A DOG RESENTS A KICK.

A Newfoundland dog, weighing over 100 pounds in resenting a kick from 12-year-old James Collins, in Covington, Ky., literally chewed him to pieces. The dog jumped on the lad, knocked him down and tore one of his ears off. A crowd of over 1,000 people were attracted by the boy's screams, but not one of them had the courage to interfere. A policeman finally succeeded in lassoing and afterward shooting the dog, but benied the remains from Washington fore this was accomplished the boy's ad who had access to the latest in- body had been terribly torn and rmation on file at Washington con- lacerated. rning the illness and last days of r Jones it was learned that he was sick man almost from the time of is arrival in China. He was first atfeked with malarial fever and was advised to go to Chefco, in the b ountanous sec ion of China which he did and came back improved, but soon he was again affected and went a second time to Chefoo but this time he did not return benefited as before. His health ebbed away rapidly till finally it seemed impossible to stay the ravages of the malady and the Vice Consul at Shanghai nrged him to return to America and arrangements were made to that effect. It is understood that when Mr Jones sailed he was in a weak and emaciated a condition that he had to be carried on board the steamer and that he then went to his bed and never left it. The department at Washington had information that Mr Jones had the most kind and humane treatment from the first and all durs ing his voyage to the time of his death, and any reports or suppositions to the contrary are preposterous and impossible. It is understood that soon after the steamer sailed the voyage was rough and that there was considerable rolling of the boat which excited Mr Jones to some extent but he did not at any time bocome violent or uncontrollable. He had no desire to est food and ate scarcely anything from the time of sailing till his death. It was with the greatest difficulty that nourish. ment was administered to him, and at his death he had lost much of his obust and rotand physique by emcitation.

At San Francisco, it was found neary to re-embalm the body, as ashington till 2:15 o'clock bills are paid.
