PERSONAL MENTION

Of People Who Came and Went Today.

Mr. Thomas G. Boddie, a prominent resident of Nash county, is dead.

D. H. McDuffie, of Cumberland county, is appointed as storekeeper and gauger by collector Simmons.

Rev. L. B. Turnbull, recently called to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Durham, will take charge tomorrow.

Rev. Jesse Howell, a well known Baptist preacher, is said to be dangerously sick at his home in this county, near the Durham county line.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashby L. Baker have made Raleigh their home. They will occupy in a few weeks the Carter Harrison place, near Peace institute.

State geologist Holmes and Mr. T. R. Foust, of the University, are now at the narrows of the Yadkin river, making a careful examination of the water power.

Mrs. Oliver Dockery died Thursday night at her home at Mangum, Richmond county and a few hours later Mr. W. S. Dockery, her step-son, died. Mrs. Dockery was 58 years of age. Mr. Dockery was forty years of age.

Mr. B. L. Perry of Morehead City is here. Today he completed arrangements for taking charge of the Atlantic hotel there during the coming season. His management last season was both successful and agreeable.

Vice President Stevenson and Mrs. Stevenson are at Asheville, at the Battery Park hotel. They are expected to remain there a week in order that Mr. Stevenson may obtain needed rest. They reached Asheville yesterday afternoon.

Mr. B. B. Buffalo, whose injury was reported last Wednesday was today taken to his home in St. Mary's township. Dr. Buffalo, his son says that he will recover, though 70 years of age, but that the injury will cause permanent stiffness.

C.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The cotton market declined today. Strawberries will be shipped from Wrightsville before the end of this month.

Mr. S. Mogi, the Japanese student at the university, was here today, and spent most of the time at the museum.

At the church of the Good Shepherd Rev. Dr. Pittinger will lecture at 8 p. m. tomorrow on "Mohammedanism."

A cannery for fruits and vegetables ought to be put in operation here. Why one has not been at work for years is as a puzzle.

This afternoon near the Johnson street station a negro man was struck on the head with a monkey wrench and knocked down.

It is said that next week an Alliance exchange will be opened in Raleigh where farmers may market their produce and receive cash therefor.

A plan is on foot, among the Methodists to secure during the next two years from the two North Carolina conferences an endowment of $100,000 for Trinity college.

A delightful musicale will be given at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Carter on Tuesday, March 13th, at 8 o'clock p. m. under the auspices of the church improvement society. Refreshments will be served.

The strength of the Governor's Guard is now 54. A rifle range, for reduced charges, is to be constructed in the armory. This is the system in use by the finest military organizations in the country, for making expert marksmen.

Governor Carr has paid $90 to police officer F. M. Barrow, of Norfolk, who recently captured a murderer named Crawley and took him to Beaufort county where he was wanted. The sum of $5.40 was paid an agent who went to South Carolina to get Jim Clinton, another criminal.

Raleigh Council No. 551, Royal Arcanum, meets Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at Phalanx hall, K. of P. Every member should attend the meeting as there will be an address by a prominent member of the order which will be both instructive and entertaining.

In the superior court today there was argument on a motion by Mr. Josiah Turner in the Turner-Holden suit, for a new trial. The motion was denied. Mr. Turner appealed and filed his appeal bond. Mrs. Holden's counsel made a motion to set aside the judgment secured in 1888 by Turner. This motion was also denied. Mrs. Holden also appeals. No cases were argued in court today. Several judgments were signed. The term ends this evening.

In the old house on South Salisbury street near the arsenal, which has just been torn down, some curious articles were found. One was an arithmetic dated 1802, another an Irish halfpenny of 1787, and another a letter from John Campbell to Donald Campbell, dated here in 1838. Mr. Campbell was then cutting stone for use in the capitol. He speaks of Raleigh as a place of 1,700 people and says it had had more but a great deal it had been burned.

Just after 6 o'clock last evening there was a sudden and very heavy downpour of rain. Nearly a fifth of an inch of water fell in a few minutes. There was also considerable hail, but the cloud was small and the area in which the hail fell was very limited. There was a lively electric storm north of here, which continued some time. At 9:40 a big ball of electricity ran along a wire and fell on the sidewalk near the Postal telegraph office, while at the same instant the lightning flashed all over the switchboard in the office.

HOW RALEIGH GROWS.

Notes About Improvements and Enterprises.

Messrs. Kenny & Drewry have given contracts for the building of two neat cottages on Oakwood avenue on property they purchased this week.

Mr. Frank Stronach will build a repository for vehicles, on South Wilmington street. The building will be of brick, 53 feet front and 123 feet deep.

Over fifty new buildings are in course of construction or contracted for in this city. The suburbs are being quite rapidly developed. There is a decided improvement in the character of buildings.

The Methodists of Raleigh have for twelve months been doing mission work at the Pilot mills in the northern part of the city, and have had regular preaching and a Sunday school each Sunday. Last evening the Methodist layman met at the Sunday school room of Edenton street church, and decided to build a chapel on the north end of Halifax street, on a lot purchased about six months ago for the use of the mission. This is a good work and it is hoped that proper encouragement will be received from the people generally. The name of the new church is Epworth chapel.

New Advertisements.

On the 17th of this month, "St. Patrick's Day," the Lyon racket store will give each customer a shamrock.

V. Royster, receiver, will sell March 23, horses, &c, belonging to the late firm of Ellington, Royster & Co.

Confederate Monument Association.

There will be held a very important meeting of the North Carolina monumental association at the state library Thursday afternoon, March 15th, at 4 o'clock, at which time the granite for the monument will be chosen and the day appointed for laying the corner stone. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

Y. M. C. A.

Tomorrow afternoon, from 4 to 5 o'clock, gospel service will be held in the Y. M. C. A. All men are cordially invited to attend these services. Song service 30; solo quartet, and chorus, accompanied by several instruments. Mr. John T. Pullen will address the meeting. Come and bring your friend.

The attendance yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. parlors and reading room was the largest in any one day this year.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair weather. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

On Sunday: Fair weather, slightly warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 72; minimum temperature, 48; rainfall, 0.20.

Synopsis: The storm in the extreme northwest has moved south-eastward and is now central over Nebraska, with pressure of 29.50 inches. No rain has yet fallen in connection with this storm, and the weather in the central valley is clear and warm, with southwest, south and southeast winds.

No temperatures below the freezing point are reported anywhere.

The high area yesterday central over New England has increased slightly, and in connection with a slight barometric depression off the North Carolina coast, is causing cloudy weather with north to northeast winds over the north and middle Atlantic states.

A number of improvements are to be made at the Confederate cemetery. The grass and the walks will receive special attention.

Overcoats, for ten days quite useless, reappeared today.
