VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1894.

NO. 86

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Piled Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Marshal Carroll is safely ensconced in his new quarters.

President Winston, of the University, is in the city.

Mr. John Blue, of Aberdeen, is at the Park Hotel.

Justice A O Avery, of the Supreme court, has returned to the city.

Mrs T B Keogh and her daughter Mrs Gilmer have gone north.

Mr. Claude Stephenson, of Johnston county, spent last night in the city, visiting Mr. Henry Kelly.

There will be a reception at the residence of Mr. Herbert Jackson this evening from 4 to 6 o'clock.

A public reception will be held at the Governor's Mansion next Monday night from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. No dancing.

Conductor Sam'l Coley has been exonerated by a magistrate at Henderson from all blame in the matter of the late railroad disaster.

We called at Dugh's this morning and found him busily engaged preparing for a fine reception in the city this evening. It looks like he has his hands full all the time, but, it is natural because his fame as a caterer is unsurpassed in this State.

We call the attention of our readers to the "Junior Order United American Mechanics" in this issue. It will be conducted weekly (Saturday) by Raleigh Council, No 1, Junior Order United American Mechanics, and will be of interest not only to the members of the Order but to everyone who is in sympathy with the great work that is being accomplished by this and kindred orders. Read it.

Education.

Quite a large crowd attended the A and M college last night to hear an address on "Modern Education" by President George T Winston, of the University. It was an able effort.

Some of the Great Singers to be Heard Wednesday Night.

"The base singer Pierre Delasco divided honors with Musin. No finer singer has been heard here recently." (Charleston News and Courier.

"Perhaps the most musicianly singer in the company is Delasco, who is a new comer. He was singled out by the audience as the one deserving the most applause, and he got it. He gracefully responded in a song from Carmen, and the applause was still more emphatic." (New Orleans Times Democrat).

"Delasco's grand resonant voice charmed the audience, and he fairly divided the honors with Musin. After his first number the applause was so positive that he was forced to respond, and he sang a Mexican song in the most rollicking and brilliant manner. A finer artist than Delasco was never heard in Atlanta." (Atlanta Journal).

"Delasco, the basso, is an exceptionally fine singer. His voice is rich and sweet and thoroughly cultivated." (Atlanta Constitution)

Town Friends and Patrons.
We have completed our annual inventory and thanks to the good people of this community, we have had a most prosperous year, and with all the hard times our sales were much larger than in the year of 1893. We attribute our success to selling goods strictly at one price to all, buying all our goods direct from the largest dealers in this country and selling goods at a small margin for cash. We are receiving new goods daily, yesterday we received a line of 24 yards wide Bleached and Unbleached sheeting, no better made, which we offer at 22 1/2 and 25 cents per yard.
