VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1894.

NO. 100

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Raleigh is well represented at the New Bern fair.

Fresh herrings getting abundant in market.

The trustees of the University will meet in this city next Friday.

Mr and Mrs Leazer have returned to the city from a short visit to Durham.

Appeals from the 4th district will be called in the Supreme Court next Tuesday.

The highest natural bridge is at Rookbridge, Va, 300 feet from the water to the bottom of the arch.

There are now 193 students at the A and M College. It will be perhaps a month before they are uniformed.

Two convicts from Craven county were brought to the penitentiary yesterday afternoon.

We are pleased to learn that Mr A F Page who has been quite sick at his home in Aberdeen, is much improved.

The irregular, worn off stepping stones at street crossings should be removed. They are unsightly and often dangerous at night.

Mr J R Nipper, a well known citizen of Barton's Creek Township, Wake county, died last Friday of cancer. He was 53 years old.

If "Ike Donkey" will send his real name, his communication will appear. We cannot depart from our usual rule in this respect.

There will be a regular convocation of Raleigh Chapter, No 10, R A M, this evening at 8 o'clock. Visiting companions invited to be present.

W. E. FAISON, Sec'y.

The State Board of Pharmacy is announced to meet in this city April 11th, to 13th. Candidates for examination should correspond with Wm Simpson, Secretary, Raleigh N C.

We notice that those beautiful lines of carpeting have arrived at Thomas & Maxwell's. They are elegant.

We have received a copy of a most beautiful and elegantly gotten up magazine entitled "Our Own Country, its rivers, lakes, waterfalls, geyers, glaciers, mountains, canyons and landscapes." It contains some splendid engraving and is published weekly at 25 cents a number by the National Art Company, St. Louis, Mo

Personal Encounter

This afternoon about 2 o'clock as Mr F L Merritt, of the North Carolinian, was on his way to dinner, and when at the crossing of Fayetteville and Davis streets he was hailed by Mr Greek O Andrews, of the News Observer Chronicle, who approached and said in substance to Merritt, "I understand you said in your paper that you thrashed me." To this Mr Merritt made some reply, when Mr Andrews struck him in the face. The parties then clinched in a regular fight during which Mr Andrews drew a whip which was wrested from him. Before much damage resulted the parties were parted by Mr Pennington. No blood was drawn.

We give the above merely as we heard it, without comment other than to state that the friends of both gentlemen deeply regret the occurrence.

A legal investigation will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock before Justice Roberts.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Increasing cloudiness, followed by rain or snow; decidedly colder tonight.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a m today.

On Wednesday: Decidedly colder by Wednesday night.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

Maximum temperature, 70; minimum temperature, 48; rainfall 0.0.

Messrs C A Sherwood & Co, are driving things in the matter of business. They announce today unprecedented attraction to purchasers and plainly show the proper road to wealth. There is no house in this city in their line that offers better inducements. "Claude" is a veritable hustler and knows just how to suit the public in quality and price. Read their "ad" and give them a call. You can surely be suited.

Some of the convicts in the penitentiary are cutting stone for curbing of the sidewalks at the executive mansion.

Interesting Subject.

The address of Prof W L Poteat, of Wake Forest College announced for to night at the Baptist Tabernacle, will be full of interest and should attract a large audience. The subject is "The Thirty Silent Years," or Christ's private life from the human stand point.

A Late Breakfast

Is often caused by a late milkman. No cream for the coffee or oatmeal has delayed many a morning meal. Keep a supply of Borden's Peerless Brand Evaporated Cream in the house and avoid such annoyances.

Now, Why?

Every day since we have been receiving this Durham Supply stock we see the same people coming each day. We know hundreds of people in Raleigh that we have not seen in at all. Now why is this? Is it because you have no money? or is it because you don't believe the truth of the sale? or you don't understand? Must be one of these things. We know you have good sense, and sensible people don't let things of this kind pass unnoticed. This stock is here and it means money for you. Respectfully, &c
