

The Daily Evening

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1893.

The menu for the reception at Mr and Mrs Lyman's last night was furnished by our prince of caterers, A Dughl, and has been the talk of many who were so fortunate as to be present. It was one of the most fastidious "get ups" for such an occasion ever seen in this city. Dughl, knows just how to fix them

An especially interesting feature of the tour of "The Little Tycoon" comic opera company this season is that part of the organization is a symphony quintette orchestra which travels with the company. In that way the effectiveness of the general performance is considerably enhanced, and the embarrassing interruptions which are bound to occur when an insufficiently rehearsed local orchestra is employed in a comic opera performance, are obviated. The leader of the orchestra is Fritz Gagel, who was the leader of the orchestra at the Temple Theatre in Philadelphia for two seasons, and whose familiarity with the music of "The Little Tycoon" is equalled only by that of the composer. "The Little Tycoon" will be sung at the Academy of Music on the night of the 13th inst.

It will be noticed by those who attend the performance of the generally well liked comic opera "The Little Tycoon" at the new Academy of Music tonight that the young lady members of the chorus are in a very different class from those usually found in the choruses of comic opera companies. The majority of them were secured in various musical conservatories in New York and Philadelphia, and in "The Little Tycoon" they make their first appearance on the professional stage. They are youthful, good looking, fresh voiced and above all else, are enthusiastic in carrying out that part of the entertainment which is assigned to their care. Indeed, the performance affords them almost as much delight as it does the audience, for they have not as yet become blasé.

Died.

At the residence of her mother, 565 North Person street at 8:45 this morning, Miss Lonnie Polk, youngest daughter of the late Col L L Polk, in the 20th year of her age. Funerals from the residence tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, slightly warmer Wednesday a m; cooler Thursday morning. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Fair, followed by increasing cloudiness and light rain by Wednesday evening, colder Wednesday night, and decidedly colder by Thursday night.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m., today: Maximum temperature, 60; minimum temperature, 40; rainfall 0.0.

Synopsis: The storm yesterday central over Kansas moved with great rapidity northeast to the New England States. It produced very little rain.

An extensive high area and cold wave has appeared in the northwest. In the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys the temperature has fallen over 20° during the past 24 hours. It is 25° below zero at Bismarck North Dakota.

A new storm is apparently forming over Texas which will prevent the immediate approach of the cold wave to the Atlantic States.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladden the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

DID YOU EVER BUY $25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75? $20 Worth Jackets for $9.75?

WHO EVER SOLD Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.95? Blocker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81? Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 75c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.
