RALEIGH, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1894.

NO. 87

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Beautiful, bracing weather.

Lent commences next Wednesday.

Cotton receipts continue rather slim.

Judge J Gray Bynum is at the Yarboro.

Col J M Heck still remains about the same.

The County Commissioners are in session today.

The grippe epidemic is subsiding considerably.

The new moon, it is hoped, will give us some pretty weather.

The new Cleveland half dollars are getting in circulation hereabouts.

The fountain in Moore square is bespangled with ice and looks beautiful.

The address of welcome at Southern Pines was made by Hon W J Green.

The chronic hard winter predictors are much set back at this beautiful weather.

It is now expected that Collector Simmons will be confirmed this week. So the knowing ones think.

We are glad to state that there is marked improvement in the condition of Mrs John B Neathery.

Monday morning levee at the market's office did not amount to much. No cases of interest.

Among the list of applicants to practice law, there was only one from Wake county, Mr L B Capehart.

Strangers should not fail to call on Messrs Thomas & Maxwell and look at their immense stocks. It is a sight worth seeing.

New opera chairs and other improvements are to be added to Metropolitan Hall, and then it will be offered for lease.

Gov Carr and members of the staff went up to Southern Pines last Saturday where they enjoyed the sports and a fine barbecue.

Col J S Carr as a representative of the staff of the Governor of North Carolina, accompanied the Burgesses Corps to New Orleans.

Mr Frank B Dancy left last Saturday for Norfolk to assume the duties of secretary and treasurer of the Old Dominion Guano Company.

The friends of the Y M C Association are making strenuous exertions in its aid. We hope our citizens will come to the rescue in all manner possible.

Mr J N Hubbard is preparing to open a general grocery business at Denton's corner on Wilmington street. The public will hear from him in a few days through the Visitor.

The active demand for reserved seats indicate that there will be a very large and fashionable audience at the Natali operatic performance next Wednesday night. Notwithstanding the usual strength of the attraction, there will be no advance in prices.

The Rosenthal Clothing Company make a last call to the public and our friend "Dave" announces pants at "one third off." This is a stupendous reduction, but in view of the fact that he proposes to take an inventory of the stock next Monday he is in "dead earnest." No better opportunity has ever been offered in their line in this city. Don't fail to call at once. The time is short.

Messrs "Sam" and "Dave" Berwaner have surveyed the mercantile field this week and they have determined to make a sweeping reduction in pants. These are simply stupendous and shows that this firm are determined to let their friends and the public have the benefit. They never fail to cater to the people in the way of small profits. Visitors to the city should especially take a look at the inducements they offer. They are unsurpassed in North Carolina.

A Nice Entertainment.

The "green tea" entertainment given by Mrs Herbert Worth Jackson, last Saturday afternoon, was one of the most enjoyable occasions this season. The dining room was beautifully decorated and sweet music added immensely to the occasion.

The menu of the occasion was served by our "princes of caterers," Mr A Dugli, and it was done in his usual splendid style, eliciting the highest praise from all who participated.

A Happy Allusion.

It was a happy allusion made at the banquet last Saturday by Gen Joseph B Carr, ex-secretary of the state of New York, when he alluded to our great philanthropist, Col Julian S Carr, as the possible future occupant of the executive chair in North Carolina. This allusion touches the hearts of thousands of North Carolinians who would greet its consummation with delight. Many stranger things have happened, but none that would be received with greater delight "Vive Carr" may yet be the cry of many in our good old state.
