Mr T R Jernigan leaves for Shanghai on the 20th instant.

Mr Josephus Daniels, who has been here some days, leaves for Washington tonight.

Collector Simmons, who for several days has been at Newbern, returned here this afternoon.

Rev L B Turnbull, of Richmond, Va. accepts a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Durham.

Rev Frederick Towers, rector of the Chapel of the Cross at Chapel Hill, is Judge Shepherd's guest at the Yarboro.

Rev Dr G D Parkes, for forty years a minister of the Presbyterian church died at his home, Charlotte, last Saturday.

Messrs C Mebane and O W Tate of reensboro and A L Crutchfield of Winston are registered at the Park hotel.

Mr S G Farris, of Greensboro, Mr G F Uzzie, of Wilson's Mills, Mr and A T Uzzie, of Baltimore, are registered at the Yarboro.

A daughter of Capt J M Fleming is very sick with typhoid fever at his home, corner South Harrington and West Hargett streets.

John A Barringer, Esq. of Greensboro, is here to attend the supreme court, which tomorrow takes up appeals from the fifth district.

Chief Justice Shepherd, who has been at Chapel Hill a few days, returned today. Mrs Shepherd will remain at Chapel Hill for awhile.

Mr R E L Bunch of the general offices of the R & D railway at Washington, arrived here yesterday and left this afternoon for Columbia, S C.

Evangelist Weston R Gale has finished two notable revivals at Nashville, Tenn. These continued seven weeks and there were no less than 630 conversions.

State Treasurer Tate, after several months' sickness, which at one time was critical, has returned and is at the State treasury. He had many callers yesterday.

Miss Ida Watson, lately employed in the agricultural department, left for Chapel Hill this afternoon, to become stenographer to Prof J A Holmes, State geologist.

Marshal O J Carroll left for Goldsboro and Kinston this morning, to return Friday. While away he will sublet the Seven Springs hotel property, on which he has a five years lease.

Mr S A Henzey, owner of the coal mines at Egypt, was here today on his way home from Philadelphia. He is preparing for active work at the mines, where a great deal of machinery has been put in.

Mrs A J DeRosset died at Wilmington Sunday, aged 61. She was a daughter of the late Rev Dr William M Kennedy, of Columbia, S C. Her husband is one of Wilmington's oldest and most honored citizens.

The robins, always eagerly welcomed by the boys who own guns, have appeared in great numbers. The bird shooting season expires March 15.

Whiting Bros are receiving their spring goods of hats, shoes, &c, and are selling them at very low rates. Call and get a good suit cheap.

Quite a lot of cotton is held here for a rise. One owner has 1,300 bales in warehouse, which he has been holding for three years.

Stone is being hauled to the Rescue engine house to be used in paving a roadway to Fayetteville street.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The grippe is nearly at an end here. Deaths in the city during February 27; births 26.

Workmen are repairing the gas main on East Cabarrus street.

Brookside park is a lonesome place now. The lake is dry, the dam having broken last fall.

Daily reports of the weather at Southern Pines are now telegraphed the New York Herald.

Marshal R H Bradley has planted twenty-two varieties of roses in front of the supreme court building.

Seas for the Fannie Hill performance tomorrow evening at Metropolitan hall are on sale at MacRae's.

The Wilmington Messenger states that the shops of the Carolina Central railway at Laurinburg are to be moved here at once.

Parties desiring to purchase a nice Jersey cow or calf should attend the auction sale of Jersey cattle at Stronach's auction house tomorrow at 12 o'clock.

The cotton receipts in this market for the week ending last Thursday were 23,651 bales, against 18,949 to the same date last year; the week's receipts being 193, against 187.

The city authorities ought to have had Nash square ploughed and sown in grass last fall. As it is neither plowing or sowing has been done and the place is by no means attractive or park-like.

Rev I McK Pittinger, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, has during the Lenten season delivered each Sunday evening a lecture on the religions of the world. Yesterday his discourse was on the religion of Zoroaster, and like the other was very able.

Mr Herbert Brimley, the taxidermist, who has done an excellent piece of work in articulating the skeleton of the big whale in the new room at the State museum, is hoisting the skeleton in sections to the beams. It will be suspended some twelve feet above the floor.

Mr J Nusbaum, a chemist employed by the Seaboard Air Line to analyze the water at all of its water tanks, was here Sunday and today. He has a special car, and stops at each place long enough to make a test of the fitness of the water for use in locomotive boilers.

