

The Daily Evening Vis

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1893.

For other locals see second page.

The cotton seed business is brisk.

Judge T O Fuller arrived in the city this morning.

Seven convicts for the penitentiary were received from Guilford yesterday the result of four days session of court.

See in this issue notice of sale of valuable horses, buggies and other personal property on January 10th 1894 by Mary M Christmas, executrix of Thos B Bridges deceased.

It is learned from a Washington dispatch to the Charlotte Observer that the health of Senator Vance is such that he will be compelled to be absent from Congress during the winter. He will soon go to Florida.

"The Toy Makers of Wonderland" will be given at Metropolitan hall next Friday night 8:30 inst under the auspices of the church improvement society of the First Baptist church. There will be charming music and other first class amusements.

New York Herald, Tuesday, Dec. 19, 1893 Harlem Opera House; A large audience witnessed the performance of "The Algerian" with Miss Tempest in the leading role, last night. Miss Tempest will appear at the Academy of Music, Tuesday night Dec 26th; she makes one stop between New York and Raleigh.

The performance of Gorton's Minstrels is strictly refined, entirely fit from start to finish for a lady audience. It is a white minstrel organization and should not be confounded with the colored minstrel companies that run out now and then and make a living off Mr Gorton's well earned reputation as "The New Orleans Minstrels."

We invite the special attention of the public to the advertisement of the Raleigh Stationery Company. They have just opened a splendid assortment of holiday books, booklets and Christmas goods generally. Their trade is rapidly increasing and all who purchase are well pleased. There is no more liberal house in their line in the State. Call at once and make your selections.

A man known to every dealer in and player of brass band music in the civilized world will be in this city shortly. He is Prof Joseph Gorton, the noted composer and sole proprietor of Gorton's Original New Orleans Minstrels now in its 28th consecutive year. Mr Gorton will personally direct the open air gold band concert to given here at noon, day of performance. Music lovers cannot afford to miss this musical treat.

The attractions at the Academy of Music next week will live things very much. On Tuesday evening Marie Tempest will appear in the comic opera, the "Algerian." This will be the best attraction to be seen here this season. On Wednesday night the well known minstrels—"Gorton's Original New Orleans Minstrels"—will hold the boards. These are indeed performances worth seeing and hearing and the house will doubtless be crowded each night.

Meeting.

A number of the members of the bar and citizens generally met in the court house yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to take action relative to the death of Hon A D Jones, late Consul General to Shanghai.

Mr R H Battle presided as chairman and Graek O Andrews acted as secretary. A committee was appointed to adopt suitable resolutions. They are as follows: T R Parnell, Jno W Thompson, O G Latta, and E O Smith.

A committee was appointed to meet the remains at Washington and accompany them to Raleigh. The following were appointed: J W Thompson, E O Smith, B R Lacy and M W Page. The chairman will announce others.

A committee to make arrangements for the funeral were appointed as follows: W C Stronach, Millard Mial, W J Peale, Joseph Blake and B F Montague.

The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

The second and final week of the "Algerian" with Marie Tempest in the leading role, at the Harlem Opera House began last night. The audience was large in size and demonstrative in its appreciation of DeKoven and MacDough's clever opera comique.—N Y World, Tuesday, December 19 1893.

Thanks.

Thanking you for the very large patronage you have bestowed upon us thus far this season we beg leave to say we have just opened another lot of holiday books, booklets, Xmas cards, calendars, &c. We have marked them at winning prices. We are known as leaders in low prices and headquarters for holiday goods.

As we only carry this line of goods for the holiday trade we have marked them at prices that cannot be duplicated elsewhere. It is our desire to close out all of our holiday goods this week as we need the room for stationery, office and school supplies to furnish our largely increasing trade of this city and throughout the State.

Before making your purchases give us a call. We will save you money.
Respectfully,
Raleigh Stationery Co.,
Opposite Post Office,

Signs of Today.

People who believe in signs will doubtless find something new in the following: It is unlucky to be struck by lightning on Monday; to sit on a circular saw on Tuesday; to fall down stairs with a coal scuttle on Wednesday; to get wet when you sail overboard on Thursday; to see a tax collector over your shoulder on Friday; to marry on Saturday a girl who practices with ten pound dumb bells; to be one of the sixteen at the table on Sunday when there is food for only six; to fail to buy dolls and Christmas goods from Swindell's on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday will prove bad luck. In fact, a real financial disaster. Moral—you get more at Swindell for your money.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY, AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY?

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75?
$22 Columbia Coats for $8.75?
$20 Worth Jackets for $7.50?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD?

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.95?
Bleeker Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?
Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tip, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rests our claim for public patronage.
