CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Richard the 3d at Metropolitan Hall tonight

Dr G A Foote, of Warrenton, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

The bad weather has operated considerably against cotton picking.

The beautiful play of "Niobe" at Metropolitan hall next Monday night. It is amusing and grand beyond conception.

Read what the Atlanta Constitution has to say about "The Burglar," which will be presented at the Academy of Music tonight.

There will be a regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of St Andrew at 8 o'clock tonight in the chapel of Christ church. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

O M Busbee,
Director.

The Swindell store has received a nice coat of red paint and otherwise decked out for the fall and winter trade. Swindell is always up to the times in improvements and has an eye to the public. He is surely one of our most pushing citizens.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales lodge tonight at 7 1/2 o'clock, sharp. Work in the degrees and other important business to be transacted. Members of the lodge requested to attend. Members of the degree staff and organist will not fail to be on hand.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs J T Morris & Co., who have at all times a fine selection of furniture which they are offering to the public at the fairest rates. Read the advertisement and give them a call. There is no better place in the furniture line in the city.

The new hotel, it is now understood, will be open for the regular reception of guests soon after the first of December. Mr Daniel, of Rome Ga, is to take charge, and he is a most competent gentleman. Mr Page proposes to give a dinner to the force of workmen on Thanksgiving Day.

Last evening the train from the north was a little behind. As soon as it arrived the boys and women made a rush for the bucket, but the policeman in charge rushed to the scene thinking there was an unusual occurrence. A prominent druggist rushed to the scene calling for his goods, but the delay was of short duration. It shows what alerity there is for Dugh's oysters which were soon on time.

The phenomenal success of fantastic comedy, "Niobe" last season, its invariable favorable reception by press and public wherever an whenever presented has been generally accepted as a hopeful indication that the taste of the play loving public has finally been surfeited with the coarser diet of knock about farce comedy and craves something more substantial and wholesome. To take the place of trashy specialties, strung together without plan or purpose, and miscalled plays, there could hardly have been served a daintier dramatic dish than the admirable comedy by the Paultons, as staged by the master hand of Charles Abbott and interpreted by the superb company of his selection. Many of the once most successful farce comedies of the coarser order have been withdrawn this season, while "Niobe" still lives, and not in an inanimate stone but in the living and lively appreciation of a discriminating public. This latest of laugh provoking conceits which has enjoyed something of a triumphal march since our on the road in August will reach us on Monday November 20 and can be seen at Metropolitan hall.

Found, on Wednesday night, a watch and chain. Can be had by describing property and paying for advertisement at T W Blake's jeweller and watchmaker, 117 Fayetteville street.

"The Burglar."

If you want to see a real live burglar captured by a seven year old girl, go to the Academy of Music tonight. Little Lottie Briscoe does not only win the lead of the burglar but when you hear her ring she will have stolen yours

A Beauty.

We called at the well known undertaking establishment of Mr Jno W Brown this morning and were shown one of the handsomest and most beautiful caskets ever brought to this state. On account of its similarity to the one in which ex-President Davis was interred, it is called the "Jeff Davis casket." It is made of solid oak neatly polished and resembles in finish a piano. It is metal lined with silver handles and elegant silk linings. It was made by the National Casket Company of Baltimore, and reflects the greatest credit upon their skill and workmanship.

Death of John C. Palmer, Esq.

This most highly esteemed and venerable citizen died at 12 o'clock last night at Mrs M J Brown's, No 304 North Person street.

The funeral will take place from Edenton street Methodist church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The remains will be carried to the church this afternoon.

The following is a sketch of his life:

Mr Palmer was born April 9th, 1826, in Orange county, N C. His father was James M Palmer, son of Martin Palmer, near Hawfields. He came to Raleigh when about 18 years old and was converted in his 18th year in old Edenton street church while Rev Thos J Lemay was leading in prayer. He served five years under Mr John Y Savag and became a jewelry merchant. He lived three years in Oxford, N C, after his marriage to Mary Hampton, of Salisbury, N C, in 1897, and he moved to Salisbury in 1890 where he lived ten years. He was active in organizing a Methodist church in Salisbury and for its success he was a faithful, liberal worker.

In the year 1840 he removed to Raleigh to live, work and die the Lord's. "I serve Christ," and His cause expresses the truth of his life as an industrious, faithful, business man, so as to do good to all he could, and in every way he could for the glory of God. Since giving up his business in 1899 the loving hand of God, by the whole church, especially the constant care and kindness of Mrs M T T Biddle, Mrs L B Evans and Mrs M J Brown, held him firmly until he fell asleep in Jesus so quietly and sweetly. We feel sure from his living and dying testimony, that God has given him an abundant entrance into the everlasting life where all is peace and safe. Let us who live yet so short time be faithful to a saving trust in Christ that we, too, at our death may receive a crown of life eternal to the glory of God. Truly can it be said that a good man has gone hence.