In the superior court J W Arent sued the Raleigh & Gaston railway for damages for injuries alleged to have been inflicted at the Union passenger station October 17, 1893, by a baggage truck. The case was tried once before. It was tried again last Saturday and a jury gave Mr Arent $350 damages.

During February the mean temperature here was 45 degrees; one degree below the average. The highest was 71, the lowest 18 degrees. The prevailing wind was from the South, and the highest velocity 30 miles an hour (on the 4th). The rainfall was 3.83 inches, the snowfall 5 inches. The average rainfall for February is 4.21 inches.

The case against the State Chronicle was heard in the Superior Court today. Mr Josephus Daniels, who held the mortgage, sold the property at auction. The parties who were due money for paper, &c., furnished the Chronicle publishing company claim they are "material men" and that their claims have precedence of Mr Daniels' mortgage. The case came to a quite sudden ending this afternoon. After the dinner recess Judge Hoke resumed his seat on the bench. The parties to the suits and their counsel did not appear, so the judge after waiting sometime withdrew a juror and made a mistrial, and the case goes over until next term.

HOW RALEIGH GROWS.

Notes About Improvements and Enterprises.

A Lynchburg, Va., firm is building large planing mills at Apex and has taken options on extensive tracts of long leaf pine timber near there. The firm is under contract to deliver 100,000 feet of dressed lumber weekly.

A building which is almost a century old is being torn down on South Salisbury street, near the southwest corner of the capitol square. In its place Mrs W A Lodge will build an attractive cottage.

The new quarters of the Savings bank will be quite attractive. The location is excellent. The contractors are now building the vault for the safe. The entrance will be at the corner and the steel supporting columns has been put in place.

Mr M O Winston has purchased the Lawrence property on Halifax street, and is remodeling and greatly enlarging the dwelling. Mr John W. Horton is building a neat cottage on North Salisbury street near the cotton yard.

The grading for the car wheel shops is nearly completed. A great deal has been done. About sixty men are employed. When completed the wheel shops will employ forty-eight men. All of these save two will be home workmen. Two will be experts from Wilmington, Delaware.

Hamull & Honeycutt have the contract for the brick work of the Pullen building on Fayetteville street. Today they laid off the foundation and tomorrow the brickwork begins. The building will be a handsome one and will contain four stores, fourteen offices and four lodge rooms.

Allen & Cram have been awarded the contract for putting the steam heating plant in the agricultural building. They have also been given by Mr J C Brewster the sub-contract for putting the heating apparatus, three boilers and water tanks in the deaf mute school at Morganton.

Mr William Smethurst, the superintendent of the cotton oil mills here, says the season will end with March and that about 8,000 tons of seed has been crushed since October 1. That is a large business. Seed have been abundant; in fact the supply has exceeded the demand. The price of seed has ruled lower than it did last season.

The Raleigh cotton mills are now running on three fourths time.

New Advertisements.

C. A. Sherwood & Co. make a special announcement of spring gingham and large lines of wash fabrics, which calls to mind the fact that spring is at hand.

The Rosenthal Clothing Company daily receiving new goods, and in the spring styles. A big reduction in the prices of winter trousers is announced.

S & D Berwanger say that spring is coming and pushing winter; that they have the specialties in hats, scarfs, light weight overcoats, &c.

Some fine Jersey cows and calves belonging to the estate of Dr E Burke Haywood will be sold at auction at Stronach's auction house tomorrow at 12 o'clock.

A few days ago a white man and woman were arrested here and jailed for living together unlawfully. They decided to marry and a justice tied the knot. The husband was then taxed with the costs. The wife was released and she is trying to collect funds to pay the costs and get her husband out of jail.

There are at present twenty-three prisoners in Wake county jail. All of these except one will stand trial at the next criminal court, which begins March 26.

SPRING GINGHAMS.

Large Lines of Washable Fabrics

Laces,
White Goods,
Embroideries.

The principle of buying in small quantities established the foundation of a successful career for A T Stewart and made him the merchant prince of his time; his example is worth of emulation; it is our policy to adhere to this principle. The advantages of rapid communication and swift freight transit enables us to place on our counters every week in the year clean, new, fresh goods for every branch of our business.

The advance lines of Spring Gingham and Washable Fabrics are being received, while our cost price sale is rapidly distributing for us nearly everything of a winter character.

White Goods, Laces and Embroideries now receiving the attention of the trading public. The popular prices which prevail with us, and successful selling, confirm the old adage "That goods well bought are half sold." Our method of replenishing goods averts carrying over goods from season to season, such goods to us seem well handled, always sell and give entire satisfaction. Before you buy give us a call. We have 'em right from the looms.
