RALEIGH, MONDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1893.

NO. 3

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Quite a storm last night.

Field day at the court house.

Christmas three weeks off today.

The days are nearing the shortest.

Collector Simmons has gone to New Bern.

The county commissioners are in session here today.

The county officers are renewing their bonds today.

The Federal court is fast nearing the end of its docket.

Send in your advertisements at once for Christmas. No time to lose.

The President's message will no doubt be read in Congress tomorrow.

Dr D E Everett has returned to the city from a pleasant visit to Wilson.

Many of the merchants' windows are being put in fine condition for Christmas.

Fay Templeton made a tremendous hit in Wilmington. She will do the same here.

The receipts of cotton today were comparatively small, and there was no change in prices.

Large shipments of cornudrum are being shipped from Chatham county. It proves to be very remunerative.

We regret to state that Mr A W Moye, the efficient clerk of the Superior Court, is confined at home with sickness.

J N Hubbard and his "grocery on wheels" is always ready to serve the public. His stock is varied and he will treat you all right.

Notwithstanding their recent defeat in Richmond, the North Carolina University boys are the recipients of the highest praise from the Virginia press.

Rev Mr Lloyd, of Norfolk, will deliver an address before the brotherhood at a meeting to be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd to-night at 8 o'clock.

There will be an important meeting of Rescue Fire Company tonight. As officers are to be elected for the ensuing year, every member is earnestly requested to be present.

Don't fall in your rounds to call at the millinery establishment of Miss Maggie Reese, 209 Fayetteville street, where one of the finest stocks of millinery in the city is to be found.

Secure seats at MacRae's drugstore for the Swedish Sextette, which appears at the Academy of Music December 9th. Reserved seats 75 cents; general admission 50 cents; gallery 25 cents.

Tomorrow night Prof A B Vincent, of Shaw university, will give an entertainment on the world's fair at 7:30 o'clock, at the colored Presbyterian church. Admission 15 and 10 cents.

The Virginia legislature is in session and the outlook is that General Fitzhugh Lee will be chosen U S senator for the long term. It is expected that Senator Hunton will be retained for the short term.

The regular mass meeting of the King's Daughters will be held tomorrow evening at 4 o'clock in the mission rooms. It is a very important meeting and every member is expected to be present. All the circles are requested to pay in their back dues on or before the meeting.

The official announcement is made by Messrs S & D Berwanger that Christmas is only three weeks away. This is an important announcement in some respects because it means that our energetic friends, 'Sam' and 'Dave' Berwanger, are prepared to furnish the public generally with the best bargains in the clothing line ever offered in Raleigh. They mean just what they say. Read what they have to say and act accordingly.

Change

On and after today the northbound passenger and express train on the Seaboard Air Line will leave Raleigh at 11:25 instead of 11:15 as heretofore. The south bound train will arrive at 3:40 p. m., and leave at 4:37 p. m. The through freight will leave Johnson street station at 7 p. m. instead of 7:15 p. m.

President's Message.

This state paper was received this morning over the wires of the Western Union telegraph company. Its reception commenced at about 1:30 o'clock and finished at about 7:30 this morning. It was admirably handled by Messrs Richardson, White and Holleman. The message contains, we learn, about 15,000 words. Of course it will not be made public until read before congress.

A Good Report.

President Crowell, of Trinity College, has submitted his annual report to the North Carolina Conference from which we take the following as a synopsis. About a year ago the institution was burdened with a debt which has been funded into 30 year, 6 per cent bonds. A balance was held in the treasury of a few thousand dollars, for this year's needs of the college. The health of the college is unusually good. The attendance is 15 per cent greater than last year. The financial embarrassments of the college have been overcome and there is more perfect harmony than ever before.

Five per cent above cost. This is extraordinary, and yet this is the small advance at which Thomas & Maxwell are offering the most select goods in the furniture line. The stock at East Martin street store is to be closed out by January 1st. The rush will no doubt be great, and if you wish to avail yourselves of the great cut in prices you should come at once. Nothing like it has ever been seen in Raleigh before, or probably never will again.

The Lyon Racket Store is headquarters for Santa Claus. He has everything. Where are you going? I'm going to the Lyon Racket store to get me one of those lovely capes. I bought my dress at 24c per yard at the Lyon Racket store. It is the best goods I ever saw for the money. Shoes, shoes at the Lyon Racket store. Dolls, dolls, toys, toys at the Lyon Racket store.

Another Consignment of those sweet and juicy Florida oranges at 20 and 25c per dozen. The finest flavored on the market. W H Rogers, South side of Market Square.

Plush Boxes, Fancy Lamps. Our display of all kinds of fancy goods for the holidays is just tremendous. A visit to our store will convince you that we are prepared for a big trade in Christmas novelties, such as plush shaving sets, ladies' plush work boxes, plush cuff, and collar boxes, plush baby sets, handkerchief boxes, plush child's sets in china—plate, cup and saucer in pretty designs; children's sets, china for play houses, dinner sets, tea sets. All things you expect to see and more if you visit. D T Swindell.

Where Did You Get It. This question has been asked many a time during the past week. Where did you get that cheap underwear, and was always answered thus: Why, Swindell's, of course. I bought an all wool undershirt there for 50c, and my advice to you and to all who wish to save a dollar is to go to Swindell's, not for underwear alone, but for dress shirts, neckwear, socks, gloves, dress goods, shoes, clothing, carpets, millinery, hats, crockery, glass ware, toys and dolls, all of which you will find as complete as money can make it, and very cheap for the cash. D T Swindell.

Fifty in All. Right now is the grand opportunity. We have fifty ladies' tight fitting jackets which are worth $4 to $6.50 each, Monday and tonight we shall sell the entire lot at $2 choice. D T Swindell's.

Fries and stews 25 cents each at A. Dughl's. Telephone 123.

Wood, Coal. All kinds hard and soft coal. Also wood, cut or long, constantly on hand at lowest prices. T. L. Eberhardt. Sep 1st.

The Perplexity of Making Suitable Gifts

The selection of suitable gifts is often a perplexity; some are content to give the merest trifle and don't care what that trifle is. Others wish to make gifts that possess beauty and will likely be of some use as well, then some give things of the most practical character. We provide for every body. If one wishes to make a present for man, woman or child, we can supply that present. Our buyer is just back from the North and selected a great many things for the holidays. We will have them on sale this week. W H & E S TUCKER & Co.

For the Holiday Trade.

A beautiful line of silk and linen handkerchiefs—initial, plain, hemstitched and embroidered in satin, satin and China. Latest oriental designs in tees, scarfs, puffs, four in hands and Windsor ties. French novelty dress patterns suitable for presents. Kid gloves and dress shoes and hosiery in packages suggested as gifts of the substantial kind. G A Sherwood & Co.

Notice.

City warrants will be paid on presentation at the Citizens' National Bank. Interest ceases from this date. Jos G Brown, City Treasurer.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now. Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY

$25 Seal Plush Capes for	$9.75?
$22 Columbia Coats for	$8.75?
$20 Worth Jackets for	$7.61?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER'S SOLD

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.99?
Blecker, Gertrude & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.87?
Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement. The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all. Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
