

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1894.

NO. 91

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Mr. Ed. M. Ennis is sick.

Capt. Caleb Osborne, of Oxford is in the city.

Maj John B Neathery continues to improve slowly.

What manner of weather is this for February anyhow?

The Yarboro House has now gained a national reputation.

Mr. E. B. Barbee has returned to the city from New York.

We deeply regret to note the continued illness of Mr. W. D. Haywood.

The Trustees of the University were in session at the Executive office this morning.

The Railroad Commission is disposing of many cases but mainly of a minor character.

It is announced that the wages of R & D employees, recently reduced, will soon be restored.

Dr. Chas. D. Melver, of the State Normal and Industrial School at Greensboro, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mr J J Wishart, formerly of Greensboro, has opened a tonsorial establishment in the basement of the new Park Hotel. His advertisement will appear in a few days.

Three excellent mineral springs have been found in the eastern outskirts of Greensboro. The water has been analyzed and the analysis makes a good showing for the springs.

The passenger traffic on the R & D at this time is somewhat remarkable. Almost every day the two crack trains, the fast mail and the vestibule, carry from nine and ten cars filled with passengers.

Freight No 43, southbound, on the Richmond & Danville Railroad, had a slight wreck at Hotsburg about 9 o'clock last night. Three cars were derailed. The accident occurred while the train was being backed out of the switch. Nobody was hurt.

Don't forget to call on Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell and see their beautiful polished suits, they are offering. No such sacrifices were ever before seen in Raleigh. Look at them. You will be politely received and shown around both establishments. Their line of goods is unsurpassed.

The directors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad have ordered a general cut on salaries from $35 per month up to $250. Those receiving $300 per month will be cut 20 per cent; those receiving $150 to $200 are cut 15 per cent; those getting $35 and upwards are cut 10 per cent.—This goes into effect on the 15th of this month.

At the Blount Street Baptist church last night, Rev A B Vincent gave a stereopticon exhibition of world's fair views and lecture for the benefit of state and home missions, to a small but appreciative audience. The views are as fine as any I ever saw and gives an excellent idea of the wonders of the world's fair. The entertainment deserved a larger audience.

T C HARRIS.

Deputy Sheriff A H Boyd, of Watauga, brought to the penitentiary today Finley Bell, a convict who made a daring escape last October while being brought here by Sheriff Baird, of that county. Another convict who made his escape at the same time is yet at large. Both men jumped from a train while it was speeding along near Durham.

The students of Shaw University, colored, have not only erected the spacious brick buildings, but have made all the furniture used, as well as in the interior wood work. Just 17 of the students of the University are making 3,000 oak chairs for use there. It is not known when Dr Meserve, the new president, will arrive, though is expected to arrive daily.

Reception and Address.

Mr James H Southgate arrived in the city on the 10:55 train this morning, and, as heretofore mentioned, will deliver an address tonight at 7 o'clock in the Sunday school room of Edenton Street Methodist church.

Mr Southgate is said to be a very graceful speaker, and our people are to be congratulated upon this opportunity to hear him. Seats free—and the public cordially invited.

After the address there will be an informal reception.

The wagon factory here is now running on full time and is turning out three wagons a day.
