RALEIGH, MO., FEBRUARY 26, 1894.

NO. 10

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Piled Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Look out for the new postmaster. Bishop Cheshire has gone to Tabor.

Walking was a little ticklish this morning.

Not a very large attendance on court today.

The weather today has been almost a complete blockade to cotton receipts.

The grippe is fast disappearing in our midst, but colds are still very prevalent.

This weather is rather a set back to county road and sidewalk improvements.

The train from the west was considerably behind this morning owing to the blizzard.

February looks like it is going out as a lion. Perhaps March will behave itself better.

The "beautiful snow" only looked so to those who were well prepared in the way of fuel.

The temperature of yesterday and today has broken the record of a very mild winter.

A son of Senator Vance in Washington denies the report that his father's health is worse.

Read the advertisement of Mr. A. W. Fraps who offers some valuable personal property for sale.

The reward of $500 for the capture of Orange Page and his paramour has been ordered by the Governor.

Several sleighs were on the streets this morning and their merry bells sounded cheerfully through the crisp air.

Several northern drummers are hovering around with spring samples, the cold snap to the contrary notwithstanding.

Our city is unusually quiet these days and it is seldom that Maj. Heartt and his efficient force have anything of extra importance.

Regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. & A. M., tonight at 7:45 o'clock sharp. All Masons in good standing invited to attend.

Litchford Encampment No. 38 will meet tonight for work in the Golden Rule degree. All patriots in the city are cordially invited to represent.

Mr. R. G. Carroll, who has been for several years steward of the Capital Club has resigned to take effect from March 1st. He has made a most efficient officer.

From now on let everybody boom the State fair. Col. Carr and Secretary Ayer will do their whole duty. Let the people all over the State help them out.

The news stand at the Yarboro is now in charge of Mr. C. D. Heartt, Jr., a very accommodating young man, who will take pleasure in serving the public.

Passengers who came down on the train this morning report a very heavy fall of snow in Greenboro and west of that place. In Salisbury the fall was about a foot and a half.

Wake Superior Court convened today with Judge Hoke presiding. It is for the trial of civil cases only. The morning was mostly taken up with looking over the docket, which is not very large.

The series of lectures now being delivered at the Church of the Good Shepherd by Rev. I. McK. Pittinger, on the "Great Religions of the World" is attracting much attention. They are able and instructive.

If the delinquent tax payers would avoid the additional penalty, and having their property advertised and sold for taxes they had better call on W. B. Hutchings, city collector, and settle same before the 1st of March, 1894.

Getting Along

Work on the foundation for the new car wheel shops has been about completed, and the buildings will no doubt soon be under way. With this new enterprise and a first class system of electric cars such as we are promised, the year 1894 may be one of great improvements to our city.

A Splendid Offer.

If you want any chairs, bedsteads, bureaus, washstands, tables, mattresses, pictures, clocks, stoves, trunks or anything in that line, be sure to call and get them at cost at Thomas & Maxwell's, Nos. 9 and 12 Martin St. They must be sold in the next thirty days at cost.

A Blizzard.

Last Saturday night about eleven o'clock a regular blizzard set in from the northeast, accompanied with a fall of snow which continued almost continuously during yesterday. All who were not called out, hugged the fireside. It was indeed a "blue Sunday," but still many attended the different churches.

New Firm

The special attention of the public is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Royster, Park & Co. These gentlemen are prepared to carry on the building business in all its variety and are well equipped in every particular. Their shops are on West street at the place of business of the old firm. Telephone 135.

Died

At the residence of Mr. L. O. Bagwell on South Blount street this morning at 4 o'clock, Mrs. M. A. Watson, quietly and peacefully fell asleep after having patiently suffered for several months. Thus the links in the chain that once connected a large family are rapidly being separated, until to day only three daughters survive her. A most estimable lady has gone, leaving behind her a life full of the deeds of kindness indiscriminately bestowed upon those who sought her assistance. One of the sweetest pleasures of her life, was to know the wants of another and supply them. The joy of her life, a bright and dutiful son, was taken from her some fourteen months ago—soon after the husband—and now the mother—and still we submit that while the afflictions upon this family have been many by the frequent visitations of death, no error has been made by Him who doeth all things well. A loving and devoted mother has paid the debt—a kind and ready friend has disappeared, but she shall still live in our memories. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Christ church.

Friends and acquaintances of the family invited to attend.

We hear that many contracts are in contemplation for new buildings during the spring and summer. Raleigh is gradually, but surely spreading out.

Mr. David Whitaker, of Durham, is in the city.
