VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1893.

NO. 29

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

NO's are now quoted at 118 and the 4's at 95.

Phalanx lodge, No 34, K of P., will hold a meeting tonight.

The cold weather is a regular boom for the oyster trade.

Mr Peter Arrington, of Warrenton, is here.

The festive rabbit has dropped to ten cents.

Pork is now selling freely, by the hog round, for six cents.

Now is the season when the chicken roost is to be well guarded.

Editor Hackney, of Durham, is in the city.

Mr O E Parish of Hillsboro, is at the Yarboro.

Mr W O Troy, of Fayetteville, is in the city.

Mr W W Kitchen, of Roxboro, is at the Yarboro.

Miss Mattie Fuller, of this city, will spend the winter in Durham.

The merchants are already beginning to fix up their show windows for Christmas.

They are having a busy time at the internal revenue office preparing to turn over.

First real cold snap of the season, and from now out, we may look for some real winter weather.

The poultry market today was almost a glut. Prices however, continue well up.

The Christmas trade is brightening up considerably and the fancy stores are crowded with customers.

The cotton receipts today were quite large, but prices show no signs of an advance.

See advertisement of a liver colored puppy lost, for which a reward is offered.

The street hands are putting in some good work on West Hargett street.

The number of students at the A & M college has now reached about 175.

The county officers are looking after their bonds which are to be renewed on the first Monday in next month.

Mrs Jno Gray Bynum, of Morganton, is in the city, visiting the family of Col Kenan on North Wilmington street.

Mr Adolph A Goldsmid, who represents the "Fortunes of War" is in the city making arrangements for the play in Metropolitan hall the 29th inst.

Mr Peter M Wilson has secured a good appointment at Washington City, under Secretary Cox, of the senate, and will remove his family to that place.

The last of the State crop reports for 1893 has been issued. They have been more accurate this year than ever before.

Patriotic—historical—sensational—humorous—emotional. These will be the leading traits in the latest success, "The Fortunes of War," at Metropolitan hall next Wednesday night.

The railway commission has placed the Wilmington & Weldon railway and its branches upon the same footing as the other roads of the State in the matter of freight rates.

A million tax tags for fertilizer sacks are now ready for issue by the Department of Agriculture. They are for the fiscal year commencing December 1st.

Eddie, the little son of Mr O C Williams, died yesterday afternoon at 2:40. There was no funeral on account of the sickness of another child. The burial took place at 2:30 this afternoon. This family has been sorely stricken of late, and have the sympathies of the entire community.

Lots of office seekers in the city.

"Fortunes of War" at Metropolitan hall next Wednesday night.

The beautiful snow fell last night but soon disappeared.

Federal court commences next Monday. Judge Goff will preside with Judge Seymour.

It takes 1,900 yards of carpeting to cover the floor of the new Trinity church at Durham.

Manager Brown, of the Yarboro house, who has been quite sick, is out again.

Five convicts, one of whom was a woman were brought from Fayetteville recently and placed in the penitentiary.

Mr Jno O Scarborough, the state superintendent of public instruction will soon make a tour in the western counties.

A dispatch from Washington City says that $35,000 has been raised to start an administration daily paper in North Carolina, and that Kope Elias is one of the main stockholders.

Applicants for office under the new Collector of Internal Revenue are here by the hundred. They represent all portions of the State. Down about the Yarboro, it looks like we had a political convention on hand.

Arrived.

The exhibits of North Carolina to the world's fair have arrived, and will at once be placed in the state museum where ample room has been provided for them. This will add immensely to the interest of the museum.

Cantata.

The Sunday school of the First Baptist church are preparing for a brilliant cantata to be given in Metropolitan hall on Friday night, December 23d. It will consist of charming music and fine scenic effects, and altogether will be a grand entertainment. There will be loads of toys for the little ones.

By your oyster, soda and cream crackers from Bretsch. He has the very best in the city, and no doubt in the State. nov24 2t

Say, stranger, where are you going to such haste? Why, my dear fellow, I have just sold my cotton and am making fast headway to the grand fashionable emporium of Messrs Thomas & Maxwell. Much of our chamber and parlor furniture is getting old fashioned and worn out, and the old woman told me not to come home without replenishing it. I must hurry up.

What is the matter? Do the people know that they can buy from J T Morris & Co. genuine oak chamber sets, large landscape glass with extra size, has been marked for $14.75.
