

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, JANUARY 8, 1894.

NO. 64

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.
 Yesterday was a typical rainy Sunday.
 Day's length 9 hours and 53 minutes.
 Bad colds and grippe are having their day.
 Reserve seats for Archie Boyd at MacRae's; 75 cents.
 It is probable the Confederate message will be repeated.
 Our friend Mr Charles T Askew is the city looking well.
 Mrs J C Neal is very sick at her residence on North West street.
 The next meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge will be held in Raleigh.
 Mr Charles F Cook, one of Raleigh's printers, left this morning for Wilmington.
 It is now expected that the attendance at Chapel Hill will be over 400 the present session.
 Mr W S Orr has been elected chief of police of Charlotte, to succeed the late Capt Dick Mason.
 Mrs O H Belvin, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs L W Crawford, in Durham, has returned home.
 The easiest solution of the prize fight question in Florida is to leave it to a vote of the people of Jacksonville.
 An adjourned session of the U. S. District Court, with Judge Seymour on the bench, was opened this morning at Wilmington.
 Mr Geo L Morton, the new post master at Wilmington, has filed his bond and will enter upon the duties of the office in a few days.
 It is estimated that there will be a very large falling off in the receipts from the merchants' purchase tax as well as from other sources. Shrinkage in values is supposed to be the cause.
 Raleigh Council, Royal Arcanum, No 551, meets in Odd Fellows hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Degrees will be conferred and officers installed, after which the council will be entertained with a humorous address by one of the Past Regents.
 "Sam" and "Dave" Berwanger announce "A Case of Must" in their advertisement today. Their list of prices, especially in the matter of boys and youths clothing, are simply amazing. They are determined to close out their lines, and they will do so at such prices as must attract public attention.
 We have received the January number of the Cosmopolitan which, as usual, is full of the most interesting reading matter. It is undoubtedly one of the best magazines not only in this country but in the world. It numbers among its list of contributors some of the most distinguished writers of the age. The price of subscription is very low, only $1.50 per annum, 15 cents per copy.
 The regular annual meeting of Epworth League, No 24, will be held Wednesday night in the Sunday school room of Edenton Street Methodist church. Election of officers, and other important business demands the presence of every member. The superintendent of the Sunday school specially desires every teacher and every scholar of fifteen years and over to meet him on that occasion.
 One of the most noteworthy events in the very near future will be Mr Archie Boyd's production of "The Country Squire." Everybody will remember with what wonderful success he has been playing Joshua Whitcomb in the "Old Homestead" for the past four years, and the fact that the veteran manager Mr Harry J Clapham, will pilot the venture is sufficient guarantee that everything will be brought up to the highest standard.

Special Values.

The Rosenthal Clothing Company today announces special values in ready made garments for boys and youths. The prices are placed at the most extraordinary low rates and must attract public patronage. It should not be forgotten that "Dave" Rosenthal is up to the spirit of the times in all that pertains to the clothing trade. Call and see him.

Complimentary.

The following letter speaks for itself:

TRINITY COLLEGE,
 Durham, N. C., Jan. 8, 1894.
 A. DUGHI, Raleigh, N. C.:
 DEAR SIR—The cream came in first class order and gave perfect satisfaction. Yours truly,
 JOHN F. CROWELL.

Wake Superior Court.

Court convened this morning at 10 o'clock with his honor, Judge Hoke, presiding.

The following is the Grand Jury as drawn: W E Ashley (foreman), F B Gullley, S R Cunningham, W G L Allen, J S Oneal, W A Beck, H F Smith, W R Richardson, Quincey Adams, J A Adams, Joo W Reddish, S J Mitchener, W T Howe, D D Mussey, J J Edwards, J Q Shaw, Marion Greyfoy, J O Ross.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Partly cloudy weather.
 Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

On Tuesday: Slightly warmer; cloudy.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today.

Maximum temperature, 60; minimum temperature 3; rainfall 0.62

Synopsis: The weather is still cloudy over the Southern States, but the rain storm has disappeared and the pressure has risen considerably, while there has been a great fall in temperature.

The weather is cold throughout the north and northwest, and generally clear, under the influence of an extensive area of high pressure.

The pressure is comparatively low over Kansas and Texas, but there is no well defined storm center to be seen this morning.

"The Country Squire."

The Atlanta Constitution of Dec 26 says:

Last night a good sized audience attended the initial production of "The Country Squire" at the Grand Theatre. The play is on the order of "The Old Homestead," and is very cleverly interpreted.

The plot, though somewhat complicated, develops by degrees into a clear and comprehensive ending. The work can only lay claim as being a right good domestic comedy drama. The audience present last evening appeared agreeably entertained from the show and the people who gave it were substantially recognized.

Mr Archie Boyd, who was for some time identified with "The Old Homestead" Company, essayed the title role. He gave perfect satisfaction in the part and made a good impression upon those present. He fills the bill as the country squire completely and is a great success.

The support Mr Boyd has is, in the main, good. Mr Kroes, as Bob Gieroon, is a pleasing actor and did the character well. Mr Bell essayed several roles in a satisfactory manner. Mr Adair and Mr Hurley were only moderate as Jack Morrison and Andrew Tobias. The part of the sou-brette was attempted by Miss Stempler. Miss Conner and Miss John appeared to please the house. One of the very best features of the evening was the singing of the quartet, which comprises Messrs Byeroft, Chalfant, Cohen and Adams. The voices are sweetly blended and the singers were called back several times.

"The Country Squire" will please you if you like a domestic drama. Manicue and night performances.

Miss Jennie E Lyon, of this city, left this evening on the 4:30 train for Durham to attend the marriage of her brother, Mr W C Lyon, to Miss Mary Hinton, Wednesday evening, January 10th, at 8:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's mother on Liberty street.
