RALEIGH, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1894.

NO. 99

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Very little cotton came in today. This is a regular weather breeder. Judge Reade continues to improve. The terms of thirty United States Senators expire March 5, 1895. Merchants are taking inventories of stock for the spring trade. Market well supplied with meats and vegetables today. Farming operations have commenced in earnest. The weather still continues spring-like. Health of the city is getting much better. A number of our citizens will attend the New Bern fair. A few more days like this and the buds will put out. Yesterday was rather a threatening day, but the churches had large congregations nevertheless. Appeals from the third district will be called in the Supreme Court tomorrow.

Parties desiring to buy a nice cow should read in this issue the advertisement of fine Jersey cattle for sale. The Gospel services yesterday afternoon were well attended and promotive of much good. Theodore B Lyman Jr., is suing for a divorce from his wife in the Superior Court of Buncombe.

Messrs S & D Berwanger have for sale a most beautiful horse shoe counter which they offer cheap. The grass in Moore Square is coming out beautiful. Now let the fountain be put in first class repair. The drug stores of the city will hereafter be kept open all day on Sundays. The revenue officials are still making it hot for violators of the law. Seizures are being made almost daily.

The building corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets recently purchased by the Raleigh Savings Bank being nicely and conveniently fitted up. The great actress, Mrs John Drew is booked for the Academy of Music March 2d. The lovers of legitimate comedy can anticipate a rich treat. Messrs F P Lewis and E D Davidson, who have been in the city for several days looking after street railway matters, returned North last Saturday.

The Pullen Literary Society of the A & M College has selected Mr O W Gold to represent the society in the Inter Collegiate debate at Morehead next Summer during the Teachers' Assembly. Attention is called to the advertisement of the Raleigh Stationery Company. Here can be found in profusion everything in their line that can be called for and at the cheapest rates. Call and inspect the stock. Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr Orrin W Belvin, who has opened at the Prairie building a most complete variety of second hand furniture, crockery, cooking utensils &c. Every description of second hand goods bought and sold. Mr Belvin is one of our best known business men and perfectly reliable. Give him a call.

Messrs S & D Berwanger announce "a famine" in this issue. It only means however, that for a short while longer the one fourth cut on suits, overcoats and trousers will have a run. Better call and see them. The inimitable "Dave," of the Rosenthal Clothing Company, announces the half price sale continued one week longer. This is an inducement rarely met with in our city, and the public take advantage of it. Remember the place, 8th Fayetteville street, opposite the postoffice.

Masonic

Extension.
After a full consideration of the subject, the committee appointed by the Board of Aldermen to consider matters connected with the electric street railway have agreed to grant an extension of the franchise of the road until the sale ordered by the court, with the distinct understanding that if the old company takes no steps to operate the road, the franchise will be forfeited.
