VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1894.

NO. 93

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Piled Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Scarlet fever is prevailing to some extent at Cary.

The advertisement of the Raleigh Stationary Co. will be read with a great deal of interest.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs John Nichols & Co. to be found in this issue.

The annual meeting of the Trustees of the University of North Carolina will be held in the Executive Office on Friday, the 23rd.

Miss Emma Williams is confined to her room with sickness at the residence of her father, corner Lane and Dawson streets.

Raleigh Council, Royal Arcanum will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. Work on hand. Prompt attendance desired.

A special term of Cumberland county Superior Court will commence April 6th at which Judge Henry R Bryan will preside.

Regular meeting of W G Hill Lodge No 218, F & A Masons, tonight at 7:45 o'clock. All Masons in good standing are invited to attend.

Look out for Capt Kendrick's lecture on "wife hunting" before the Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday night. It should attract a large crowd.

The Messrs Berwangers have come to the bottom in the way of prices. New styles and rich styles are the order of the day and they are within reach of all.

Mr F W Faucett and wife, (nee) Miss Marie Branan, of Macon, Ga., are in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. E E Faucett, corner Lane and Harrington streets.

Rev R T Bryant, missionary to China, preached a very interesting and instructive sermon at the Baptist Tabernacle last night to quite a large congregation.

The iron furnace at Greensboro will start up before long. There will be a charcoal iron furnace near Egypt and it may be that the latter will furnish material for the car wheels made here.

Collector Simmons has replied in consensive terms to the letter of Senator Vance and now there is anticipated a "shaking of hands across the bloody chasm." At least this is the earnest hope.

Corbett is to continue acting in his new play, is to play ball for a Philadelphia team, is to train for his fight with a colored man and is to take his mother on a pleasure trip to Ireland. This will keep James quite busy during the summer.

Saturday afternoon there was a runaway accident. A pair of dray horses dashed into a wagon loaded with wood, wrecked the wagon and probably fatally injured a little white boy who was sitting on the load of wood. The boy's skull is said to be fractured.

Mention is made in a San Francisco paper of a single grapevine, seven years old, on the grounds of a private house in the city limits, which covers a space full seventy five feet square and from which four tons of grapes have been gathered in one season.

Easter Sunday this year will be the 25th of March, as it was in 1833, and only three times or Sundays in the 19th century have been at an earlier date: March 23, in 1818, and March 26d in 1845 and 856. The latest date of any Easter Sunday in this century was April 25th 1886.

Our citizens will be delighted to know that Judge Edwin G Reade rested quite comfortably during yesterday and last night, and this morning. There was a marked improvement in his condition which has continued during the day. It is sincerely hoped that he may survive his illness.

A meeting of the bar will take place at the court house at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of setting a calendar for the civil term of the Superior Court which commences on Monday, Feb. 26.

The greatest sale of all is announced today by the Rosenthal Clothing Co. Men's, youths and boys clothing for this week are put down at half price and Mr. Rosenthal says he has the nerve to carry it out. Remember this and call to see him.

Messrs. Royster, Park & Co., is the title of a new firm which succeeds Messrs. Ellington, Royster & Co. in the building business. These gentlemen are well known in this community as highly competent in all respects to carry on the business in all its different phases and are now prepared to fill any order in their line or take contracts to build any kind of houses. All interested should give them a call.

Messrs. Hubbard & Chappell have opened a new grocery on Wilmington street, near the corner of market square, where they will keep at all times a first class selection of groceries of all kinds. They invite the attention of their friends and the public and pledge to give them the cheapest goods at the lowest possible rates. We are authorized to say that the new arrangement will not interfere with the "grocery on wheels."
