Rather Dull.

A visit to the departments at the capitol today developed nothing of real interest. The absence of the Governor in the eastern part of the state on a hunting recreation, left the executive office with but little business outside of mere routine.

Col Tate, the treasurer, being sick in Morganton, the duties of the office devolve mainly on his clerical force.

In the auditor's department the chief business just now is attention to the sheriffs as they come forward to have their accounts audited. Upon the whole there are dull times at the immediate seat of government.

Interesting Exercises

A first class oratorical contest has been arranged to take place at the agricultural and mechanical college commencing at 8 o'clock p m., January 19th, in the college chapel. It will be for a medal offered by the Leazer charter memorial association. The public is cordially invited to attend, and the exercises are expected to be of the most interesting character.

An Appointment.

Mr B S Shaw, one of the most skillful of the S A L engineers, who has been running into Raleigh for the past year and made many friends in this city, has been appointed master mechanic of the shops of the G, O & N R R, of Abbeyville, S C. The S A L officials have shown good judgment in this appointment.

Attention, Rescue Fire Company.

You are ordered to meet at Rescue hall tonight at 8 o'clock to attend a special meeting of interest to every member. Those having uniforms will wear them.

R E LUMSDEN, Foreman.

For Congress.

Ex-Collector Kope Elias is said to have a splendid chance for the nomination to Congress from the extreme western district. Many of the papers in that section are openly for him.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Clearing today, fair Friday.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

On Friday: Clearing weather, colder Friday night.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a m today.

Maximum temperature, 54; minimum temperature 42; rainfall 0.18

Synopsis: Two storm centers appear on the map this morning. One extensive low north of the lake region, and another slight storm central over North Carolina. Considerable rain has fallen in the country east of the Mississippi, the weather still remains generally cloudy and threatening.

The high area and clearing condition is central over Kansas and Nebraska and will probably drift eastward by Saturday.

The temperature has risen slightly, not being below zero anywhere this a m

Death of Mrs Sylvester Smith.

It is with the deepest regret that we announce the death of this most estimable lady, which took place at 8 o'clock this morning, at her residence on West street near the old North Carolina depot, in the 79th year of her age.

Mrs Smith was a native of Halifax county, but has for a long series of years been a resident of this city where she enjoyed the social ties of a large circle of acquaintances and friends.

The funeral services will take place from Denton Street Methodist church tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock.

Melange.

The Raleigh people are given another opportunity to enjoy and be instructed by scenes, now passed, but not forgotten. The Confederate entertainment at Metropolitan hall tomorrow night promises to be a grand success. It is to be hoped our business houses will all close early to give the employees an opportunity of attending. The ladies desire and do receive the hearty co operation of our community.

The New Connection.

The schedule by which a new connection between Raleigh and Charlotte is to be made will go into effect next Sunday. A train will leave Raleigh at 10:15 a m. leave Hamlet at 2:13 p m., arriving at Charlotte at 4:25 p m. The train will leave Charlotte at 11:45 a m., leave Hamlet at 2:35 p m., and arrive at Raleigh at 6 p m.

A New Road.

We understand that the much talked of railroad leading from Wyatt, N C, to the great rock beds at Rolesville, is being seriously contemplated by a New York syndicate, and that leaders of the enterprise are now touring the south and will return here within a few weeks to visit the locality of the rock beds personally.

In North Carolina.

Chas H Price, who escaped recently from the Michigan penitentiary, is supposed to be lurking in North Carolina. He is a clever forger having stolen $100,000 on one clip from the U S express office at St Louis. There is a heavy reward for him.

The gold reserve in the National Treasury has reached the lowest figure ever known.

Look, Look.

The Greatest.

The greatest special sale and the greatest bargain ever offered the people of Raleigh will be the special sale of towels at Swindell's next Wednesday, Jan 17th. All linen truck towels, colored border, knotted fringe, size 23x50 inches, 26x46 inches, 21x43 inches. Any of the above will be sold on this day, for 25c a piece.

Lost, Lost

A man, woman or child, who can and does not attend the special sale of towels at Swindell's next Wednesday, Jan 17th, will certainly lose a chance of a lifetime.

D T Swindell's.

How It Is.

People are enquiring how it is that Dughi is selling Junaluska claret so cheap. The answer is plain. Dughi has bought out the entire stock and has about 8,000 gallons on hand. He proposes to wind up the business as soon as possible and is not disposed to keep on hand any wine that can be disposed of at reasonable prices. He has three or four different kinds of the wines. This is the full explanation.

Flood the Town.

On Wednesday, Jan 16, we will give an entertainment in a special sale of towels. We will have three winners. The sale is no cheap, trashy towels, but a 25 cent sale. Goods are all linen, knotted fringe, size 23x50, 26x46 and 21x43 inches.

If there are any of these left, the sale will continue two days. We know how slow people are generally to grasp things of this kind. You will hear of these towels the second day from your neighbor. She will tell you if you don't see them. This sale will be strictly cash, and the goods will not be delivered by wagon.

D. T. Swindell.

Our January Sale of House Furnishing Goods.

During the week beginning Monday Jan 8th we will offer from their respective departments, lines of housefurnishing goods at such prices, that will make this sale of the greatest interest to every housekeeper. Some of these goods will be shown upon special tables. Included in sale are table damasks, towels, white counterpane, and wool blankets. We cannot itemize prices here, but we urge every housekeeper to inspect these departments during the week. Also bear in mind that we are going to quit keeping chamber suits, so we will make any one price upon chamber suits that will insure a sale.
