

The Daily Evening Vis

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1893.

For other locals see second page.

Col Muldeon, of Kentucky, is in the city.

Stores crowded with buyers for the Christmas.

Mr E B Barbee has gone north on a business trip.

A big fight is in progress for the Winston post office.

The Algerian Comedy Company at the Academy of Music next Tuesday night.

The family of Collector Simmons has arrived in the city, and are stopping at the Yarboro House.

Latest news from Col J M Heck represent his case as hopeless. His death can be expected at any moment.

We are glad to note that Mr L T Brown, proprietor of the Yarboro is able to be out after a somewhat protracted sickness.

There is a dangerous hole in the Hillsboro street bridge north side. It should be fixed before some persons' ankle is damaged.

This afternoon a fine portrait of Judge Gaston was presented to the Supreme Court by his grand daughters, Miss Donaldson and Mrs Brown. The presentation was made by F H Busbee, Esq.

The public should not overlook in their rounds the drugists establishment of Messrs Swilling & Hicks corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets. They carry a first-rate line of articles fitted for Christmas presents. Call and see them.

Cards are out announcing the marriage on the 27th inst of Miss Stella Whitmel, of Bertie county, to Mr B F Renfrow, of the same county, but formerly of Nash county. Our Southern Delmonico, Mr A Dughi, has had for some time an order to furnish the delicacies of the season. Of course it will be well done.

Died.

This morning at her residence, corner of Salisbury street and Firwood avenue, at 1:49 o'clock, Mrs C B Card, aged 59 years. The remains were sent to Franklin on today for interment.

Meeting.

There was a meeting of the managers of the North Carolina Monumental Association in the state library this afternoon for the purpose of receiving the report of their committee appointed to examine the design adopted by the association, and to consider the contract for building the monument.

Election of Officers.

At a meeting of Hiram Lodge, held last night, the following officers were elected:
W S Primrose W M
S W Walker, S W
W W Wilson, J W,
T W Blake, Treasurer.
E B Thomas Secretary.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Generally fair colder in the interior.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

On Wednesday: Fair weather, colder.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a m., today:

Maximum temperature, 43; minimum temperature, 33; rainfall 0.0

Synopsis: The storm yesterday central over Lake Superior has moved eastward to northern New York. The lowest pressure is 29.58. It is snowing in the east lake region with high winds. It is cloudy on the New England coast.

The weather is clear over the entire country south and west of the lake region, except over southwestern Texas.

The high area over the Gulf of Mexico retains about the same position. A new high area with clear cold weather is moving down from the northwest where the temperature has fallen rapidly.

Thankful for past patronage, and hopeful of continuance, I am, yours truly, del18 4c L R WYATT, Prop.

Signs of Today.

People who believe in signs will doubtless find something new in the following: It is unlucky to be struck by lightning on Monday; to sit on a circular saw on Tuesday; to fall down stairs with a coal scuttle on Wednesday; to get wet when you fall overboard on Thursday; to see a tax collector over your shoulder on Friday; to marry on Saturday a girl who practices with ten pound dumb bells; to be one of the sixteen at the table on Sunday when there is food for only six; to fall to buy dolls and Christmas goods from Swindell's on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday will prove bad luck. In fact, a real financial disaster. Moral—you get more at Swindell for your money.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY,

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75?
$22 Columbia Coats for $8.75?
$20 Worth Jackets for $7.51?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.98?
Blacker, Gerst's & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?
Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
