

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

No more courts until February 1894.

Cotton receipts were comparatively light today.

There was not an item of interest to be had in the capitol today.

Greensboro is to have a large auditorium with a skating rink annexed.

Attention is called to the sale of real and personal property by B F Montague attorney and mortgagee.

The new moon is far in the South, which the weather wise folks construe into a sign of warm weather.

Miss Edyth Maddox, a popular young lady of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss J J Parham, 103 Saunders St. of this city.

At latest accounts there was no change for the better in the condition of Rev Dr Tupper. He is still critically ill.

Severe colds are prevalent in the city caused from the almost constant change of weather. We hear of several cases of grip.

Raleigh Council, Royal Arcanum, meets Monday night the 13th inst, at 7:30 o'clock, sharp. A full attendance of the members is desired.

The ghost of Hamlet's father will appear at Metropolitan Hall next Wednesday, but there is no cause for alarm. He is perfectly innocent.

The Raleigh delegation to the Liquor Dealer Association has returned to the city. They express themselves as highly pleased with their reception by the press and people of Charlotte.

The friends of Benjamin S Guion, Esq., of Charlotte, will regret to hear of his death which took place on the 9th inst. He was well known in Raleigh and throughout the State, as a most eminent civil engineer.

Our genial city collector, Mr W B Hutchings, is now anxious, ready and willing to write receipts for taxes. He is in attendance at his office from a reasonable early hour in the morning until about 5 in the afternoon. Call and see him.

The 30 days truce of the street cars will soon run out and there is much anxiety to know what will be the up shot. It is to be hoped that the plan may not be abandoned. It would be a sad blow to our city, and to none more than the large property owners.

"The Burglar" was presented last night at the Wagner Opera House by Scammon's company of players and it proved to be a dramatic treat. Each character in the cast was in able hands and a smoother or more effective rendition of the piece could not be desired. Little Lottie Briscoe, the child actress, surprised and delighted the audience by her aptness and precocity. She sang three songs that were remarkably well rendered for a 6 year old, and her high kicking in "Boots-a-ra" was the quaintest bit of comely imaginability. The action of the piece tells a story full of human interest and one that has a moral to adorn the tale. Mr Scammon's company in a play of this kind will always be welcome in Bradford.—The Bradford, Pa, Era, Jan 28, 1893.

A Suggestion.

We hope our patriotic Governor will, as soon as thanksgiving day is over, set apart a special day for the receipt of contributions to the Mount ment fund, and we would suggest that Christmas day be designated. This, in our opinion, would be peculiarly appropriate because it is a time when good cheer usually prevails and the great quality of charity pervades the people generally.

Good Advice.

An exchange says: When a man playfully points a pistol or gun at you, knock him down, whether it is loaded or not—right.

Of Interest to Children.

Mrs Sue Vail Tomlinson, of Greensboro, under the auspices of the Womans' Christian Temperance Union of N C. is in our city in the interest of the children. She will talk to them in the Y M C A. Building Sunday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock, Nov 12th. Will parents see that their children take advantage of this rare occasion to have one who so thoroughly understands child nature, and can adopt herself to their needs. On Monday from 4 to 5 o'clock she will give one of her instructive Bible readings. The ladies are cordially invited to attend.

The reception given her by the W C T U., at Mr Worth's last afternoon was a most enjoyable occasion.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Light rain.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Rain today and tonight, and probably Sunday morning, followed by fair Sunday evening.

The high area over the North Atlantic coast has increased, and spread southward.

The presence of a slight barometric depression off the South Atlantic coast favors threatening weather with rain in North Carolina.

Another depression appears over Texas, and another over Minnesota.

A high area with colder weather appears in the northwest.
