"Beau Brummell"

The appearance of Mr Richard Mansfield at the Academy of Music on Saturday evening next will be the great event of the local season. It has long been awaited with eager anticipation.

Mr Mansfield stands out most conspicuously among the intellectual actors of our time. In creative ability he easily stands first. His many-sided ability, his versatile talent, his artistic preception, his encouragement of the native dramatists, his skill as an original writer and thinker and his prodigality as a producer, have found quick recognition among the people who sustain the theatre.

Nothing could better illustrate the wonderful art of Mr Mansfield than "Beau Brummell," the play selected for his appearance here. Mr Mansfield has acquired great triumphs as the fastidious fop, who in time reflected more glory on his friends than the future king of England. The sunshine which Mr Mansfield brings on the stage, as the beau in the height of his grandeur even, permeates the character in the scene of delirium in the garret, when the brow of the once-leader of fashion glows under his tribulations, and on a more—but in fancy only—he lives over the life of old, as an entertainer of the high and mighty. A remarkable scene in this play is where the beau refuses the hand of the merchant prince's daughter, even when the balliffs are lying in wait for him.

It is great acting, that performance of "Beau Brummell" and has awakened nothing but praise and admiration throughout the entire country. Every theatre in which he appears is crowded to its utmost capacity. This condition will exist when he appears here. It may be said in passing that the staging and costuming of the play will be characterized by the most rigid attention to artistic detail. The performance will be precisely the same here as in New York or Boston.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Local showers. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

On Wednesday: Cloudy, with possibly occasional showers; colder.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today. Maximum temperature, 44; minimum temperature, 35; rainfall, 0. Synopsis: The storm over Southwestern Texas has advanced slightly eastward. The pressure has risen on the North and Middle Atlantic coast. Heavy fog prevailed this morning at many places.

The high area and cold wave in the northwest has increased in intensity and is spreading southward. A regular blizzard prevails over Nebraska, Dakota and Iowa where it is snowing with high northwest winds, and temperatures below zero.

Horrible Murder.

Last Sunday morning the keeper of Person county jail, Mr Royster went to feed the prisoners. In doing so he opened a door and handed brooms to two prisoners named Meadows and Roberts. Watching their opportunity they dashed upon Royster, threw him to the floor and choked him to death. They then made their escape but were recaptured. There is much excitement over the matter and it was with the greatest difficulty that lynching was prevented.

Repeated.

The entertainment at Metropolitan hall for the benefit of the King's Daughters will be repeated tonight. A Syrian funeral will be substituted for a marriage and the stereopticon views will be repeated. Let the hall be crowded. Admission 25c; children 15c.

Fire.

The alarm of fire about 7 o'clock this morning was caused by the burning of the roof of a kitchen on the premises at the extreme east end of Edenton street occupied by a colored family. The origin of the fire is unknown. The department responded with their usual promptness.

Epworth League, No 24.

The regular meeting of the Epworth League will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) night at Edenton Street Methodist church, immediately after prayer service. It is desired that every member be present.

The Bessimer Mining Company of which J S Carr is president, has expended $1,000 since last April in opening up veins of ore.

The governor's reception, which was to have taken place at the mansion this evening, has been postponed until next Tuesday evening.

A communication in this issue from Mr N R Broughton in reference to employment strikes us as of much force. We hope his suggestions may be carried out.

The entertainment last night at Metropolitan Hall in the interest of the King's Daughters, was well attended. All present were highly pleased. It will be repeated tonight.

The death of Dr F Burke Haywood has drawn forth the highest marks of praise from all the press in this state as well as some others. He seems to have been universally respected.

We learn that the outlook for a large increase of attendance at the spring and summer session at St M r y's school, is very promising. It is one of the best institutions of the kind in the country.

Several accessions have been made to the jail during the last few days. They are mainly for slight offences on the part of colored people who are sent to jail in default of bonds to await trial. We must think that the jurisdiction of magistrates should be extended. It would certainly save the county much expense.

"Blue Grass" is spoken of as "presenting in an interesting dramatic form a graphic story of life in the brown fields and blue grass regions of Kentucky. It possesses a number of dramatic surprises and in tone treatment, literary quality and development of character is thought here to be far superior to the average play of its class.

"Blue Grass" will invite criticism from Raleigh play goes at the Academy of Music Friday.

Correspondence of the Visitor

Every day I have applications made to me for employment and help. I am sure that our citizens generally have the same experience. We cannot turn them off without some relief, and yet simply to make a contribution of money is not the wisest or best thing to do.

Many of those needing assistance would gladly work if they were given it to do. If others who are able are not willing to work let them go without help.

Something must be done. There are scores and even hundreds of persons out of work, and suffering is upon many of them.

What shall we do? I suggest a meeting of citizens in the mayor's office to consider the matter.

If the money given to the poor every day in the city was put into the hands of a committee, and the persons applying for aid were put to work and paid for same we could accomplish much.

What kind of work do you ask?

Well, for the men and boys I would suggest work on the sidewalks and streets under the direction of the Street Commissioner.

For the girls and women I would suggest the making up of cheap clothing &c, for the poor, under direction of some circle of King's Daughters.

Shall we have the meeting of citizens? N B BROUGHTON.
