

The Daily Evening

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1893.

Christmas is now over.
Dull week until new year.
Christmas is as far off as ever.
The State is quiet all over today.
The city is unusually quiet today.
Go to the Academy of Music tonight.

There never has been a more beautiful Christmas week

Christmas is now about twelve months off.

The old year is fast on the wane with its joys and sorrows.

The first Baptist church will have its Christmas tree next Friday night
Full of fun at the Academy of Music tonight.

The mayors' office was barren of news today.

The weather folks say there is no rain in sight.

Manager Brown, of the Yarboro, is still improving.

No serious accident occurred to mar our festivities during the holidays.

The beautiful weather continues throughout the north.

Don't fail to see the Minstrels tonight.

Go to the Academy of Music tonight and "laugh and grow fat."

It can truly be said in this case that the "Lord has tempered the wind to the shorn lamb."

Gorton's Minstrels will give one of their fine shows tonight. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents.

Capt J M Eady of Jarestown, is in the city stopping with his son-in-law Mr Nat L Brown

The condition of Col Tate is more improved today and strong hopes are entertained of his recovery.

From the north to the south and east to west most beautiful weather prevails.

A large batch of postmasters are expected to be appointed to the coming week.

Wayne McVeagh, the new minister to Italy, was in Charlotte last Sunday morning, enroute to Florida.

On Saturday night last, the residence of Mr George Ruth on West Lane street was destroyed by fire
The origin of the fire is unknown

The station house was packed with unfortunates last Monday. They were dealt with quite leniently generally owing to the holiday season.

The white house at Washington was closed to visitors last Monday. The president and Mrs Cleveland passed a quiet day.

We hope as large a crowd of our people as convenient will go to Cary tomorrow to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of "Suck" Jones. He deserves it.

The Gorton's Minstrel Band made some fine music on the streets this morning which is an index that it is a fine show.

The Third Baptist Sunday School on Fayetteville Street had a Christmas tree this evening at 5 o'clock where all the scholars received nice presents.

During the past two years Gorton's Minstrels have played at every point of consequence in Man'toba, Pug t Sound, British Columbia and the entire Pacific Coast and northwestern portion of America.

Santa Claus and the children had a good time at the Christian church last night. Many nice presents were given out and little ones went home much pleased with Santa Claus's visit, wishing that they could have him with them often. Oh! for Christmas.

We are sorry to state that two young boys the sons of Mr Neal and Hatch and their names were Cad Neal and Drury Hatch were severely burned with powder on Christmas day. Their face and hands terribly burned. Such things will happen on such occasions.

The entertainment of "Toys of Wonderland" was repeated at Metropolitan Hall last Monday night to a large and appreciative audience. The programme was excellent and carried out to perfection. The proceeds were for the benefit of the church improvement society of the First Baptist church.

Confederate Monument.

The granite for the Confederate monument will be chosen by the ladies who will act after consultation with the State Geologist.

Christmas.

This great popular holiday has come and gone and left with us all its hollowed associations. In Raleigh it was spent as usual with nothing of an exciting nature to mar the occasion. Our people celebrated the day in accordance with their various inclinations, and we noted nothing to show that it varied from the day on former occasions. All seemed to enjoy themselves.

Funeral Arrangements of Mr Jones

We are in receipt of the following dispatch, dated Washington, December 28th:

To W C STRONACH:
Body due to arrive here Wednesday morning. If no delays will reach Raleigh Wednesday night by Atlanta special. Arrange funeral for Thursday.
JOSEPHUS DANIELS.

A dispatch received here today by Mr. W. C. Stronach states that the body will not be received until tomorrow. It will come by the way of the Virginia Midland Railroad by Greenboro. A special train will leave here tomorrow for Cary by which the friends of the deceased can be conveyed to the funeral. The train will leave here tomorrow about 11 o'clock and the fare will be 40 cents for the round trip. It is expected a large crowd will be in attendance.

The funeral directions will be under the control of Mr. John W. Brown of this city.

Are you Interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counter. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY?

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75?
$22 Columbia Coats for $8.75?
$20 Worth Jackets for $7.51?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD?

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.93?
Blacker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?
Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases people so well, gains their confidence, holds their trade as the foundation principle upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
