

The Daily Evening Vis

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1893.

For other locals see second page.

Beautiful shopping weather. Hog and hominy all the rage now. Nothing in the police department today.

All kinds of fowl are offered in market today.

It begins to look like fine healthy Christmas weather.

The merchants all report a very large trade today.

The weather continues good all through the country.

The meat and vegetable market today was well stocked.

Durham is recovering from the effects of the late failure.

All the female schools will close this week for the holidays.

Cotton receipts today were quite liberal. No change in prices.

There is a perfect lull at the different departments at the capitol.

Law lectures are being given at Wake Forest College this season.

The holidays at Wake Forest College will commence December 22d.

The new tariff is expected to meet with much opposition from the north.

The oyster trade from now until the end of the week will be immense.

The football craze is being set down upon by the different colleges.

Collector Simmons is about over with the pressure of his appointments.

Earthquakes in the northwest, but still times in the south. We have the advantage.

There was a complete lethargy in the cotton market today. The receipts were small.

It is expected that the Williams-Settle castle will be determined by Congress next week.

The Institution for the Deaf and Dumb Asylum at Morganton is fast nearing completion in all its departments.

The vestry of Christ church have passed suitable resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Bishop Lyman.

Relics are coming in slim for the Antiquary society. We should have a very large museum of such relics and every effort, should be made to obtain them.

There will be a public meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock to take suitable action with regard to the death and burial of our late esteemed fellow citizen, Hon A D Jones.

A report was current on the streets this afternoon that Col Heck was dead. We made enquiries, and so far as we were able to ascertain he was still alive but in a dying condition.

The late A D Jones, Esq., was in the 86th year of his age. He was a son of Wesley Jones, former U. S. Marshal for North Carolina and a grandson of Hon D W Courts, the former Treasurer of North Carolina.

The failure of the J Y Whittier Company factory at Durham was caused from the failure of Mr B L Duke, who besides owning a large amount of stock in the company had indorsed for it to a very large extent.

Christmas day is approaching but we have heard nothing so far as to its being officially designated as the day upon which contributions are to be made for the Confederate monument. There is little time to lose and we hope that the day may be specially designated.

Mr John H Dillon, agent for Marie Tempest in the "Algerian," writes Manager Jerman from New York: "I will be with you soon and I assure you that we shall give you a production that is beautiful, superb and artistic; we will be prepared to meet the most magnified of expectations."

Next Tuesday, December 26th, Miss Tempest with an excellent company will present this opera at the Academy of Music.

Consul Jones' Remains.

The following dispatch was received this afternoon:

WASHINGTON, D C, Dec 18. John W Thompson, Raleigh, N C: Just from state department. The remains of Consul Jones will be sent to Raleigh via Washington. Command me if instructions are further desired. B H BURN.

Wonder when the Board of Alder men will consider the sidewalks and Morgan street extension matter. The public are getting tired of it.

For dolls and toys go to the New York Millinery Bazaar.

Search Well. Take a careful look through the crockery, china and glass departments at Swindell's.

Now is the Time to buy your Xmas goodies. My stock is large and prices reasonable. Phone 28 D T Johnson, Agent.

Plush cases, silk handkerchiefs, stamped linens, muffs and capes and ladies cloaks are sold very reasonable at the New York Millinery Bazaar.

Cocoanuts by the bag. Oranges and raisins by the box. Apples by the bbl and crate at D T Johnson's.

A Big Bargain. We have placed on special sale our entire line of men's silk handkerchiefs and scarfs at a very great reduction.

One lot of silk handkerchiefs, your choice 7c, worth $1 and $1.25. One lot of scarfs, your choice 25c, worth 50c and 75c. These goods are genuine bargains and must be seen to be appreciated. Call early and make your selection. D Swindell.

All ladies and children's hats are sold at cost in order to reduce winter stock. Come and get your choice. New York Millinery Bazaar.

Oak City Steam Laundry. Send your shirts, collars, cuffs and other articles to be laundered early as possible this week. Will shut down Christmas week for repairs to start up 1st January, 1894, in good order to do better work than ever. Thankful for past patronage, and hopeful of continuance, I am, yours truly, de18 4t L R WYATT, Prop.

Bananas $1 to $1.25 a bunch; 25c a dozen at Dughli's.

Fresh oranges from the vine $2 50 a box; half box at same rate, at Dughli's.

Signs of Today. People who believe in signs will doubtless find something new in the following: It is unlucky to be struck by lightning on Monday; to sit on a circular saw on Tuesday; to fall down stairs with a coal scuttle on Wednesday; to get wet when you fall overboard on Thursday; to see a tax collector over your shoulder on Friday; to marry on Saturday a girl who practices with ten pound dumb bells; to be one of the sixteen at the table on Sunday when there is food for only six; to fall to buy dolls and Christmas goods from Swindell's on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday will prove bad luck. In fact, a real financial disaster. Moral—you get more at Swindell for your money.

Nice mountain apples at Dughli's.

California pears and grapes, at Dughli's.

Raisins, dates, figs and citron at Dughli's. Don't forget that delivery is free. Telephone 123.

Odd Chairs—Special Values. A chair is a very acceptable gift for Xmas. Upon our third floor (the carpet work room) we have placed a lot of chairs, not our regular goods, but those of which we have only one and two of a kind, the ends of lines. These can now be bought for about 50c on the dollar. Ask to be shown them. W H & R S TUCKER & CO.

While out shopping this week drop in at Jordan's dining hall and get your dinner, or what you want to eat.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY?

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75?
$22 Columbia Coats for $8.75?
$20 Worth Jackets for $7.61?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD?

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.98?
Blacker, Gerstle & Co. $5.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?
Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more.

A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
