NO. 66

Wake Superior Court.

State vs India Horton; a d w; jury withdrawn; mistrial.

State vs E I Davis and Will Davis; highway robbery; guilty; Ed Davis 5 years on roads; Will Davis 7 years on roads.

State vs Edmund Lewis; r w l; guilty; judgment reserved.

A Tough Story.

It is related that two parties who had committed a heinous crime not very far from here were set after with two blood hounds. By some means the hounds became entangled in undergrowth when they were captured by the criminals and sold for three dollars a piece. The moral of this story is that "blood will tell," and in this case, that of the men was far superior.

Sold.

The sale of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, which has for some time been in contemplation, has been consummated. We believe the sale was made through Col Morehead to a foreign syndicate. The price agreed upon is $1,000,000 which, considering the importance of the work, would seem reasonable. It is undoubtedly one of the grandest schemes for the development of a great section of our state yet conceived.

Married.

BAKER-HORTON—This morning at 10:30 o'clock, Mr Everard Hall Baker was united in marriage to Miss Bertha Telfair Horton, daughter of the late Mr Samuel P Horton, of this city. The ceremony took place at Christ church and was performed by Rev Dr M M Marshall in presence of quite a crowd of friends of the contracting parties from whom they received the warmest congratulations. They have our best wishes for their happiness and success through life.

Directors Elected.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Raleigh cotton mills, held today, the following were elected directors for 1894:

Messrs Julius Lewis, Van B Moore, J R Chamberlain, C E Johnson, W G Upchurch, A A Thompson, W J Young and V O Royster.

After the stockholders adjourned the directors elected:

C G Latta, President.
Chas E Johnson, Vice President.
J S Wynne, Sec'y and Treasurer.
H B Reason, Supt.

A. & M. College.

The addition of a military feature to the Agricultural and Mechanical College is an important one and will, no doubt, much increase the popularity and efficiency of the institution. Lieut Henderson, the instructor, is now here and will commence work in a few days. The classes in the other departments have been so arranged that the students will have ample time for their course in the military line. There will be regular hours for drilling. The best systems of military tactics will be used.

The Confederate veterans who are to assist the ladies at the melange Friday night, will meet for rehearsal next Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. The place will be announced hereafter.

The alarm of fire at a late hour last night was caused from the bursting of a pipe at the gas house.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

See notice of sale of land by Alex Stronach, commissioner.

Mr Robt E Parham received a fine lot of mules and horses this morning.

The market is rather slimly supplied with country produce in consequence of the bad weather.

The jury in the poisoning case in the Superior Court being unable to agree, has been discharged.

A number of sheriffs settled with the treasurer juring yesterday, mostly from the western part of the state.

The officials agree that the sheriffs are coming in more freely than it was thought the tight times would justify.

The annual meeting of the Capital Club will take place next Thursday evening at which there will be an election of officers.

It is stated that of the $28,000 for refitting, &c, of Trinity church at Durham, Col J S Carr footed the bill for one half—$14,000.

Prayer meeting at Central Methodist church tonight conducted by the pastor. Go and hear how two neighbors settled a difficulty, a Bible incident.

The various candidates will soon be "setting their pegs in earnest" for the campaign of 1894. We hear already of combinations and counter combinations.

There is an unusually squally weather all throughout the country. We are having a smart touch in Raleigh, but light in comparison with sections north of us.

The stockholders of the National Bank of Raleigh and the Citizens Bank have elected all the present officers. They are most efficient and worthy in every respect.

It seems to be the policy of the "grippe" this season to get after our aged citizens. Several of them are sufferers with it. They seem to weather it very well, however.

Has the tobacco interests entirely run down in Raleigh? This was a question asked us of a leading citizen today. We thought it best to refer him to the chamber of commerce.

The rough weather of the past few days has increased the number of "sneezers," but all who sneeze cannot be put down as having the grippe. We have heard of folks sneezing when others take snuff. The number is not small, either.

A meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held tomorrow afternoon at Mrs L A Winston's apartments at the deaf and dumb institution. The ladies are requested to meet promptly at 3:30 p m, and an especially full attendance at this meeting is earnestly desired.

"The Country Squire" was rendered in fine style at the Academy of Music last night. The inclemency of the weather operated against a large audience, but all present were delighted. It is a good company and we hope it may appear here again under more favorable auspices.

Epworth League holds its annual meeting tonight at Edenton Street Methodist church. Election of officers and other important business will make it an interesting occasion—and it is hoped that every member will be present. The superintendent of Sunday school is anxious to meet all the teachers and larger scholars at this time for consultation about matters of importance to the school.

The Greatest.

The greatest special sale and the greatest bargain ever offered the people of Raleigh will be the special sale of towels at Swindell's next Wednesday, Jan 17th. All linen truck towels, colored border knotted fringe, size 23x50 inches, 26x46 inches, 21x43 inches. Any of the above will be sold on this day, for 25c a piece.

D T Swindell.

How It Is.

People are enquiring how it is that Dughli is selling Junaluska claret so cheap. The answer is plain. Dughli has bought out the entire stock and has about 8,000 gallons on hand. He proposes to wind up the business as soon as possible and is not disposed to keep on hand any wine that can be disposed of at reasonable prices. He has three or four different kinds of the wines. This is the full explanation.

Bananas 15c, 20c and 25c a dozen at Dughli's. Telephone 123.

In store and to arrive—25 crates of nice apples, cheap by crate or measure. Also buckwheat flour.

W H ROGERS.

Floor of the Town.

On Wednesday, Jan 16, we will give an entertainment in a special sale of towels. We will have three winners. The sale is so cheap, trashy towels, but a 25 cent sale. Goods are all linen, knotted fringe, size 23x50 26x46 and 21x43 inches.

If there are any of these left, the sale will continue two days. We know how slow people are generally to grasp things of this kind. You will hear of these towels the second day from your neighbor. She will tell you if you don't see them. This sale will be strictly cash, and the goods will not be delivered by wagon.

D. T. Swindell.

Our January Sale of House Furnishing Goods.

During the week beginning Monday Jan 8th we will offer from their respective departments, lines of housefurnishing goods at such prices, that will make this sale of the greatest interest to every housekeeper. Some of these goods will be shown upon special tables. Included in sale are table damasks, towels, white counterpane, and wool blankets. We cannot itemize prices here, but we urge every housekeeper to inspect these departments during the week.

Also bear in mind that we are going to quit keeping chamber suits, so we will make any one price upon chamber suits that will insure a sale.
