is estimated that the enrollment of students at Trinity college will soon reach 200.

The famous banjo player of the state will appear at the Confederate melange tonight.

There will be another civil service examination at the post office building in this city next month.

A new secret society known as the "Horsemen's Protective Union," has been organized in Charlotte.

There have been but four sheriffs who have made complete settlements with the state treasurer thus far.

The passenger department of the Seaboard Air Line has issued very beautiful calendars for 1894, one of which we have received.

The appointment of U S Marshal for this district is daily expected. It is generally conceded that Mr "Jaid" Carroll will be the man.

Some prominent ex Confederates from a distance are expected to take a part in the entertainment at Metropolitan hall tonight.

No tidings yet of the bad winter that the weather prophets mapped for us. It looks like spring lin- in the lap of winter.

Call the board of aldermen to- Normake some temporary arrange- to better the condition of our talks in notoriously bad places? ly are pleased to hear that there is in change for the worse in the condition of Col J. M. Heck. We sincerely hope he may be fully restored to health.

We hear that the West End Baptist Mission will soon have a regular pastor. The mission is steadily growing in numbers.

The family of Auditor Farran who resided the past year in Raleigh, have returned to Asheville to live. They will be missed in the social circle of our city.

Mr Archie Boyd, who is starting in "The Country Squire," a worthy successor to the "Old Homestead," and played Joshua Whitcomb in same with great success, has, as has been predicted, made one of the biggest successes that has occurred for several seasons past.

It seems to be understood that the joint committee of the two North Carolina Methodist Episcopal conferences recommends the consolidation of the two organs now published at Asheville and Raleigh. The latter is equated, but the former asks for sixty days for consideration.

Mr Henry J Olapham, the well known manager, also part owner of the Dockstader Minstrels, takes great pleasure in announcing the appearance of his new star, Mr Archie Boyd, and at the same time presenting the new rural drama, "The Country Squire," one of the best productions in later years. Mr Boyd has, for the past four years, been playing and making famous the character of Joshua Whitcomb, in the "Old Homestead," and persons who are in position to be good judges are quick to say that in "The Country Squire," Mr Boyd has a play that is very much better suited to his abilities and far exceeds all expectations, both dramatically and financially.

Died.
Charles S Wheeler, son of Dr W H Wheeler, of Winston, died of consumption last Wednesday evening. He was a most promising young man and very popular.

Dedication.
Trinity church, the new E edifice at Durham, will be dedicated tomorrow with appropriate ceremonies. It is expected that there will be a very large attendance and many are expected to go from Raleigh.

Beautiful.
We have never seen a more beautiful specimen of a calendar than that sent out by Messrs G I Hood & Co, proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It contains the head of a beautiful girl of "sweet sixteen" lithographed in many colors. It is lovely.

Declines.
A special from Washington City to the Richmond Dispatch, dated yesterday, announces emphatically that Kope Elias has written to the president declining the further use of his name for the office of collector of the western district of North Carolina. Urges the president to send another name to the senate. Mr Elias says he does not desire to continue a disturbing element in North Carolina politics.

Grand Officers.
The Grand Lodge of Masons at their session in Wilmington, elected the following officers for the ensuing year:
Most Worshipful Grand Master—John W Cotton of arbora.
Right Worthy Deputy Grand Master—Francis M Moye, of Moyeton.
Right Worthy Senior Grand Warden—Richard J Noble, of Smithfield.
Right Worthy Junior Grand Warden—Walter E Moore, of Webster.
Right Worthy Grand Treasurer—Wm Simpson, of Raleigh.
Right Worthy Grand Secretary—Wm H Bain, Raleigh.
G Rosenthal, of Raleigh, was made a director of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, for which an appropriation of $3,500 was made.

The Weather.
For North Carolina: Rain, followed by fair in western portion this afternoon and in eastern portion tonight; cooler.
Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.
Light rain probable tonight and Saturday a m; fair Saturday a m.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a m today.
Maximum temperature, 60; minimum temperature, 49; rainfall .000
Synopsis: An area of low pressure is central over the eastern lake region. It is causing cloudy weather everywhere east of the Mississippi. Heavy rains have occurred in Tennessee, and light rain at many other places. As the storm moves off the North Atlantic coast, today and tonight, there will very probably be general rain in North Carolina.
The pressure is high west of the Mississippi, and a decided clearing condition appears in the northwest, where the pressure is higher and the temperature very low.
Andrew Carnegie may look out for Carnegie, but he carries around a heart with him nevertheless. In addition to keeping his mills open during the winter, he has offered to give another dollar for every dollar given by any one else for the support of the poor in the city of Pittsburgh.
"A graveyard is not a very pleasant place for courtship yet there seems to be a good deal of billing and cooing going on in the Northwood cemetery at Germantown, Pa. The directors have found it necessary to erect at the entrance a sign bearing these words: "Flirting is Prohibited."

The board of aldermen meet in regular session tonight.

Tremendous MARK-DOWN on Certain Lines.
Our Prices Gladdens the Hearts of Economic Buyers.
Our Fall and Winter stock was never better. Sales larger or values of such intrinsic worth as now.
Our advertisements are as good as treasury notes for our promises. Purchases are equal to a savings bank deposit. Unreliable goods never find a place on our counters. Money refunded at any time if so desired. With these facts before you what are you going to do about it?
DID YOU EVER BUY?
$25 Seal Plush Capes for $9.75?
$22 Columbia Coats for $8.75?
$20 Worth Jackets for $7.61?

Burt & Packard's $5 shoes $2.93?
Blecker, Gerstle & Co. $3.50 Kid Boots for $1.81?
Harris' $2 Wool Cassimeres for 73c?
We answer, nobody does this, yet many adopt this style of advertising. It is a statement.
The fact that an article is reduced in price is self-evident that it is not worth any more. A straight tip, square deal and honest treatment satisfies all.
Our prices, stock through and through, are lower than others. Think a moment, compare expenses, figure a little, the advantage you readily see is ours. We have the nerve to mark low. Nothing pleases the people so well, gains their confidence or holds their trade as the foundation principles upon which we rest our claim for public patronage.
