EAT SHAFER HAMS

Weddings.

Many people in the city will be interested in the following marriages which have been received from Charlotte, the home of two prospective brides, well known in Raleigh:

Mr. Peter Marshall Brown requests the presence of his guests at the marriage of his daughter
Corrie Marshall
to
Mr. Gaston Gilbert Galloway on the evening of Tuesday, the thirty-first of October at eight o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Moore invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter
Frances Gardner
to
Mr. Daniel Thomas McCarty on Wednesday evening the twenty-fifth of October nineteen hundred and five at half after seven o'clock Saint Peter's Episcopal Church, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Each of these young women are well known all over the State. Miss Brown is one of the most attractive of the younger set, and is a daughter of Mr. Peter Marshall Brown, ex-mayor of Charlotte, and one of the most prominent and influential citizens of that city. Miss Brown cannot reckon her friends and admirers. She is of a most distinctive and pronounced type of womanhood. The marriage will be followed by an elaborate reception at the home of Mr. Brown on East avenue.

Miss Moore is a daughter of one of the distinguished older Carolinians. Aside from her personally attractive parts she is talented in many ways, being possessed of a voice of rare power and compass. She is a graduate of the historic Salem Academy and is known throughout Southern social circles.

Chadwick—King.
Mr. and Mrs. Hill E. King announce the marriage of their daughter
Amy Eugenia
to
Mr. Robert A. Chadwick on the morning of October eighteenth nineteen hundred and five at ten o'clock at their residence 119 West Edenton Street, Raleigh, North Carolina. No cards in the city. Miss King is one of Raleigh's most attractive young ladies and has many friends in the city. Mr. Chadwick is from Wilmington and has a number of friends in that city.

Children to Hold Flower Show.
On Saturday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock at the Centennial School, the children of the city schools will hold a flower show to which the public is cordially invited. The exhibit will be in charge of the following ladies: Mrs. J. O. Litchford, Misses Louise Busbee, Mary Deussen, and Winifred Massey representing the Woman's Club; Mrs. J. W. Barbee, Mrs. Charlotte Williamson, and Miss Nannie Skinner representing the schools. These ladies will be assisted by six children from each school. A prize will be given for the best school exhibit. Four other prizes will be given—one to the child from each school making the best display. This, however, must be the work of the child, who shall only show such flowers or plants raised by the child from seed given by the Woman's Club. The names of the judges will be given later.

Mrs. McSosh: Why did you leave church while the minister was preaching that vivid sermon?
Mr. McSosh: Too blame' vivid. Made me nervous.

Mrs. McSosh: What do you mean?
Mr. McSosh: He kept talking about a "generation of vipers" till it durn near brought on one of my old attacks.—Baltimore News.

SALE OF LAND.

By virtue of the powers contained in a certain deed of trust executed on the 23rd day of January, 1905, by John Saunders and Annie Saunders, his wife, to John C. Drewry, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds for Wake county, in Book 175, at page 488, I will offer for sale at the court house door in the city of Raleigh, N. C., to the highest bidder for cash on Monday, the 13th day of November, 1905, at 12 o'clock M., the following described lot of land, to-wit:

Beginning at D. D. Johnson's Southeast corner on South street, running thence East along the North side of said South street, 66 feet to said Drewry's line; thence North in a line perpendicular to said South street along said Drewry's line 108 feet; thence West in a line parallel with South street 66 feet; thence South 108 feet to the beginning, containing about one-sixth of an acre, and being the same land conveyed to the said John Saunders by the said John C. Drewry and Kittle Holt Drewry, his wife.
