RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1894.

NO. 107

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The great wind month is at hand. The snow is now about a "back number."

After this spell the ground will be in excellent condition.

See notice of F F Ellis, administrator of J N Ellis, deceased.

The Supreme Court is daily filing opinions in important cases.

Turner's N C Almanac struck the snow on the 25th to a "gnats heel."

The Wake Forest Student for February is a most interesting magazine.

The fruit trees had not put out sufficiently to be injured by the cold snap.

Miss Maggie Brown returned to the city yesterday after a pleasant visit in Cary.

We are glad to learn that the health of Mr Beneah Cameron has much improved.

Reports of the weather are daily sent from Southern Pines to the New York press.

The roads will continue pretty rough and still a considerable drawback to truck men.

Mr O B Edwards, Sr, who has been confined to his room for several days is some better today.

The case of Turner vs Hoden continued to occupy the attention of the Superior Court today.

State Treasurer Tate is now expected to arrive here during the latter part of this week.

It is expected that Hannibal Williams, the well known Shakesperian lecturer, will be here next week.

The Durham Sun has completed its sixth year. It is a lively sheet with growing prospects. Long life to it.

The trains for the past few days have been running on nearly schedule time notwithstanding the snow.

An epidemic has appeared among cats in Windsor, N C. Over three hundred have died within the past few days.

S L Alderman, of Greensboro, has been appointed grand senior warden of the Grand Lodge of Knights Templar. The next annual meeting will be held at Charlotte in May next.

It is under consideration whether the political conventions the present year shall be called in June or wait until congress adjourns. It is contended that the members desire to come home to "repair their fences."

Regular meeting Raleigh Council, Jr O U A M, No 1, tonight at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Business of much importance to be considered, and work in the degree. Every member earnestly requested to attend.

MR HAYNES, R S.

Easter comes very early this year, as it falls on March 25th, but it will be nearly a hundred years before it falls again on this date, the next being 1951, 2037, 204, 9 7, 210, 21 4, 2125 and 2190. The earliest date upon which Easter can come is March 23d, and the last Easters on this date were in the years 1698, 1716 and 18 8; but so early an Easter will not come again until 1970.

A Good Time

This is a fortunate time to rescue from its slumber the report of the committee proposing an extension of Morgan street. The city is now somewhat in funds and the season is propitious. Nothing is needed but a determination of the board to carry out what we understand has already been ordered. Can't the matter be resurrected at the meeting next Friday night. The sooner the better.

A tablet was unveiled at Baltimore on the spot where the Continental Congress met in that city.

An Appeal.

A petition is being gotten up by the citizens of the "West End" asking the Board of Commissioners to improve the road running from the Hillsboro road to Pullen Park. It would seem to be almost a necessity.

Accepted.

Rev Dr W S Black, superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, who was appointed to succeed the late Rev S D Adams as Presiding Elder of the Warrenton District of the North Carolina Conference, has accepted. It is understood that he will tender his resignation as superintendent of the asylum.

To Pave the Way.

The Richmond & Danville Railroad Company are out in a circular letter offering special terms and extra liberal inducements to bona fide prospectors to pave the way to immigration. They are going into the enterprise with a vigor which ensures success. So says the Richmond Dispatch.

Funeral

The funeral of the late Mr Alexander Creech took place yesterday afternoon at Edenton Street church. There was a large concourse of persons present including many of our business men. The services were conducted by Revs Dr J N Cole and Rev Dr J W Carter. The following gentlemen acted as honorary pall bearers: Judge T O Fuller, R S Pullen, Richard Battle, J A Higgs, O J Carroll and W B Hutchings. The interment took place in the City Cemetery.

Interesting Lecture.

A very interesting lecture was delivered to the ladies of Raleigh yesterday afternoon at the Academy of Music by Mrs L B Cleveland. A large and appreciative audience was present. They can now amuse themselves for two hours at the Roller Skating rink and stand a chance of getting the ladies' gold watch, or a pair of ball bearing skates. Remember, it only costs you 10c in the afternoon or 15c at night for the use of skates, and a chance to draw the watch or skates.

The watch case can be seen at T W Blake's, the jeweler, and it is to be given away.
