VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1893.

NO. 30

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Fine weather for pork killing.

Mr O N Snow, of Baltimore, is here.

Mr I D Smith continues very sick.

The woods are full of patriots, anxious to serve Uncle Sam.

The general health of the city is reported good.

The merchants appear to be drawing a good trade today.

The city tax collector is anxiously waiting for you.

Mrs C A Brown, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Splendid meat market today.

Maj J A Hoskins, of Guilford, is in the city.

Ex Judge Womack, of Pittsboro, is at the Yarboro.

Hon A H Williams, of Oxford, is in the city.

Mr R R King, of Greensboro, is at the Yarboro.

The Yarboro House is crowded with guests.

Mr J Webb, Jr, of Hillsboro, is in the city.

Mr and Mrs J J Mackay, of Durham, are visiting friends in this city.

Bear in mind the entertainment at the new hotel next Wednesday night. It will be a grand affair.

The receipts of cotton today run up considerably. No material change in prices.

The proposition to hold a State Exposition in this city in 1895 is meeting with encouragement.

The thermometer went down to 20 last night. Pretty good winter weather.

Thanksgiving turkeys have but a few more days to gobble, before they will be gobbled up.

The march of the tramps southward continues to increase as the cold season approaches.

Rev Dr Atkins will fill the pulpit at Central M E church tomorrow at 11 o'clock and at 7:15 p. m.

North Carolina bonds still continue to hold up, notwithstanding the hard times. No better investment.

The great musician Edward Remenyi, will be in Raleigh January 8d next. It will be a great musical event.

The state museum is now one of the most interesting places in the city. No stranger should fail to visit it.

We had the pleasure yesterday afternoon of seeing in the city, State Senator E F MacRae, of Robeson county.

There will be song service tomorrow at the Christian church from 9 o'clock till 8:30. All cordially invited to attend. Bring your "Triumphant Songs" and Gospel Hymns.

Huntmen are eagerly looking forward to Thanksgiving Day. The slaughter will be immense judging from preparations.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr Fred A Watson's art store. Read it and watch out for some splendid announcements.

Mrs Ceburn L Harris has returned to the city from an extended visit to her daughter Mrs T F Lee, in New York. She will leave in a few days for Rutherfordton, her future home.

At the capitol the reporter found today a complete lethargy of news. All the department officials were apparently content in the discharge of mere routine duty, with nothing of an extraordinary character on hand.

Now that tide of immigration seems to be setting towards our state, would it not be well for our chamber of commerce to take the matter in hand in reference to the advantages of Raleigh and vicinity. We can make as good a showing as any other portion of North Carolina.

Don't let our Charlotte people forget the Oxford Orphan Asylum. The appeal for aid is most urgent.

The first Thanksgiving day was set apart in 1789. It was in accordance with a recommendation to the President by Congress.

There were two assignments in Durham yesterday—J W Jones & Co, dry goods dealers, and A W Tilley, general merchandise.

Tucker's Xmas Goods.

If you have much or little to buy for Xmas, you wish to buy it right. What we have is right. Ours is a big store and is filled with sensible goods to suit men, women or children. Take our circular that we have just distributed over Raleigh and it tells of many things that will make acceptable gifts. If you want fancy wares, the ornamental, we have to see also. The fancy articles and much of the furniture is upon the 3d floor. W H & R S TUCKER & CO.

Beautiful wardrobe, splendid sofas, nice rockers, elegant mattresses, luxurious lounges, parlor sets, chamber sets and a thousand other things too numerous to mention. All these are to be found in profusion at the grand furniture emporium of fashion on Exchange Place, south side of Market and south side of Martin street. We mean the fine establishment of that enterprising firm Messrs Thomas & Maxwell.

Plush Boxes, Fancy Lamps.

Our display of all kinds of fancy goods for the holidays is just tremendous. A visit to our store will convince one that we are prepared for a big trade in Christmas novelties, such as plush shaving sets, ladies' plush work boxes, plush cuff, and collar boxes plush baby sets, handkerchief boxes, plush child's sets in china—plate cup and saucer in pretty designs; children's sets, china for play houses, dinner sets, tea sets. All things you expect to see and more if you visit. D T Swindell's.

China and Glassware.

Our department of china has proven to be a grand success, and a glance will suffice to convince you that this department is now perfect, possibly the grandest display you ever saw in dinner sets, tea sets, toilet sets, plates, cups, saucers, bowls, dishes, soup tureous sauce dishes, bed pans, and all other china not mentioned. D T Swindell.

The Show is the Dolls.

In one of the big show windows at Swindell's the children's hearts are made glad and the little eyes dance on beholding the grand display of dolls in Swindell's big window.

Mr O Weikel will make this announcement to his friends and the public that he is again in the land of the living with a fine line of woollens for gentlemen's wear, and any one wishing a nice suit or overcoat for the holidays would do well to see him before buying elsewhere. He will give you satisfaction and treat you right in every respect. No 124 Fayetteville street, up stairs.

A Hole in the Wall.

There is a hole in the wall of the Academy of Music and that hole has been well stocked by "Santa Claus" with games, books, dolls, wagons, velocipedes, bicycles, horses, candles, nuts, fruits and everything imaginable right from the north pole, and his deers are pawing and prancing eager to go and his servants are busy at work packing up for him to make the children's hearts glad on Christmas morn, and that place is Riggan's Toy Store at the Academy of Music where anything can be found cheap.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better, sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a saving bank deposit. Reliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75? $22 Columbia coats for $8.75? $20 Worth Jackets for $7.61?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.98? Blocker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81? Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for $0.73?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is no good.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more.

A straight trade, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
