

THE DAILY TRIBUNE.
THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 1897.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for Raleigh and vicinity—Threatening weather, with showers, to-night. Clearing Thursday; westerly winds; colder. Frost Thursday night. Forecast for North Carolina.—Local showers, followed by fair Thursday; colder. For Washington, Thursday, fair, colder.

Weather conditions.—The barometer is still low from Texas northeastward to the St. Lawrence valley, with a distinct storm center north of Buffalo. Light rains have occurred at many points east of the Rocky Mountain slope, and a very heavy rainfall of 3.02 inches is reported at Jupiter, Fla. The weather continues cloudy and threatening, except in the northwest, where another high area, with colder, clear weather, prevails. The temperature is comparatively high in the south and east, but is still below freezing west and north of St. Louis, with lowest, 2 below zero, at Huron.

C. F. VON HERRMANN,
Section Director.

Mrs. Cunningham has been dangerously ill for the past two weeks, but thanks to the able care of her husband and lady friends, she is on the road to recovery. The many friends of this estimable lady are pleased to note her improvement.

Commissioners Adjourned.

The Board of County Commissioners met yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock. All were present.

The petition to declare "New road" from Pigeon House branch to New Hope Church a public road was granted, and the clerk was ordered to notify the Board of Supervisors of St. Matthews township to proceed to apportion lands, and work the said road.

The Board decided that no bridge is needed over Smith's creek in Wake Forest township. The old Board had ordered a bridge, but the man who was to furnish the lumber has not yet delivered it, and the Board notified him yesterday not to do so.

The Board then considered the salary of the attorney of the Board, Mr. J. C. L. Harris. Commissioner Barbee moved that the county attorney be paid four hundred dollars per annum. The vote was taken by ballot, and resulted affirmative 1, negative 2.

Commissioner Chamblee moved to make it five hundred per annum. The vote was by ballot. Affirmative 2, negative 1.

Drink I. W. Harper's Whiskey, only 10 cents per drink or $1.00 per quart, at Denton's (Sole Agent).

Local News.

Special meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge No. 218, A. F. and A. M., tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Work in Third degree.

Miss Annie Patterson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Meares, on West Jones street.

The Governor of South Carolina has issued a requisition on the Governor of North Carolina for Gurdy Turner, wanted for horse stealing.

Mr. M. Bowes of this city has received a letter from Dr. Eugene Grissom. Dr. Grissom has fully recovered now, and has accepted a position as assistant physician in the Insane Asylum of Colorado.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd last evening Rev. Dr. Pittinger delivered a very interesting lecture on "Scenes in the Holy Land." The lecture was illustrated by stereopticon views, and is the first of a series, which will be given on the Wednesday evenings during Lent.

Tom Burch, who is in jail charged with burglarizing Turner & Wynne's store, continued very ill yesterday. It is thought that he will recover, but his condition is critical. The ball taken from his head is a number 32, while Mr. Birdson's pistol, it is now claimed, is a 22, and Mr. Turner's a 38. If this is substantiated, it looks like a strong point in Burch's favor.

Mr. John D. Carter, from near Durham, met with a painful and serious accident yesterday. He was riding horse-back near Pogue's tobacco factory, when his horse ran away, throwing him to the ground. Mr. Carter's collarbone and two ribs were broken, and he was very painfully bruised. He has received medical attention, and it is hoped he will mend rapidly.

It was reported on the streets a man originated in this accident.

Many questions were asked yesterday on the street concerning the bill which has passed the Senate to regulate the sale of pistols. This act provides that any dealer in cartridges and pistols must procure a license from the county commissioners. He must also keep a record of every pistol sold, and also the name of the party by whom it was purchased. At the end of the year this record must be handed in, and one dollar paid to the county for every pistol sold. The merchants of this city say that it will add a dollar to the price of every pistol, and they will then be ordered from firms out of the State. Mr. Hart, of the Julius Lewis Hardware Company, says the proper way to remedy the evil is to tax every pistol one dollar per year. This would decrease the sales, but it would not take the trade and money from the State.

Civil Court.

Most of the cases on yesterday's calendar in the Civil Court were continued. However, one case of a sensational nature was begun, but it had to be postponed after the examination of one witness, because Judge Whitaker will have to leave the city this morning, and the case could not have been finished by then.

