RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were passed at a meeting of the faculty of Leonard Medical School held yesterday:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to call home to rest our esteemed friend and President, the late Rev H M Tupper, D D., therefore,

Resolved, That while we bow in meek submission to the will of God, we deeply deplore the great misfortune which has fallen upon this institution in particular, and upon Shaw University, of which he was the executive head.

Resolved, That in the death we have undergone a personal bereavement in the passing away of a valued friend, whose kindly and genial presence and example were an inspiration to each of us in our labors

Resolved, That the Leonard Medical School has sustained an irreparable loss, and that the vacancy thereby created in the office of its president will be difficult to fill with one combining, as did our lamented friend, the rare aggregation of qualities united in him; the executive ability; the untiring industry and zeal the keen insight into character; the firmness blended with gentleness; the quick perception and promptness to act in difficult situations; the comprehensive grasp of the multitudinous details of a great and responsible position; the self-poised character; the genius for interesting influential men and women in the work he loved and devoted his life to—and for holding that interest and making it permanent; the firm reliance upon Providence in every work he undertook; the unfaltering trust in God throughout a long and trying illness; and the calm, unflinching way in which he faced the inevitable end for days and days after he knew that it was near at hand.

Resolved, That to his family we tender our heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolence in this hour of their great affliction, and commend them to the care of "Him who doeth all things well." Yet, while doing so, we desire to call to their minds, for their comfort, the reflection that he has borne his burden bravely, and has only laid it down after the accomplishment of the great work he mapped out more than a quarter of a century ago; that he has seen the full fruition of the hope he had before in that work, that he has lived down the prejudice which environed him in its exception; that he has commanded the respect and good will of the community in which he lived and labored. We recall the basis and superstructure of the institutions he has developed here; the goodness of God, in granting him length of days to see the fulfillment of the dream to which he consecrated the best years of his manhood; and, finally, the patient and heroic fortitude which marked his last, long illness, and the glorious and triumphant manfulness of his entrance into everlasting life and rest.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the faculty of the Leonard Medical School, and that a copy of the same be sent to the faculty; to the general secretary of the Baptist Home Mission Society, in New York, and to each of the daily city papers, to the Biblical Recorder and the Gazette, with the request for their publication.

TONGUE TWISTERS.

Six thick thistle sticks. High roller low roller, rower. A growing gleam glowing green. Flesh of freshly fried flying fish. The sea ceaseth and it suffeth us. A box of mixed biscuit, a mixed biscuit box.

The black breeze blighted the bright bloom blossoms.

Strict strong Stephen Stringer snared slickly six sickly silky snakes.

Swanswam over the sea; swim swan, swim; swan swam back again well swum swan.

It is a shame, Sam. 'Tis all a sham, Sam, and a shame it is to sham so, Sam.

Susan shines shoes and socks; socks and shoes shine Susan. She ceaseth shining shoes and socks, for shoes and socks shock Susan.

Robert Rowley rolled a round roll round; a round roll Robert Rowley rolled round; where rolled the round roll Robert Rowley rolled round.

Hobbs meets Snobs and Nobs; Hobbs bobs to Snobs and Nobs; Hobbs' nobbs with Snobs and Nobs Nobs' fob. "That is," says Nobs, "the worse for Hobbs' jobs," and Snobs sobs.

ONE OF THE WORST TO DATE.

According to Judge Tuley, of Chicago who has granted Mrs E L F Quackenboss a divorce, no woman ever suffered the cruelty she suffered from her husband. The husband, William, was in good circumstances. He became angered at all his wife's relatives and friends, barred them out and sent all the wedding presents back. He made his wife take fifteen miles a day for her health, take care of two horses and do the housework.

If she did not meet him at the door every night and say: "William, I am glad you came home, let me kiss you," he locked her in a room and fed her on bread and water. He kept her locked up eleven days at one time and eight at another for this.

He stuffed clothes in the baby's mouth every time it cried, and when Mrs. Quackenboss wept and sobbed he counted the sobs, and made her stay in bed a day for every sob. One time she was a prisoner in bed for ten days on account of sobs.

THE LANGUAGE OF THE UMBRELLA.

An umbrella carried over a woman the man getting nothing but the drippings, of the rain, indicates courtship.

When the order of the things is reversed, and the man has the umbrella and the woman the drippings, it indicates that they are married.

To trail your umbrella along the ground, means that the man behind you is thirsting for blood.

To carry it at right angles under his arm signifies that an eye may be lost by the unfortunate person who may be behind you.

To press an umbrella on your friend, saying, "Oh—do take it; I had much rather you would than not," signifies lying.

To give a friend half of your umbrella, signifies that you will get wet.

To place a cotton umbrella alongside of a silk one, signifies "Exchange is no robbery."

To lend an umbrella, indicates you are a fool.

To return an umbrella means—well, never mind what it means, nobody ever does it.

It May do as Much for You.

Mr Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill, writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c for large bottles, at John V. MacEae's drugstore.

MEDICAL STUDENTS IN LINE.

Fifteen hundred medical and dental students had a parade in Philadelphia on Friday night, with music, banners and fireworks. One of the transparencies of the dental students read: "Lose in war, first in peace, first in the mouths of our countrymen." Another abstracted from Shakespeare, was this: I love a maid the better, whilst I have a tooth in my head." The medical bore one reading: "Sight is a faculty; seeing an art."

HOW IS THIS?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar, the regular subscription price; and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months; one each week.

Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel, by mail, post paid, every week for forty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publishers can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors in the coming series are, Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hav, Florence Marryat, Anthony Trollope, A Conan Doyle, Miss Braddon, Captain Marryat, Miss Thackeray and Jules Verne. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity, send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine, one year. Your first copy of the magazine, and your first number of the fifty-two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail. Remit by P O Order, registered letter or express. Address
