

The Daily Evening Visitor

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, JANUARY 1, 1894.

NO. 58

CITY IN BRIEF.

Goods Piled Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Happy New Year.

It is 1894—not 1893

Be sure to write it 1894.

Don't forget to give in your merchants' purchase tax.

See notice to defendants by Jno W Hinesdale, plaintiffs' attorneys.

Master Oddie Neal who so badly burled on Christmas morning is improving.

The Naval Reserves of the State have been invited to New Bern during the fair February next.

Look out for circulars proposing to furnish counterfeit money. Don't be taken in by such swindlers.

The County Commissioners met today in regular monthly session. It will be an important meeting.

The lecture of Prof. Graham Daves at Metropolitan hall tomorrow night, will be interesting in a historical point of view.

"The Tavery Operatic Concert Company" at the Academy of Music next Saturday night, January 6th. It is a splendid troupe.

The grip is thought to be somewhat on the decrease. There are no very bad cases. Severe colds, however, continue very prevalent.

Mr J. W. Price and wife left the city on Friday afternoon for their home in Columbia, S. C., accompanied by their little niece, Ada Pierce.

The new year commenced rather gloomy so far as the weather is concerned. In other respects the prospects are fair. Let us all hope for the best.

Mr A. Dughi received and filled an order for an entertainment today at Trinity college, Durham. Thus it is that he is called for on all such occasions. His fame is far reaching as a well known caterer.

A requisition has been issued by Governor Carr upon the Governor of Virginia for the rendition of Calvin Coley and Pink Wilkins charged with the murder of the piddler R. Tucker in Franklin county.

Our colored citizens celebrated the emancipation of their race today by appropriate exercises in Metropolitan hall. John Branch, a colored lawyer of this city, was the orator of the day. There was a considerable turnout.

At the mansion rooms of the King's Daughters last Saturday evening a nice Christmas tree was prepared for the poor children which was finely enjoyed by all present. It was a generous act on the part of the ladies and thoroughly appreciated.

Strangers as well as citizens should not fail to call on the Rosenthal Clothing Company for bargains. There is no establishment of the kind in the State that offers better inducements. The champion clothier, "Dave" Rosenthal presides, and he knows just how to serve the public. Call and see him.

Mr A. Dughi feels it appropriate on this day to return his most sincere thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him. He is truly grateful and he can assure his friends and the public generally that during the coming year he will relax no efforts to please. He extends congratulations and wishes all a happy new year, with unbounded prosperity and blessings.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to the advertisement of Messrs S & D Berwanger. These enterprising gentlemen offer a most happy greeting to their friends for the year 1894. They are so well known in their individual and business capacity as to require but little commendation at our hands. They deal fairly with the people and our citizens know that in dealing with them they get what they pay for. Call and see them.

Teachers Assembly

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Teachers' Assembly at the Park Hotel tomorrow, January 3d. This will be a very important meeting as the business of the past year is to be disposed of and the program for next summer is to be arranged. Our friend Maj Harrell, has secured a number of attractive for the next session of the assembly and it is expected that the attendance at Morehead will be the largest in the history of the assembly.

The Great Sale.

Our friend and fellow citizen, Capt B P Williamson, has decided to have his blooded stock sale to take place Feb 14th and 15th, at the usual place. Many prominent horses will be offered. Those desiring to enter stock for this sale must communicate with Capt Williamson at once. All who want catalogues can get them by application to Capt Williamson after January 20th, 1894.

W. C. T. U.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U., make the following report of their annual visit to the Alm's House.

We desire through these columns to extend our hearty thanks and appreciation to those who so liberally contributed when called upon. The cleanly, tidy apartments, contentment of the inmates and the praise in which they spoke of Mr Allen, all tend to convince one that they are comfortably provided for. But we believe at this season of the year, when it is the custom to give and receive gifts, surrounded as we are by the comforts and many of the luxuries of life, and we are remembering the unfortunate, these people should not be overlooked. We passed from one apartment to another, leaving small sacks containing confectioneries, raisins, cakes, apples and oranges. The articles of apparel donated were given by the direction of Mr Allen to those most in need. The spectacles and knives were gladly received. If you could have heard the expressions of profound gratitude from the sixty three inmates, those of palsied limb, sightless eyes, imbecile minds and those weary on couches of pain, you would have felt as did we the force of the words of the Lord Jesus, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

We doubt if there is a place in this city in a worse condition than the sidewalk on the north side of Hillsboro street, between the railroad bridge and Saunders street. In rainy weather it is impassible and pedestrians have to take to the street. Can't our street commissioner look after it. A coating of cinders will help out wonderfully.

We are indebted to Messrs Wynne & Ellington, agents of the Royal Insurance company. Also to Messrs W H King & Co, Druggists for some handsome calendars for 1894.

It is best not to make any loud pretensions. Just determine to do the best you can under the circumstances. Then you will be sure not to slip up.

The Confederate concert this week is now all the talk. The old veterans of Raleigh propose to aid the ladies in the matter of relics, &c.

Our Japanese Department.

For only a few days longer will our patrons have the privilege of choosing from our vantine department of Japanese wares. It will be necessary to make selections from the vantine department before January the 10th for then the article must be returned. These goods will be marked in plain figures so that customers can wait upon themselves. We also call attention to the odds and ends of small wares left from the holiday stock, which will be closed out at much less than value.

At a Glance.

Right here in this town you can see a wonderful display. You think you know what is going on in Raleigh, but I will wager you will be surprised if you go and see the vast quantity of crockery and glass on exhibition at Swindell's. This is a new department and we have gone in to win. We are showing more and varied china, crockery and glass than you ever saw unless you saw it in some larger city. Just for curiosity stop in and see. We will gladly show you through and not expect any trade if you, by way of exercise, stop and see.

Are you interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN ON Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.

Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never sold at a price so low as ours. Money refunded at any time if it is desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY?

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75? $22 Columbia Coats for $8.75? $20 Worth Jackets for $7.61?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVER SOLD?

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.95? Blacker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81? Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?

We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