The case referred to is that of Abson Hester against Thomas Robertson, for the seduction of Julia L. Hester. All these parties live near Wakefield. About fifty witnesses were here to testify yesterday.

Messrs. Jones, Boykin & Ryan represented the plaintiff, and Argo, Snow and Whitaker the defendant. Only one witness was examined before the case was postponed until the April term. This witness was Julia Hester. She is a very good looking little woman, with black hair and soft brown eyes. She is apparently about twenty-five years old. Several times she broke down in her testimony. She told the same old story of a false lover. She loved Tom Robertson, and yielded to him five times. In October, 1894, her child was born. It lived nearly a year. No account will be given of her testimony, since the other side has not been heard.

Robertson is a boy about twenty-two or three years old. He has a very different story from the girl's. He admits a more frequent intimacy with her than she acknowledges, but intends to prove that he was not the only guilty man.

This is the end of the case until April 19th.

Floy Crowell.

Miss Floy Crowell and her Company presented East Dwyer at the Metropolitan Opera House last evening. The play was not up to the performances on the two previous nights. The people of Raleigh are tired of this play anyway. It was presented here only a short time since by the Alice Byno Company, and their rendition was superior in some respects to that of the company last night.

East Lynne is a very difficult play to present so successfully. It requires the deepest emotion and pathos. There was too much sameness between the specialties last night and the night before.

Give us some more performances like the one Monday evening. However, it must be admitted that the company received liberal applause from some of the audience.

Death of Dr. Whitaker.

Dr. Nat. Whitaker died at Littleton yesterday morning. A telegram was received yesterday by Judge Spier Whitaker announcing his death.

Dr. Whitaker was seventy-five years old. He was born in Halifax county. Dr. Whitaker was the brother of Mr. Spier Whitaker. He was the eldest of eight brothers, Judge Spier Whitaker of this city, being the youngest. Dr. Whitaker studied medicine in Philadelphia and also in Edinburgh, Scotland.

While Judge Whitaker knew that his brother was in feeble health, yet the end came entirely unexpected. He will leave this morning for Littleton to attend the funeral.

The Election Law.

A compromise measure for the election law bill now pending in the Legislature is being considered.

Under the compromise the offices of Commissioners of Elections are abandoned. The chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, the register of deeds and the clerk of the court, in each county, constitute a board of elections, which is to appoint the poll-holders, &c. However, an appeal can be taken from any appointment of theirs to the State Supreme Court. This is to guarantee the proper representation of each political party at the polls.

METHODS AND REWARDS

As to the former, we would remark that they are ours and ours only. We buy and sell after our plans and specifications. Imitation is only a form of flattery, and we never flatter. Again, we never bid against ourselves. We make the prices and it always goes. We don't put down here and put up there, but everything is on a fashion of horizontal reduction. As to our reward, verily we are having it. The people are wise enough to know their friends, and the amount of trade tells a truthful tale.

LINENS.

General Assembly, Attention!

The handsome groups of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, which were prepared by C. P. Wharton, the photographer, are now on exhibition at his studio on Fayetteville street. They are splendidly gotten up and are about the best groups ever made of a General Assembly.

Mr. Wharton extends a cordial invitation to every member of the Senate and House of Representatives to visit his studio and see these groups. Every member of both Houses should have one of the groups framed as a remembrance of one of the most interesting sessions of the North Carolina Legislature. Call on Mr. Wharton and you will see that he is selling the groups very cheap. You need one. Get it.

First Spring Concert.

St. Luke Circle will give a Grand Recital, consisting of instrumental and vocal music, poses, pantomimes and elocution, at Metropolitan Hall, Tuesday, March 9th. Denton's Restaurant and Saloon is opposite the Postoffice, 311 and 313 Fayetteville street. Make no mistake.

Supreme Court.

The arguments in the Supreme Court on yesterday were in the following cases:

Bobbitt vs. Blackwell and Stanton, by Field for plaintiff; and Gulley and Shaw for defendant.

Garrett vs. Pegram; argued by King for plaintiff, and Morehead for defendant. (Judge Douglass, being related to one of the parties, did not sit in this case).

Causey vs. Snow, by Barringer for plaintiff, and Morehead and King for defendant.

Stanly vs. Railroad, by Green, Graham, Boone & Bryant for plaintiff; MacRae & Day, Winston & Fuller, Batchelor for defendant.
