

The Daily Evening Visitor

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1894.

NO. 101

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Judge E G Reade is still improving. We are glad to learn that Maj Jno B Neathery is much improved.

House breaking is getting common about Durham.

Tomorrow is Washington's birth day.

There are now 23 prisoners in our county jail.

The Insane Asylum grounds are being graded and grass sown.

It is reported that Senator Vance has an attack of the gripp.

Auditor Furman has gone to the New Berne fair.

Adjutant General Cameron is out again after a spell of sickness.

Miss Hannah Rosenbaum, of New York, is visiting Mrs M Rosenthal.

Mrs W H Pace has returned to reside at her residence on Blount street.

Col J S Carr is attending the New Berne Fair, with the exhibits from Oconeechee farm.

The sales of the product of the Raleigh Phosphate Mills are much larger this season than last.

A considerable crowd passed through the city today on their way to the New Berne Fair.

The cheerful countenance of Hon. Swift Galloway, ex-Solicitor of this district, was seen on our streets yesterday.

Misses Bessie Germany and Lillian Schweigert, of Columbia, S. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Fawcett, 214 North Harrington street.

Mr. Wolcott Lay, special examiner of the Treasury Department, is in the city making an examination of the Revenue Collector's office.

Some fine Jersey cattle advertised for sale in this issue. This is a good opportunity for parties desiring to purchase a fine cow.

The governor is absent at the New Berne Fair, and there is nothing of interest going on at the Executive Department.

The attendance at the University is gradually increasing. There are fifty nine law and eighteen medical students. Some of them are from Japan.

We are in receipt of "Our Little Ones and the Nursery" for February, a most interesting Magazine published by the Russell Publishing Co., 196 Summer St. Boston.

Our latest arrivals show a large number of visitors to the city. Many of these are from the northern and western states, and are on tours of business, pleasure or investigation.

Now is the time for some enterprising person to start a canning factory to be ready by the time the gardens bring forth their luxuries. A fine opportunity to make money at a small outlay.

Murphy Lodge, No. 8, A. O. U. W. will hold an important meeting tomorrow (Thursday) evening at lodge room. Academy of Music. Members will take notice and govern themselves accordingly. Visiting brethren invited. L W SMITH, Recorder.

The party of northern medical gentlemen and editors are expected to arrive here this evening at 6 o'clock. A portion of the reception committee left at 10.15 o'clock this morning to meet and escort them to the city. The party will be conducted to the Yarrow house and at 8 o'clock will be given dinner.

Religious Notice.

The regular lecture and prayer service of the Presbyterian church usually held on Wednesday evening will be deferred tonight and held to-morrow night to unite with the whole church in observing tomorrow as a day of special prayer for the youth of the land, and specially for young men in schools and colleges as recommended by the General Assembly of the church.

Interesting Lecture.

The lecture delivered last night at the Baptist Tabernacle by Prof W L Poteat, of Wake Forest College, on "The Thirty Silent Years of Christ's Life" was a most interesting one, and listened to with marked attention by a large and appreciative audience. He portrayed the home life and daily occupation of our Savior in a most graphic manner, entering into details. In fact, taken altogether, the address was full of the most valuable information.

A Sure Cure.

Japanese Pile Cure handled by Mr John Y MacRae is pronounced by those who have tried it, to be the best and speediest cure for this distressing complaint now known. This is attested by the number of certificates given by our citizens and those of other places. It would be well for sufferers to call on Mr MacRae and secure the remedy. It will prove satisfactory beyond doubt.

Get this out and carry to J G Ball & Co's and get a sample package of their snuff.

If you want to save money attend our opening sale Monday, Feb. 26 Woolcott & Sons.

UNPRECEDENTED!

ATTENTION, PURCHASERS!

If Economy is Wealth, Then Our Store is a Broad Road to Riches.

Our Cost Price Sale has been a boon to our people. A few Winter Dress Goods and Woolen Underwear left, which we will continue to sell at cost. Our purpose is to close everything in the season in which it was bought.

Watch Us! We're Coming!

Our prices are lower to-day, taking stock through and through, than any concern in Raleigh dares to offer.

We get the inside track—buy for cash. Our facilities are the very best, our expenses lightest and we can afford it. Low prices is what you want. We make them.

$5.00 for $3.99.

Burt & Packard's "Korreck Shape" Shoes for gentlemen have a National reputation as the best $5.00 shoes made on the continent. The prime cost for these fine shoes at the factory are $3.75, $4.00 and $4.25. For this week you can have your choice of our entire stock at $3.99 a pair, cash.

We duplicate prices of all Special Sales on the day they are held. Nobody shall sell cheaper than we. This is wrong talk, but it stands like a stone wall. Well it's just the kind of talk we indulge in when standing before a fearless judge called TRUTH—when being cross-examined by a shrewd and searching attorney called JUSTICE—and tried by a jury called THE PEOPLE.
