In Memoriam.

In the death of my esteemed and much loved friend, Mrs Mary Watson, I come as one who loved and admired her many noble traits of character, and ask that I may be permitted to place this tribute to her memory. I have known her personally for several years and she has proved a kind neighbor and true friend, always ready and willing to perform any act of kindness that would bring peace and comfort to an aching heart. Hers was not only cheerful words of kindness, but acts. A more charitable lad it has never been my pleasure to know. Those in need never appealed to her in vain. Her good deeds will ever live in the hearts and memory of those who knew her best. She bore her long affliction with great patience and fortitude. Three devoted daughters are left to mourn her loss. This sorely bereaved family have been called upon to give up father, mother and brother within the past fourteen months. How thick and fast the strokes have fallen; but 'tis comforting to think that the strokes fall from the hand of Him who doeth all things well. To the grief stricken ones whose hearts are torn with anguish, let this sweet thought console you. After long years of self sacrifice and patient suffer your dear mother is now safe in the arms of Jesus. D. L.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Today's local cotton receipts were only 25 bales.

Stanly county sent a convict to the penitentiary today.

A fire alarm box, No 331, has been put in near the wagon factory.

There are now 193 students at the agricultural and mechanical college.

The next state convention of the Y. M. C. A. will convene in Wilmington, April 5 to 9.

The condition of the crops of small grain in Wake is very satisfactory to the farmers.

Early this morning very threatening clouds rolled up and there were signs of a storm.

The supreme court decides in the case of the state against Daniel, from Wake, that there is error.

A large audience will hear Mr Hannibal A Williams' Shakspearian recital tomorrow evening.

The early bird catches the worm and the early fisherman caught the fish yesterday. Messrs B F Womble, H H Crocker, J T Hamlet and J G Ball went to Penny's pond and had very good luck.

Collector Simmons has reports of the seizure of James McQueen's illicit distillery in Richmond county. He appoints G T Rareh storekeeper and gauger at Roxboro; George Brown gauger at Wilmington.

A large audience of men and boys saw the Fanny Hill performance at Metropolitan hall last evening. Some of the specialties were quite clever. "Spider" Moseley was well received. His neck-discoating act, a very serious performance, closed his "turn."

Ice was sold at low prices here last year. A dealer said today that the prices are not yet fixed for the coming season, but may be a little higher than last summer. He says ice was then sold at a sacrifice. It is alleged that not a large crop of natural ice has been harvested north this winter.

This afternoon while Mr Bennett B Buffalo was driving a heavy load of cotton on South Blount street, near Moore square, his wagon broke down. Mr Buffalo was thrown off and a bale of cotton fell on him, inflicting what may prove to be a serious injury. He was taken to a house near by and promptly looked after.

The fire alarm was sent in from box 27 at 9:30 last evening. The fire was in the fourth floor of Taylor & Moore's plug tobacco factory, corner East Cabarrus and South Blount streets. Some tobacco sticks burning filled the place with smoke. Chief Engelhard sent in the call for all the department. The fire was soon whipped out. The damage is trifling. The building is not burned in the least. The only damage is to tobacco on the lower floors by water.

Capital News.

The State auditor says that no tax on building and loan associations, other than that provided for in the revenue act, can be levied. Individual shareholders will give in for taxation, as other stocks and bonds, shares at their real value per share at time of listing.

New Advertisements.

Those in need of fine tablets or monuments would do well to call on Mr. E. T. Marks, corner South Salisbury and West Martin streets.

The advertisement of the Raleigh branch of the well known Knoxville building and loan association appears today, and deserves careful attention. Mr Charles C McDonald is secretary-treasurer of this branch. The company's profits to Dec 31 last, for 5 years, were $385,686 87. It has on deposit notes and bonds to the amount of $3,458,600, besides $50,000 deposited with the state treasurer of Tennessee. The showing made, is very fine.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

Items Picked Up at Wake's Temple of Justice.

Will Wiggins, colored, of House's Creek township, was jailed yesterday.

Judge Avery now has a law class, which meets in the court room. The class has five members.

J P Stett is appointed constable for Wake Forest township, the man formerly appointed having failed to qualify.

Mr George Atkinson, the new county surveyor, has given his bond and taken the oath. He succeeds Mr Joseph Blake.

In the superior court this morning George Holder was granted an absolute divorce. He married a woman named May, of Raleigh, fifteen months ago.

One deed was recorded today. It is for land on Oakwood avenue, from C H Beckwith and wife, of Georgia, to Kenny & Drewry, the consideration being $1,400.

In the superior court yesterday afternoon the case of J N Holding, trustee, vs. George T Norris & Bro. was heard, the verdict being in favor of the plaintiff.

In court today a divorce was granted W H Jenkins, colored, in his suit against Eliza Jenkins. This afternoon the case of Jim Whitaker against Zion A M E church was argued.

The sheriff is now preparing the insolvent and delinquent tax list. He is required to advertise and make sales of lands. Persons who do not desire to figure in this list will have to make settlements at once. The new law is very strict as to its requirements regarding tax collections.

Mr Hal W Ayer appeared before the county commissioners and asked them to make an appropriation for an exhibit by Wake at the next state fair, which president Julian S Carr and secretary Ayer propose to make the best fair ever held in North Carolina. The commissioners have referred this matter to the magistrates at the June meeting.

During a trial yesterday a woman who was a witness caused a good deal of laughter. While a lawyer on the other side was speaking she watched him intently and frequently whistled, that being a mode of expressing her doubt of his statements. Finally she jumped up and saying "I can stand this no longer," left the court room, closing the door with a bang, while all the people in court laughed.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair; slightly colder Thursday morning; probably warmer in western portion this afternoon.
