Removal.

Miss Maggie Reese has removed into the new store which has for some time been in course of preparation. It is now one of the most elegantly arranged establishments of the kind in the state and now that it is advanced by Miss Maggie's splendid stock, it has no comparison. She speaks a visit from all her friends and the public generally. Call and see her.

Chamber of Commerce.

This body held a most important meeting last night at which business of much interest was transacted. The condition of our sidewalks were fully discussed and Mr J E Pogue offered resolutions pertinent to the subject, the tenor of which was as follows: That all persons owning property on streets paved with Belgian blocks from curb to curb be requested to pave sidewalks from line to curbing, with either brick, granite, Belgian block or flagstones, that property owners on unpaved streets, be ordered to remove all grass in front of their property at once; that the board of aldermen should pass a resolution giving full authority to the street commissioner or other person to carefully examine sidewalks &c., and report.

The extension of West Morgan and North streets and the widening of South Fayetteville street were recommended.

Resolutions relative to the death of Rev Dr H M Tupper were passed. It was recommended that the time of suspension of the street cars be extended to ninety days, and in this connection Mr E T Gray made the announcement that negotiations for a transfer of the plant were in progress.
