

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24, 1894.

NO. 77

SOMETHING MUST BE DONE

For the Unemployed and Suffering of this City.

Correspondence of the VISITOR.

Shall we organize for the purpose of giving the large number of people in our midst who are out of work and are willing to work, something to do, and pay them at least enough to live on, or shall we go on giving a little here and there and in the end give a large sum that might have been so distributed as to get great good to the improvement of our city?

There are hundreds of men and women in the city of Raleigh who are daily growing desperate as the demand for house rent and daily food stares them in the face with nothing to meet these demands with.

The weather is mild, but house rent and food are necessities, and there is no reason for waiting until it snows to aid the needy.

Three to five thousand dollars were contributed by our people to the poor last winter during the months of January and February. The same amount contributed now and used in giving work to those who will do it, would go a long way toward putting the many wretched sidewalkers in Raleigh in a good condition. It would also furnish employment to the women in making up clothing that many a shivering form is in need of.

Shall we have a meeting of our citizens? Will the Chamber of Commerce or the aldermen move in the matter? N B BROUGHTON.

The Weather.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

On Thursday: Rain, perhaps changing to snow; severe cold wave. Friday and Saturday very cold.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today.

Maximum temperature, 55; minimum temperature 41; rainfall 0.00.

Synopsis: The pressure is high along the Atlantic coast, but over a strip extending from Detroit and Buffalo to New Orleans and Mobile the pressure is low, there being a storm center over the lakes and another over the lower Mississippi. The temperature is high east of the Mississippi.

West of the Mississippi the pressure rises rapidly and the temperature falls from 60° at New Orleans to 30° below zero at Bismarck and Huron, 13 below at Ft. Smith.

There is a severe cold wave sweeping over the country, which will probably reach North Carolina by Thursday night.

Respect.

The meeting of the Confederate Veterans Association yesterday was well attended. It was called to order by Dr P E Rhine, president who paid a warm tribute to the memory of the late Dr E B Haywood. Appropriate resolutions were read by Mr F H Busbee. The resolutions were seconded by Capt Ashe who spoke in a feeling manner of the deceased Mr A. A. Montgomery. Dr Eugene Daniel and Col Thos S Keenan also spoke of Dr Haywood's character, &c.

Employment.

Again recurring to the proposition of Mr N B Broughton, as contained in a communication yesterday, we can state as our belief that the proposition meets the approbation of most of our people. That some means should be employed, if possible to aid those needing it to obtain work is apparent, but the only difficulty seems to be the most available means to reach the desired result.

Epworth League, No 24.

The regular meeting of the Epworth League will be held this (Wednesday) night at Edenton Street Methodist church, immediately after prayer service. It is desired that every member be present.

Speaking of "Blue Grass" the play to be produced at Academy Music Friday evening next the Philadelphia News recently said of it: "Blue Grass" a Kentucky romance, by Miron Keffingwell was presented for the first time last night at the Chesnut Street Theatre to a large and select audience. From the liberal amount of applause bestowed on it the piece evidently caught the public favor. The story presents a delightful picture of society and home life in the blue grass region of Kentucky.

Love episodes charming situations and interesting adventures mark the progress of the piece, which is replete with thrilling interest, and the cast has been selected with care and left nothing to be desired, and rendered excellent work in the portrayal of the characters. The scenery used rendered the staging pretty and effective.

A considerable quantity of tobacco was brought to market today.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Piled Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Cold wave expected.

Secure seats for "Blue Grass" at once. MacRae's.

Atlanta will give Gov Flower and party a handsome reception.

The Southern Cotton Spinners Association met today in Charlotte.

Gov Carr has accepted the invitation to deliver the address at the New Bern fair.

Durham has sent a delegation to Washington to protest against the tobacco tax.

Capt J E Gilmer, of Winston, has made an assignment with liabilities at nearly $5,000.

It is expected that Treasurer Tate will be well enough to resume his official duties next week.

Collector Simmons says he can successfully meet any charges that may be brought against him.

Rev Dr Dixon delivered his lecture on "Backbone" to a large audience at Weldon last Monday night.

Sheriffs of Martin and Rutherford counties settled their taxes with the state treasurer yesterday afternoon.

There is talk of a change in the running of the Atlanta and Washington special at an early day.

There will be a meeting of Rescue Circle tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the Mission rooms. Prompt attendance desired.

A case will be made up at the approaching term of the Supreme Court to test the matter of the terms of judges in this state.

It is hardly probable that Senator Vance will occupy his seat in the Senate for many months to come. His health is precarious.

Regular meeting of Murphy Lodge, No 3, A O U W, tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 7:30. Work in first and second degrees. Full attendance is expected.

J W CRAWFORD, JR.
Master Workman.

Ladies should not lose sight of the fact that Miss Maggie Reese carries one of the largest and most elegant stock of everything in the millinery line to be found in the city. Her prices will compare most favorably with those of any similar establishment in North Carolina. Call and see her.

We publish today the prospectus of the Morning Herald of Baltimore for 1894. The Herald is one of the most progressive papers in the south and enjoys a reputation second to none. It is peculiarly recommended to the people of North Carolina, as it always contains the latest news from our State. The subscription price is only $3 per annum.

"Blue Grass," a romantic drama picturing life, love, murder and lynch law in Kentucky, was played last night at the Academy of Music by a company of unusual ability. The drama was prettily staged and ran smoothly throughout. The story it told was simple yet full of human interest. It was heightened with quaint humor and some charming bits of sentiment. The leading characters were exceptionally strong.—Jersey City Evening Journal.

Personal Mention.

Mr Dossey Battle, of Tarboro, is in the city.

Adjutant General Cameron continues quite ill.

Mrs F A Olds is recovering from an attack of sickness.

Mr A Dugli left this morning for Wilmington to superintend in person the reception given by Mrs David Worth.

Mayor's Court.

A white woman who sails under the delectable title of "Bess Watkins," a white man named Spencer Rhodes and another of a similar kind were before the mayor this morning for disorderly conduct on the "Bowery." His honor subjected them to fines and costs which they paid and left perhaps better if not wiser folks.

Corbett and Mitchell have a good chance to go into the stock business on a large scale. Following the offer from Wyoming of $30,000 of sheep, if they would come out there and put up their mill, comes another offer from cattle men of Montana to give them 3,000 young cattle, valued at $30 a head, if they will come there and pumel each other. If they incline to the stock business here are two pretty good starters.—Wilmington Star.
