The next term of Wake Superior court will commence Monday, January 8th. Judge Hoke will preside.

Mr L T Brown, the proprietor of the Yarbboro House, is out again after a protracted spell of sickness.

A ladies' small cape has been found which the owner can get by calling at this office.

Mrs Bertha Deal, of Roanoke, Va., is in the city visiting her parents Mr and Mrs Frank Pierce.

There is a wide diversity of opinion in the papers of the president's message.

Evangelist Gales has closed his meetings at Salisbury on account of the death of his sister, Mrs Ward.

There are now 68 county convicts. All but eleven are at work on the roads.

Send in your advertisements, Christmas will soon be here. No time to lose.

It is now rumored that the Norfolk and Western railroad is trying to get possession of the O F & Y V road.

About 17,000 bales of cotton have been received in Raleigh since September 1st. This is about 1,000 in excess of last year.

Secretary Atkinson, of the Y M C A, has decided to resign to take a position of like character at another point.

See in this issue notice of sale of the Raleigh Land and Improvement Company of some valuable lots in Idlewild on January 9th 1894.

Miss Love Crawford has returned to the city from Goldsboro. She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs F B Edmunson.

L R Hayes, who committed a murder in South Carolina, has been apprehended and placed in jail here. A requisition has been issued for him by the Governor of South Carolina.

Mr A Dughi has received a big order to furnish delicacies for a grand reception at Troy, Montgomery county on the 18th. They know him far and wide.

We have it from reliable authority that an extensive bakery and cracker factory is soon to be started in this city. Several thousand dollars have already been pledged for the business.

As the festive season approaches, remember the poor. This weather is peculiarly hard on them. The women's mission are ready to make prompt distribution of cash, clothing &c. Remember them.

Our Advertisers.

Toys are the great consideration for Christmas. Without them the holidays would be dull indeed. Now there is no place where they can be obtained in greater variety or at more satisfactory prices than at Riggan's establishment in the Academy of Music building. Call at once and avoid the rush.

Don't forget in your rounds the Raleigh Stationery Company's store where one of the finest selections of goods in that line are to be seen. Beautiful Christmas gifts. Call and see for yourself.

Snelling & Hicks, at the corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets have, in addition to their regular line of drug goods, a variety of beautiful articles suitable for Christmas presents. Give them a call.

Christmas would be dull indeed without a good supply of bread, cakes, &c. These can be supplied in the greatest variety and on the best terms by Mr Chas Bretsch at his fine bakery in the city.

A Handsome Donation.

St John's Guild, of this city, has decided to give the Thompson Episcopal Orphanage at Charlotte $2,500 raised for the "Bishop Atkinson Memorial Cot" in St John's Hospital, as that institution no longer exists.

Decided.

The jury in the case of the Mt Holly Mining and Manufacturing Company vs the Caraleigh Phosphate and Fertilizer Works found a verdict in favor of the plaintiff fixing damages at about $5,900, but the judge deeming it inconsistent with other findings, set the verdict aside.

A large bunch of keys with chain attached has been lost for which a suitable reward will be paid if left at this office.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now. Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. "Unreliable" goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY

$25 Seal Plush Caps for $9.75
$22 Columbia Coats for $8.75
$20 Worth Jackets for $7.61

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.93?
Blacker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?
Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 75c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more.

A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses a figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.

SIGNS OF XMAS.

Our buyer is just back from the northern markets and all over our house may be noticed "Signs of Xmas."

The many holiday attractions secured by him will be ready during the week.

We will show some trifles, but the greater portion of our vast stock will be those goods which possess beauty and are for practical use besides.
