Glenn request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Audrey to Mr. Lattis Merrimon Johnson on Wednesday evening, September twentieth, at nine-thirty o'clock, at Central Methodist Church Raleigh, North Carolina, nineteen hundred and five."

TIMELY TOWN TOPICS

On account of Labor Day there is only one edition of The Times this afternoon. All patrons are served with the 3 o'clock edition. To-day at the court house the store building occupied by Walter Woolcott was sold at auction, the purchaser being Mr. Job P. Wyatt at a bid of $12,300. The lot is 31x120 feet. The young people's meeting of the First Baptist church meets to-night at 8 o'clock instead of 8:15. The usual monthly collection will be taken. All are invited and a special invitation is given to strangers. Mr. Goodwin, the blacksmith who has been occupying the shop on the site of the proposed Elks Temple on South Salisbury street, is moving to-day to make way for the erection of the temple. The old buildings now on the lot will be torn down at once and the work of excavation will begin. It is understood that the lot facing Fayetteville street and running through to Wilmington, on which is the building occupied by W. C. Stronach Sons grocery store, has been purchased from the Towles estate by Grimes and Sheppard, the purchase price being $16,000. Judge Badger had a small docket this morning. Amy Walker, a negro woman, was charged with being drunk on the street. In this case judgment was suspended. Sam Raynor, a negro man, was made to stay in the lockup twelve hours for the same offense, it appearing that he was on his way home when arrested.

Board of Education.

The Wake County Board of Education was in session to-day to receive bids and sign contracts for the erection of ten new school houses. Up until three o'clock none of the bids had been definitely decided upon.

His many friends here will be glad to welcome him back. Alex Andrews, Esq., has returned from Narragansett Pier, where he went to attend the National Bar Association. Mr. Andrews was at Portsmouth when peace was declared. He sat at the table adjoining the one occupied by the peace envoys.

BASE BALL PLAYERS INJURED.

Seven of the Louisville, Ky., Team Badly Hurt in Smash-Up of Street Car—Pitcher Kenna, Who at One Time Was On A. and M. Team, Injured.

In an account of a street car accident in which the Louisville base ball team was thrown from their wagon and seven seriously injured, the Louisville Courier Journal says that a Mr. Kenna was the worst injured. Kenna was at one time on the A. and M. College team and is remembered by some of the base ballists in the city. As to Kenna's injuries, the Courier Journal said: "Kenna's injuries were of a more serious nature than those received by the others. His left eye was almost gouged out, his nose was split and fractured, his forearm dislocated and his left knee injured. He was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital. Drasher was thrown against the front of the car and was knocked to the right of it a distance of twenty-five feet. He suffered a contusion of his thigh and bruised about his left knee. Others received their injuries by being thrown to the pavement.

New Dry Goods Firm.

Messrs. Jas. H. Anderson and Edgar J. Thiem have opened a dry goods store at 18 and 20 East Martin street next door to the Commercial and Farmers Bank. The style of the new firm is Anderson & Thiem. The doors of the new store were thrown open for business Saturday, and the polite corps of clerks were kept busy all day. The store building, which was formerly occupied by Dunn Brothers, has been remodeled and renovated from top to bottom, and one of the finest lines of seasonable dry goods and notions in the city has been put in.
