RALEIGH, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1893.

NO. 28

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The road engine is now in operation. Rather a lull in the amusement line.

Mrs J E Renn, of Durham, is in the city.

An old fashioned London fog this morning.

We are promised fair, cold weather for the next few days.

The market is well stocked with turkeys and other fowls today.

Col J W Hicks, of Raleigh, is on a tour of inspection for the penitentiary.

The exhibits from this state at the world's fair received 124 medals and awards.

Evangelist Fife is confined to his home in Charlotte with nervous prostration.

Collector Simmons is in the city and will take charge of his office on Saturday next.

It is now understood that the ice plant which was burned some time since, is to be rebuilt.

Several business changes will probably take place at the commencement of the new year.

The meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad is in session at Wilmington.

Let there be a combined meeting of the chamber of commerce and board of aldermen next Friday night.

The Knights of Pythias, of Fayetteville, will occupy their new building next month. It cost about $12,000.

State Treasurer Tate has been in Wilmington this week on business connected with the New Hanover bank.

The North Carolina and Virginia conference of the Christian church is in session at Jonesboro. Rev J L Foster, of Raleigh, is secretary.

Sixty six convicts have been sent from the penitentiary to the Roanoke farms in the last ten days. The health of the prisoners continues good.

The commissioner of agriculture, President Holladay, and Prof Massey will conduct farmer's institutes at Whitesville, Columbus county, the latter part of this week.

There will be a meeting of the Thompson organ pipe guild at the residence of Mr R H Battle, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present.

At the next meeting of the board of aldermen we may expect some stirring times on the sidewalk question. The why and wherefore of the extension of Morgan street will also be discussed.

On and after next Saturday, the 25th inst, the traffic department of the Seaboard Air Line will be removed to the company's general office building in Portsmouth Va. Mr O V Smith is the general manager.

We are glad to learn that the matter of the establishment of the Baptist female college in this city will be made a special subject at the coming convention in Elizabeth City. This is good news, and we hope that a favorable conclusion may be arrived at.

Mrs Jefferson Davis has presented James H Jones, colored, of this city, now in Washington City, a handsome cane in commemoration of his services to her late husband. The cane has the following inscription: "To James H Jones, ingrateful memory from Mrs Jefferson Davis."

A gentleman of this city well versed as an epicure called today on our Southern Delmonico and declared that he had tried oysters from other places in the city but none equal to Dugh's. "Now," said he, "I know where to find the select article," and he gave his order accordingly. See?

I. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales Lodge, No 61, I O O F, will hold its regular meeting tonight at 7 1/2 o'clock. Work in the degrees. Members of the lodge will not fail to attend. A cordial invitation to all Odd Fellows.

A O U W.

A meeting of members of Murphy Lodge, No 3, A O U W., is called for tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock, at Jolly's store. A full attendance is desired, as important business will come up for consideration. F M Lampkin, Master Workman.

Memorial Services.

Last Tuesday the University of North Carolina held memorial services in honor of the late Dr. Charles F. Deems who was formerly professor of rhetoric in the institution. A fine oration was delivered by Hon. K. P. Battle, professor of history. It will be remembered that some years ago Dr Deems established a fund of $15,000 to be lent to poor students. More than three hundred young men have taken advantage of it.

Opening.

Mr A F Page, the proprietor of the new hotel has kindly placed the establishment at the disposal of the Rescue Circle of the King's Daughters for one evening next week. The exact time has not been fixed but in all probability Wednesday night will be selected. The house will be brilliantly illuminated and an interesting and instructive programme arranged. It is expected that there will be a large attendance of ladies and gentlemen.

Married.

At 8:30 o'clock yesterday, at the residence of the bride's mother, 818 South West street, Mr Wm C Olive and Miss Lovie F Kuester were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev A M Simms, of the Baptist Tabernacle. There was a considerable crowd of friends present and the gifts were beautiful and numerous.

After the ceremony the happy couple left for Apex, the home of the groom's mother, where they will spend a few days. The contracting parties have our best wishes for their future welfare.

Old bonds to the amount of $91,700 have recently been burned at the state treasury. New consols had been issued for them.
