuing, and you can buy any pair for the sum of $1.50. Of all the bargains ever offered to the people of Raleigh, this is the largest.

Hamlet and Richard III.

It is a well known fact in Raleigh and Brooklyn and East Raleigh that both of these men wore shoes, and they and their wives and children never bought shoes at Swindell's, though they would had Swindell been in the shoe business when Hamlet and Richard were buying shoes. They are gone and you will quickly follow unless you pay more attention to buying good shoes and buying them from Swindell, where good shoes are sold at a small price. Ladies nice solid shoes from $1 to $4 a pair, and men's good shoes from $1 to $3 a pair, and the largest shoe stock in Raleigh to select from at D T Swindell's.

The Length of It.

The actual length of our shoe department is one hundred and fifty feet. Swindell's shoes always give satisfaction.
