The Weather.

For North Carolina: Local rains or snow today and tonight; clearing Wednesday; slightly warmer.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

Clearing tonight; Wednesday fair and slightly warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a m., today:

Maximum temperature, 40; minimum temperature, 25; rainfall 0.54.

Synopsis: A storm which was not visible yesterday being a considerable distance off the South Atlantic coast has approached the Carolina coast. It is causing high winds and rain on the coast and sleet and snow in the interior of the state. The storm is apparently central off Hatteras this morning. It will probably pass northward today.

The pressure is high and the weather generally fair, except in the Atlantic coast states and in the lake region.

Important Question.

The Supreme court will now be called upon to give a direct opinion on a very important matter. The question is this: Is it unconstitutional for the counties to retain and disburse the public school fund? The board of education of Duplin county so thinks and brings suit this week against the state board, to get a declaration by the court. Duplin and many of the counties, no doubt, want the taxes all paid into the state treasury and then disbursed pro rata among the school children in the state. Some very good lawyers say that the better plan is the one the constitution provides for. No doubt there will be a pretty fight over the question.

Fay Templeton

There is no occasion in dramatic circles that can compare with the great event that takes place at Metropolitan Hall to night. The Washington Post says:

The enthusiastic greeting accorded Fay Templeton on her first entrance in "Madame Favart" at the Academy of Music last night furnished evidence of the most positive character that she had lost none of her popularity through her somewhat lengthy retirement from the stage; and the delightful, finished and artistic of her subsequent acting as Offenbach's pers-cut-ed but jolly heroine makes her return to the stage a subject of sincere congratulation of the treguers who desire art in comic opera. Her audience was a most distinguished one.

The grip is raging in a violent form in Washington City, and is unusually fatal.

Tremontious MARK DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75? $22 Columbia Coats for $8.75? $20 Worth Jackets for $7.61?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.93? Blacker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.84? Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
