Interesting

All who attend Metropolitan hall tonight may expect a historical treat the occasion being an address by Prof Ed Graham Daves on the colony of Sir Walter Raleigh on Roanoke Island. Prof Daves is a gentleman of the highest literary culture and versed in the subject matter of his discourse.

Our Sidewalks.

So much has been said and written upon the matter of sidewalks that it would seem the question had become threadbare. We know, of course, that there has been much grumbling and there still is, but much of this is unwarranted because the city is in no fix from a financial point of view to carry out all that is desired. We insist, however, that much might be done that is left undone in the premises.

In many parts of the city the sidewalks consist of red clay which, of all soil, is the most disagreeable in wet weather. It would seem to us that in such cases a coating of gravel or light soil could be put down which would at least be some improvement. We hope our efficient street commissioner will look after it.

The Weather.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

On Wednesday: Fair weather warmer.

Synopsis: This morning the high area and clearing condition stretches over the Atlantic and Gulf States Maine to Louisiana. The weather is clear and cool over the entire country except from the lake region westward.

The storm is central over Canada, with a secondary low area over Iowa and Nebraska which is causing south winds and rising temperature in the central valley.

"The Country Squire," By Archie Boyd and Company.

Archie Boyd is well known for his excellent rendition for four years past of the part of Joshua Whitcomb in the "Old Homestead," and his new play is one worthy of him. It was written expressly for him by Charles A Krone. It is a quiet domestic character picture of everyday life, rich in simple pathos and humor, and entirely devoid of the stilted situations and strained effects that characterize the average production of today. Free from all morbid sentimentality, it appeals directly to the human heart and its noblest sentiments, thereby indirectly conveying a moral lesson in a manner that can not but be delightful and instructive to the most fastidious and exacting taste. Like the "Old Homestead," which has been pronounced a model of American plays, the situations and language though drawn from the conditions and vernacular of everyday life, are at times elevated to poetry, while the plot has an organic connection rarely found in any other play of its kind.

The first issue of the Durham Globe under the auspices of our young friend, Mr J Wilber Jenkins, is bright and newswy giving promise of complete success.

The confederate entertainment bids fair to be a most complete success. Much interest is being manifested in it.

We are sorry to announce that the Rev D H Tuttle is confined at his home with sickness. Hope he will be speedily restored to health again.

We are indebted to Messrs Snelling & Hicks the popular druggists for several beautiful calendars for 1894.

Are you interested in Low Prices?

THE GRANDEST OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN on Certain Lines.

Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.

Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now. Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?

DID YOU EVER BUY?

$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75?
$22 O'umbria Coats for $8.75?
$20 Worth Jackets for $7.61?

We answer, nobody does this.

WHO EVE'S SOLD

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.93?
Blacker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?

Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?
We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.

The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tin, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.

Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
