RALEIGH, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1893.

NO. 25

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The game of foot-ball is getting to be lively in this State.

Don't fail to pay your city taxes. The city is needing money.

Let us have the "Black Crook." What says Manager Heartt?

The politicians are still anxiously waiting for something to turn up.

The weather folks weather slipped up in their prognostications today.

Niobe is getting to be as natural as old "Rip Van Winkle" in North Carolina.

Miss Rosa Burwell has returned home from a visit to friends to Greensboro.

The business of the Western Union office is steadily on the increase, as is also the telegraph business generally.

The farmers in this vicinity are taking more than usual interest in the planting of trees. This is as it should be.

The cotton receipts today were not as large as usual, but there was a steady demand which indicated a stiffer demand.

We hear that the outlook for raising the necessary funds for a monument to the late Rev Dr H M Tupper is promising.

The clerk of the Superior Court is preparing for the coming term of the Superior Court. The docket, however, is not as large as expected.

The latest news from our friend "Buck" Jones in North Carolina is that he is getting on most admirably in his position. This will be good news to his many friends in this vicinity.

Don't forget to send in your advertisements for Christmas. We will make special rates with you, that will prove mutually beneficial. You cannot get along without letting the public know what you have to sell.

In an interview with the writer last Saturday afternoon Col J S Carr expressed himself as earnest in the determination to have one of the best fairs next year ever held in North Carolina. He will keep his word. Mark the prediction.

We invite attention of the public to the advertisement of Messrs Thomas & Maxwell in this issue. These gentlemen offer a most select attraction in the shape of beautiful rockers at $3.75, the finest in the city. As so the finest line of goods in this vicinity. There is no place in Raleigh where the stranger and visitor can be offered better opportunities. Call and see them. Their place of business is at the southern side of Market Square.

We direct the attention of our friends and the public generally to the establishment of Mr Chas Bretsch on the east side of Fayetteville street first square south of the capitol. Mr Bretsch has one of the finest assortments of everything pertaining to the confectionery and baking line to be found in this city. Special attention is called to his line of cakes and crackers which are unsurpassed. In fact no place in the State can afford better facilities in this line. Call and see him.

The Rosenthal Clothing Company are now in the midst of the most enterprising and pushing business in their history. Their trade last Saturday was simply immense and the indomitable "Dave" was fully up to his capacity in the trading line. The fact of the business is that this celebrated establishment is fast gaining a reputation in our city and State as the emporium of fashion and fair dealing. Strangers and citizens can find no better place to suit themselves at such prices as the stringency of the times will admit. Call at the headquarters, opposite the post office on Fayetteville street.

A Handsome Sketch.

Capt J S Harris, of Mooresville, has gotten out a very handsome pamphlet sketch and record of company "B" Seventh North Carolina Regiment. It will prove highly interesting.

Rev Dr Deems.

The critical illness of this distinguished gentleman gives but little assurance to his friends of his ultimate recovery. His death will be as much lamented as perhaps any man in our state. His world-wide reputation is well known to the people of North Carolina.

Niobe.

Those who saw "Niobe" last season in New York and expect to see it again on Monday November 20 at Metropolitan hall, and who can be satisfied with a single draught from such a rippling fountain of pure merit, will be pleased to learn that Niobe is under the same management as the piece has had for the past three seasons. The company is by far the best that has ever been seen in Niobe, which consists of such well known artists as Miss Marguerite Fealy, Miss Lillian Dix, Miss Daisy Mayer, Miss Julia Ring, Miss Caralie Clifton, Mr James R Smith, Mr Red dick Anderson, Mr Benjamin Howard and Mr Robert Irving; which provides a perfect cast of artists and gives Niobe a production which the piece deserves.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Generally fair, stationary temperature; followed by slight rise in temperature.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

On Tuesday: Fair, warmer; rain probably on Wednesday.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m., today:

Maximum temperature, 65; minimum temperature, 33; rainfall, T.

The following is the synopsis of the weather for today:

High pressure, with clear cold weather, prevails over the middle and south Atlantic States.

The pressure is low on the north Atlantic coast, and in the northwest, over Dakotas.

There is also a slight depression in the Gulf region which is causing light rains.

Moderately cold weather prevails everywhere.

There are many things in this world that will bear comparison, but it is incomprehensible how "Sam" and "Dave" Berwanger can present such a stock of suits and overcoats to the public as they are now offering. It is surprising but nevertheless a fact that no house in this city or in North Carolina that can surpass it. The trade is finding it out as is evidenced by the great rush. Call now and make your purchases. The sooner the better. Read the advertisement.

It is the request of Collector White that tax collectors send in stamps between now and the 30th inst at noon, as after that time he will not issue any more on account of having to schedule the stamps to turn over to his successor.

The mayors court today was barren of the usual Monday morning's notice. A few cases of drunk and down constituted the usual offences.

It is in contemplation for the A & M College boys to play a game of football with the Oak Ridge club, at Greensboro, on Thanksgiving Day.

Now is the time for our Governor to issue his proclamation to set apart a day for contributions to the monument. The sooner the better.

There is the deepest regret expressed here at the condition of Rev Dr Deems who is announced as being in a dying condition.

"Niobe" at Metropolitan hall tonight.
