THERE is a certain Rough Rider of Jesus Christ in the Western North Carolina Conference, who, although bowed with the weight of years, spent his last Sunday, before Conference, thus: Preached twice, rode twenty-four miles horseback over mountain roads, returned home at nightfall, and after his humble meal went out to hear a sermon from the station preacher. This day completed his forty-ninth year in the itinerant ranks.

> HOLMES .- On Sunday Rev. K. D. Holmes preached earnestly and forcibly at Herman, from these words: "Thou shalt not muzzle pointedly and plainly of the duty of God's people to Him and His church. He was earnestly and patiently listened to, and it took no pleading and but few words of closing remarks to gain the quick response of seven dollars from the church as their free-will offering to the District Parsonage. Immediately after that a collection was the result. Mr. Holmes has served this circuit acceptably for two years, and leaves soon for Conference, carrying with him the good wishes of all.
