Phalanx Lodge No 84. meets tonight

Troubles rarely come singly. Soon after the failure of her husband, Mrs B L Duke received intelligence of the death of her father in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

The many friends of Consul General A D Jones are in the deepest anxiety regarding his condition. It is evident that his illness is of a serious character.

The charity and help department of the Epworth League, of Central Methodist church, will meet at the Sunday school room at 7 p m tonight. All the members of the league are requested to attend.

McKee encampment No 15, will meet tonight for work in the Royal Purple degree. After which luncheon will be served by the caterer "go on" Litchford Encampment and all other patriarchs in the city are cordially invited to be present.

GEO L TONNOFFSKI, Recording Scribe.

That was a noble act on the part of the Pilot and Caraleigh mills furnishing the homespun to be worn by the young ladies in the Confederate concert. There are no more generous hearted people in the world than those of our good old state. And let us do all we can to further every enterprise they are engaged in.

Manager Jerman has the pleasure to announce that Marie Tempest in the most beautiful and elaborate opera "The Algerian" will be seen at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening December 26th. Miss Tempest and her company have just left New York City and will appear in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Richmond; from the latter place she comes to Raleigh and leaves Raleigh on a special train for Charleston, S C.

It is with pleasant anticipations that we look forward to the appearance of the renowned actor, Mr Newton Beers in this city, Friday evening at the Academy of Music.

Lost in London, in which Mr Beers has achieved his greatest success, a play, that will stir the emotions of any audience, and Mr Beers carries a lot of scenery and accoutrements that lend especial charm to the performance. Mr Beers is not only considered a great actor, but he is also a man of sterling integrity and intellectual worth. Lovers of a strong soul-stirring drama, should not miss this entertainment.

It seems that Alfred Williams & Co will always lead our people in providing the very best and most satisfactory holiday gifts for both the children and grown folks. Their store is constantly filled with Christmas shoppers, and it is town talk that suitable presents may be selected there in shorter time, and that a dollar will do more than at any other place in this state. Santa Claus has again located there for this season and the piles of mail orders received by every train would astonish you, and these orders are all filled by return mail even in the pressure of local trade, so that nobody shall be disappointed. People who have walked and worried over the selection of suitable Christmas presents return to Alfred Williams & Co's and always find just what they want. Try this today and you will be surprised how quickly and satisfactorily you can do your Christmas shopping.

Thomas & Maxwell are prepared for the best specialties for the Christmas holidays. A part only of their immense offerings consist of oak hat racks, fancy rattan rockers, fine plush rockers, large arm rest rockers at the astounding low price of $3; high back oak rockers, a few more left.

Don't fail to remember that Thomas & Maxwell, Nos 9 and 12 East Martin street, is the headquarters in this city for pictures and easels, oak centre tables, fancy and plain bed lounges, book cases, ladies' writing desks, children's rockers, plush and rattan. Don't fail to call before the pick is made. Splendid bargains. Now is the chance.

O J Bright, of New Hill, yesterday killed a half Poland China pig, 16 months old, which weighed 423 lbs. S J Bennett, of the same place, killed two pigs, half red Jersey, 8 months old, which weighed 174 and 179 lbs each. Well done for New Hill.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY?

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9 75? $22 Columbia coats for $8 75? $20 Worth Jackets for $7.61?

We answer, nobody does this. WHO EVER SOLD?

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.98? Blacker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?

Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more.

A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
