VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1893.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Maj A M Lewis is quite sick.
Mr G E Leach is in the city.
Not a great many toys left over.
All quiet in police circles today.
Colder weather in the near future.
Fresh shad have made their appearance in New Bern.

See notice of land sale by B F Montague mortgagee.

The old year with its joys and sorrows, is almost gone.

If you desire seats for Remenyi concert, they should be secured at once.

Mr B H Swain, of the Wilson Ledger, is in the city.

J W Forbis, the new postmaster at Greensboro, has taken charge.

Members of congress are coming in already.

Mrs Frank Lumsden is quite sick at her residence on West Jones street.

State Treasurer Tate continues to improve.

Davis County furnished one convict to the penitentiary to-day.

Cotton receipts today quite small. No change in prices.

The country roads are in far better condition than usual at this season of the year.

Be cautious and change your clothing with the weather. In this way you may escape the grip.

No such spell of weather is remembered in this section, in the month of December.

The justices of the peace will meet with the county commissioners next Monday.

Rev H T Darnell has tendered his resignation as pastor of the church at Durham.

Phalanx Lodge will meet tonight. Election of officers. Full attendance desired.

We had a pleasant call this morning from Rev. D. E. Tuttle, pastor of Central Methodist Church.

If everybody who has a cold is a victim of the grip, then the disease must be very prevalent. There is a general sneezing all around.

The Confederate entertainment will be of vast interest to the young people of the State, and also teach them many valuable lessons.

Mr J Van Lindley has been elected president of the North Carolina Floral Association at Charlotte, yesterday.

Justice Roberts we learn gave a fellow recently, thirty days in jail for cruelty to animals. Served him right.

There is very notable scarcity of partridges and rabbits in market. In fact all wild game appears to be scarce.

The Remenyi Company at Metropolitan hall next Wednesday is the great attraction. It will be an event in musical circles rarely met with in Raleigh.

At Paoctous in Pitt county, on Christmas day, Henry Miller killed Dave Hardy in a drunken row. Both colored.

Persons having information relative to the timber lands of North Carolina should report it to the chamber of commerce of this city. It will be valuable in the matter of the proposed prospectus.

Prof D H Hill, of the A and M College, has declined the presidency of the agricultural college in Arkansas. We are pleased to know that he will remain with us.

Remenyi has excited the admiration of the civilized world by his great musical powers. He has performed before many crowned heads, the plaudits of whom he has received. He will delight the people of Raleigh on Wednesday next, the 31st of January.

World's Fair.

The entertainment given by Prof W E Hermance at Metropolitan hall last night was fairly well attended. The occasion was highly interesting and enjoyed by all present.

Superintendents.

A meeting of the association of superintendents took place in Wilmington recently. The report of the year's work in the several schools was very satisfactory. Other routine business was transacted.

A Good Cause.

There will be an oyster supper at the Y M C A. rooms Monday evening next from 7 to 10 by the Golden Rule Circle of King Daughters for the purpose of buying a carpet for the new Fayetteville Street Baptist Church. Admission, including oysters and coffee, 25 cents. Public cordially invited.

Assignment.

Yesterday afternoon Mr W B Newsum, doing business as a grocer on Wilmington street made an assignment, naming Mr Ernest Haywood as assignee. The assets and liabilities are not yet known.

Fire.

Last night about 9:30 o'clock a fire was discovered on the roof of a house on South Fayetteville street occupied by Frances Townes colored. The damage was comparatively small.

The Durham Globe.

A dispatch received in the city today from our friend and fellow citizen Mr J W Jenkins, states that he has purchased the Durham Globe which he will in future conduct. Mr Jenkins is a live newspaper man and we doubt not he will make a success of his new enterprise. Added to his ability in the journalistic line he has all the qualities of a most genial young gentleman. Long may he live to adorn the profession.

The Season.

The past week has been a season of gaiety. Festivities of all kinds prevailed. Most dealers were busy but we doubt if there was a busier man in Raleigh than Mr A Dugli. His business has grown to such proportions that he is continually in demand for every festive occasion. The entire State knows of him and wants him. He now has orders ahead and is compelled to keep his force at work night and day. A few days since he shipped an invoice of ice cream. It was on the road for 40 hours, but remains ALL RIGHT in every particular. Just how this was done nobody but Dugli seems to know. But he does it all the same.

One of the guards of the convicts in Mecklenburg County was attacked yesterday by two negroes. He killed them both.
