VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1893.

NO. 23

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Beautiful fall weather. See notice of sale of land by L P Sorrell, mortgagee.

Theatrical giving turkeys are being rapidly gobbled up.

See notices of sale of land of B F Montague, mortgagee.

See notice of sale of land by A M Head Jones, commission.

Attention is directed to the mortgage sale of land by S G Ryan, Trustee.

The cotton seed is sold up about 400 bales. There is no more to be had in the market.

Mr Harry McAdams, a Raleigh boy, but for many years a traveling salesman for a large Baltimore firm is in the city.

The bond of Collector Emmons has been made up and filed. He will take charge of his office on his return from Washington City.

Judge Walker has proceeded from Washington City, the names of all before him are as follows: to Z. He hopes to be able to get more.

Col S McDowell is present to the Antiquarian Society, the flag of the old North Carolina State Infantry with which he was engaged at Gettysburg.

We cordially invite the attention of the public to the advertisement of Mr L R Wyatt, No 216, Fayetteville Street. This gentleman is offering to the public the best species of cow and horse food ever seen in this city, as can be tested by thousands who have tried it.

By an oversight we failed to note the marriage of Mr W P Whitaker, of the News Observer-Chronicle, to Miss Mary, daughter of Mr O J Carroll of this city, which took place at the bride's residence Wednesday afternoon, Rev Dr J L Carroll, uncle of the bride, officiating.

Tomorrow evening a meeting of the United Order of the King's Daughters will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building at 11 p. m. A report of the progress of work and plans for the winter will be presented. After the business is over, the President of the Order will give a talk on the new year to be observed at the home of the President Mrs McVea 123 N. Salisbury Street. Every member of the order in the city is cordially invited to be present.

In equipping Nicola for a fourth season Messrs Abbott & T. have the marriage have again had a very part of their delicate wash and bright colors in a variety of a specialty selection, and the same attention to the more delicate wash attracted such attention that several have been given and those who saw Charles Abbott as a director could expect nothing less of any production which he is associated. None will appear at Macdonald's ball on Monday next.

Erasmus's Almanac for 1894 is as before bright and beautiful. Dr Eranson always makes his own calculations and guarantees them to be correct to the nearest whole minute. On the title page is the State coat of arms, and state seal. Dr Eranson takes great care to have all the court's, county officers, state officers, &c, full and accurate. The Almanac is very valuable and a great blessing to all families and business men. It is a very valuable hand book of information about the state, emphatically "NO OTHER LIKE IT."

The Monument.

Although the ladies are meeting with much success in their efforts to raise sufficient funds to enter into a contract for the erection of the Confederate monument, there is still much to be done. We are pleased to note that the proposition of the Visitor to name Christmas day on which to solicit contributions is proving acceptable to our people and we sincerely hope the Governor may adopt it.

Funeral Services.

The funeral services over the remains of our late lamented and venerable citizen John O Palmer Esq, took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Edenton Street M E church and were mainly conducted by the pastor. They were of the most solemn and touching character. There was a large crowd of friends and citizens generally in attendance.

The Burglar.

This popular drama was rendered most admirably last night at the Academy of Music to delighted audience. Each and every part was well played, but little Lottie Briscoe captured all by her dramatic powers. Her songs were beautiful. In the presentation of this play Manager Jarman showed much tact in catering to the public.

Testimonial.

The Shaw University Alumni through their officers make an appeal to the public for aid in erecting a monument on the site of the late Rev Dr M. Those desiring to contribute to the cause are requested to do so by Mr John T Pullen, of the Raleigh Savings Bank or Dr N F Roberts, Shaw University.
