VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1894.

NO. 63

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Sheriffs are not coming in very freely.

Brother Kingsbury, of the Wilson Messenger, is sick.

And is a general desire for the return of the Confederate melange.

Like the Tavery Grand Operatic Concert at the Academy of Music tonight.

The bad weather threw a damper on the usual Saturday's trade. Very slow going.

Mr E G Harrell has gone to Dunn, Harnett county, to attend the bedside of his mother who is critically ill.

Don't fail to see the grand Opera at the Academy of Music tonight. It will be a musical event not often seen in Raleigh.

Who will bid for the street railway and fix it in running order by the coming spring? Such persons would prove public benefactors.

Several days ago in School District No 1 St Mary's township 9134 pounds of pork were killed. One hog weighed 480 pounds. This is a good showing for something to eat.

Secretary Hoke Smith will deliver the address at the next commencement of the Chapel Hill University.

His father was for many years a professor in the institution.

Rev J N Cole is still confined at his home, though much improved. Rev Ar Atkins will occupy his pulpit at Denton Street Methodist church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. No services at that church at night.

U S Civil Service Examinations.

A competitive examination, under the rules of the U S Civil Service Commission, of applicants for the grades of clerk and carrier in the classified postal service at the post office in the city of Raleigh N C. will be held at the postoffice building in said city on the 10th day of February 1894, commencing at 9 o'clock a m. Our January Sale of House Furnishing Goods.

During the week beginning Monday Jan 8th we will offer from our respective departments, lines of housefurnishing goods at such prices, that will make this sale of the greatest interest to every housekeeper. Some of these goods will be shown upon special tables. Included in sale are table damasks, towels, white counterpane, and wool blankets. We cannot itemize prices here, but we urge every housekeeper to inspect these departments during the week.

Also bear in mind that we are going to quit keeping chamber suits, so we will make any one price upon chamber suits that will insure a sale.

W H & R S TUCKER & Co.

Thanks.

The ladies feel very grateful to many parties for aid in their Confederate concert, but especially Rev Bennett Smedes, who in addition to getting reserved seats for the young ladies of St Mary's school, opened the concert with a private donation of $25.

The Melange.

There was quite a delighted audience at Metropolitan hall last night to witness the Confederate melange arranged by the ladies for the monument fund. The programme was carried out in all its parts and the musical feature of the entertainment under the direction of Mr Chas Hart, was excellent. The sum of about $160 was netted for the cause.

Arlie Boyd.

At the Academy of Music Tuesday night, Jan 9th, Mr Archie Boyd, an experienced actor, who has been playing the part of Joshua Whitcomb in the "Old Homestead" artistically for several seasons past, will present his new rural drama, "The Country Squire," during his coming engagements. Mr Boyd's great success in the "Old Homestead" and his well earned reputation as an actor insures excellence from a financial and dramatic standpoint.

Died.

On January 5th, 1894, in Tuscaloosa, Ala, Clara F Royster, wife of O M Royster. Her remains were carried to Columbia, S C, for interment.

Jan 5th, at her house on East Cabarras street, Virginia M Millien in the 36th year of her age. She was the wife of Bob Millien and grand daughter of old "Aunt Gatsy Boots," a well known nurse—a faithful servant, a good wife and daughter and an earnest christian. Her funeral will be held from the 1st colored Baptist church tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Talk of the Town.

The remarkable prices of goods at the establishment of C A Sherwood & Co, for spot cash, is now the talk of the town. Indeed it has been a source of wonder for a long time how such bargains can be had. It should be remembered, however, that these gentlemen are "dry goods hustlers." They are always on the lookout and never let an opportunity slip to buy at such prices as will benefit their customers. They have new "ad" today. Read and digest it.

Baptist City Missionary.

Rev A D Hunter has accepted an invitation to take charge of the city mission work of the Baptists of Raleigh. Mr Hunter is a native of this county, was for several years pastor of the Baptist church at Greenville, N C, and recently of Carrsville, Va. He is in the prime of life and a preacher of ability.

He will enter upon his work by preaching at the West End Baptist mission chapel tomorrow at 11 a m and 7 p m, and at Pilot cotton mills at 3:30 p m.

Rev W G Clements, editor of the Christian Sun warns the public against a man named McDonald, who is traveling in the State representing himself as a minister of the Christian church. Mr Clements says he has nothing to do with the church, nor does it recognize him.

Raleigh Council, Royal Arcanum, No 551, meets in Odd Fellows hall Monday night, the 8th inst, at 7:30 o'clock. Degrees conferred and officers installed, after which the council will be entertained with a humorous address by one of the Past Regents.
