VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1893.

NO. 39

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The store windows are putting on their best decorations.

The cold snap extended as far south as Florida.

Collector Simmons has gone to Washington City on business.

Rather a quiet day on the cotton exchange.

Toboggan parties will soon be the order of the day.

The legislature of Virginia will ballot for U S Senator next Tuesday.

Commissioner John Robinson has removed to his country residence about four miles from the city.

The young ladies of St Mary's have engaged fifty two seats for the Swedish Sextette next Saturday night.

Appeals from the 12th district will be called next week in the Supreme court.

The market is well supplied with almost everything but rabbits. They continue somewhat scarce.

This weather is surely rough enough to rouse up the sidewalk committees.

Many of the churches will be without their regular pastors next Sunday.

A gentlemen from the country told us today that the thaw had put up water courses considerably.

Register of Deeds Mial is a delegate to the Methodist conference at Wilmington.

Christmas is fast approaching. People are on the lookout for bargains. Better advertise through the VISITOR at once.

The purchasing of the C F and Yadkin Valley Railroad, by an English syndicate, means a wide extension of that valuable property.

Mr Geo W Watts, of Durham, gave a most delightful entertainment at his home in that town last Tuesday night.

The history of the United States, by E A Johnston, colored, of this city, has been adopted by the State Board of Education as the text book for the colored schools of the State.

The formal opening of our new hotel will be an important event in the history of our city. It is a monument to the energy and public spirit of Mr Page, an a credit to Raleigh.

"The Little Tyeoon Opera Company" which is booked for the Academy of Music next Tuesday night is composed of forty voices. They carry their own orchestra. The prices of admission will be $1.75c and 50c.

Regular meeting of Raleigh Commandery No 4 K T., will be held tonight at 8 o'clock. Annual election of officers. All Knights urged to be present. Visiting fraters invited.

The regular monthly meetings of the state board of education, the council of state the board of public buildings and the state library board will be held on the second Tuesday in each month instead of the first.

The universal favorite, "The Little Tyeoon Opera." will be presented at the Academy of Music next Tuesday night by the Little Tyeoon Opera Company with their own orchestra. The company is composed of forty people, and the leading parts are sung by talented artists. This company begins a three night's engagement at the Academy of Music, Richmond, tonight. Insane Asylum

The new annex to the asylum now nearly complete is intended for female patients and will be a valuable addition to the institution. The building in an architectural point of view is a complete success reflecting much credit upon those having it in charge.

Baptist Almanac.

We are in receipt of the North Carolina Baptist Almanac for the year 1894. Besides calculations it contains much useful statistical and other information.

Died.

About 10 o'clock last Tuesday morning at the McAdoe House in Greensboro, Mr E W Tate, aged about 80. Mr Tate was a most estimable young man, and very popular with all who knew him. He was a victim of consumption.

The Station House.

Would it not be well to resurrect the subject of a new station house. Certainly the matter has been discussed wide enough to establish the fact that it is a necessity that the city cannot do much longer without. Why postpone it? It must come. The sooner the better, and why not now.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Light showers today or tonight on the coast; fair Friday, warmer Friday afternoon.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

Warmer with showers this afternoon and Friday a m. warmer Saturday.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?
THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.
Tremont Gous MARK DOWN on Certain Lines.
Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.
Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Reliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?
DID YOU EVER BUY
$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9 78c
$22 Columbia Coats for $8 75c
$20 Worth Jackets for $7.61c

We answer, nobody does this.
WHO EVE & SOLO
Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.95?
Blocker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?
Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.
The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more.
A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.
Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
