

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

It is not the life history of a working woman...

Were you stream when I was willow?

But at last I stand beside you, and the fate which long denied you...

And since age on age has perished, but to bring the soul I cherish...

Yet, if Fate reserves its malice, but to break the lifted chalice...

Miss Cecelia Joyner, of Franklinton, was here to-day.

The St. Luke's Circle will meet tomorrow afternoon at St. Luke's Home.

Miss Gypsy Ware left this morning for New York to visit friends and relatives.

Misses Latta Watson and Marcelite Pool left this morning for Oxford, where they will enter Oxford Seminary.

Miss Orma Cheek, of Ore Hill, and Miss Myrtle Webster, of Lynhurst, arrived in the city to-day to enter the Baptist University...

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. P. C. Olive, of Apex, was in the city to-day.

Mr. Bob Leach went to Oxford this morning on business.

Mr. Charles T. Hinnant, who has been with the Southern Railway freight department, has accepted a position with J. B. Green & Co.

Mr. Leon H. Weathers will leave in a few days for Meridian, Miss., where he has accepted a position with a cotton firm as stenographer and accountant.

We can all unite to make the visit of the children from Oxford to our town pleasant and helpful to them and to us, and of great benefit to the cause they represent.

TIMELY TOWN TOPICS

Mr. E. T. Hall, Jr., is confined at home to-day on account of a badly sprained ankle.

All the trains are crowded now with students returning to the different colleges and schools.

Several young men of the city are arranging to give a subscription dance to-morrow night at the Masonic Literary Hall.

The many friends of Mr. William Wyatt will regret to learn that he is ill at his home on North Dawson street.

Mr. A. F. Updegraff, who has been here for Charles E. Johnson, has accepted a position with Stokes & Co. for the season.

Graham Harris, a young negro boy, had his leg cut off at the knee yesterday at Thompson's saw mill, about three miles from the city.

Mr. Solomon Harft has received a telegram stating that Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derwanger have arrived safely in New-York from Europe and that they would reach Raleigh in about ten days.

The Board of County Commissioners did not convene to-day until 3 o'clock on account of the funeral of Mr. William Black, late Superintendent of the County Home.

The regular meeting of the Raleigh Industrial Club will be held to-night at 8:30 o'clock. It is desired that there be a full attendance as business of special importance will be transacted.

Mr. T. B. Stewart, who has for two years been in the employ of Messrs. Boylan, Pearce & Co., has resigned that position and has accepted a place with Messrs. Sherwood Higgs & Co.

The Apex tobacco market is proving a great success, said County Commissioner Utley this morning.

Up to the present time we have sold more tobacco than the Durham market, and the prices paid to the farmers are very satisfactory.

Tally Francis, a small white boy, was before Judge Badger to-day charged with shooting a beanshooter in the city. The judge suspended judgment, and warned the boy if he was guilty again the same warrant would be revived.

Mr. Irwin T. Jones, chief clerk for T. T. Hay & Bro., who was stricken with appendicitis Monday, was carried to Rex Hospital last night at 10 o'clock, where an operation was performed. Mr. Jones is reported this morning as doing nicely.

Mr. George L. Tonnofski, assistant clerk of the United States Court, has received from a friend in Cuba a leaf of tobacco which is full grown and only about a half inch long. This kind of tobacco is known as tobaccoette, and is very valuable, selling for $300 per pound to be made into cigarettes which sell for 15 cents each. The little pigmy leaf is very beautiful in color and is quite a curiosity.

Mr. J. E. O'Donnell, State manager of the National Cash Register Company, has leased the store in the Carolina Trust building now occupied by Perry & Rosenthal, and will open up a display of their machines very soon. It is understood that during fair week the National Cash Register Company will have a magnificent electrical display.

The following additions have been made to the force of Charles E. Johnson & Co., the well-known cotton firm of Raleigh: Messrs. Frank E. Weathers and C. L. Howard, of Wake county, will be on this market as buyers and Mr. J. G. Ashe, of Raleigh, has accepted a position in the office.

Baseball This Afternoon. The members of the Neuse ball team and those of a Franklinton nine are at ball play this afternoon out at the Fair Grounds. There is every reason to believe that the game will be a lively one in every way, and a deep general interest is felt in the meeting. The batteries are: For Franklinton, Thompson and Duckett, and for Neuse, Winston and Gilles.

Coroner Holds Autopsy. The body of Nell, the maniac who died after a chase by State Hospital attendants Thursday, August 24th, was brought here to-day from Chatham county, for an autopsy by Coroner Jordan. The hearing was held at Strickland's coffin house and the proceedings were secret. The jury is still in session.

The Coroner of Chatham county, Dr. Taylor, was present as a witness.

It would be hard to find a purer, brighter, more attractive concert than that given by the children from the Oxford Orphan Asylum each year. The programme is varied and interesting and the children do their part well. It would be hard to find a worthier cause than that which the children represent.
