

The Daily Evening Vis

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1893.

For other locals see second page.

Mrs C F Beers of Durham, is visiting friends in this city.

Business distressingly dull in the Mayor's court these days.

Mr J M W Hicks, of New York, is in the city for a few days.

Bear in mind the Remenyi concert January 3d.

No bonds have lately been received at the Treasury Department for funding purposes.

The former office of the Progressive Farmer on West Hargett street is being thoroughly overhauled.

The penitentiary of Virginia will pay a net revenue of $50,000 to the State.

The cotton receipts today were comparatively light. No change in prices.

A very pleasant entertainment was given by the children of the Misses McVea school last night.

The sheriff of Richmond county brought eight prisoners to the penitentiary yesterday afternoon.

Mr J H Harrell, residing near Wilmington shot himself last Monday. Business depression the cause.

Prof Winston, President of the State University, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

The lectures at Trinity College are proving a great success and are well attended.

Up to our latest accounts no steps had been arranged for the funeral of Bishop Lyman.

About all the pension warrants are now in the hands of the Register of Deeds of the several counties for delivery.

Secure seats for the Newton Beers "Lost in London" engagement. It will be a gr-at play. Reserved seats 75c at MacRae's.

The cold wave did not bring us down to the freezing point, for which all who are without fuel should be thankful.

Contrary to general expectation the sidewalk question and the Morgan Street extension did not come in for a share of discussion last night at the Chamber of Commerce meeting.

The Durham Sun says that Mr T B Wilkerson, with the firm of W H & R S Tucker & Co, of Raleigh, passed through yesterday for Chase City, Va, where he is to marry Miss Kate Lipscombe.

This week the Raleigh Christian Advocate will commence the publication of a short history of Methodism in North Carolina from the first beginning of Methodism in the colony to the organization of the North Carolina Conference in 1877.

Lafayette Seavy the Artist accomplished his master effort when he invented the new scenic illusion for Newton Beers. This "illuminated snow sensation" is duly protected by letters patent, and even were other managers financially able to purchase the effect, they could not as Mr Beers holds all rights.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, till Friday a m. much colder Thursday a m. and on the coast in the afternoon.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

Fair today and Thursday; colder.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m., today:

Maximum temperature, 63; minimum temperature, 40; rainfall T.

Synopsis: The high area and cold wave is now central over the lake region, the pressure has increased in diameter. The temperature at the center has moderated.

The storm over Texas has filled up, only trace of it remaining. Some rain has fallen in the Southern States and the weather remains generally cloudy in the Gulf States.

The high area will probably move over to the New England States by Thursday a m. producing northeast winds and colder weather on the Middle Atlantic coast.

Baptist Female College

The trustees of this institution made their report to the Baptist Convention. Money raised and expended $19,000 with many good subscriptions yet to be collected. The trustees ask that steps be taken at once to raise $100,000 for the proper establishment of the college.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY.

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75?

$22 Columbia Coats for $8.75?

$20 Worth Jackets for $7.61?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.95?

Blocker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?

Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
